FOUR MILLION TO GET REMINDER ON UNFORGIVEN TAXES

Washington, Feb. 1.—(U.P.)—Some 4,000,000 Americans were being reminded today that they owe income taxes for 1942 or 1943 which might be paid up on or before March 15.

These are the persons who chose the installment plan to meet the unforgiven portion of their 1942 or 1943 income tax bill. The Bureau of Internal Revenue reports that mailing of statements—"duns"—is being completed by the various collecting offices.

In 1943, congress decided that in connection with inauguration of the withholding tax system, taxpayers would be exempted from payment of 75 per cent of their 1942 or 1943 tax, whichever was smaller. In most cases the 1942 obligation was the smaller. Half of the unforgiven portion was due and payable last March 15, and the remainder on March 15, 1945.

Provision for payment of the final installment was not made on the 1944 tax forms. This was principally because relatively few of the 50,000,000 taxpayers are affected. The Bureau said it wanted to keep its new simplified form as simple as possible and that to add to it would have caused much confusion. So separate reminders—statements of amounts due—were sent to all who still owe.

The high school majorettes, Elva Carlton, Nyoda Herman, and Viola Dalley and the drill team put on a very fine performance at half-time of the Gold Hill-Prospect basketball game. Fred Middlebush underwent a minor operation on his nose, in Medford last week.

L. Conger, Mrs. Raymond Artmire, Mrs. John Hakkerup, Mrs. S. A. Moore, Mrs. Glen Dole, Mrs. Frances Pearson, Mrs. Stanford Pearson, Mrs. H. L. Dalley, Mrs. William Gaines, Mrs. Hiene Hertager, Mrs. George Jaros, and Mrs. Fendall. The meetings are held the third Thursday of each month, and Mrs. Hertager will be the February hostess.
