CANNED CHICKEN SHORTAGE NEARS

Washington, Feb. 8 — (U.P.) — Canned chicken and chicken soup are expected to disappear from grocery shelves for the rest of 1945 as the result of an order by the war food administration setting aside all canned poultry for the armed forces beginning February 14.

ITALY PROTESTS HER ARMISTICE MUCH TOO HARSH

Washington, Feb. 8 — (U.P.) — A Congressional source said today that the Italian armistice terms call upon Italy to give up all her colonies, turn over the Mediterranean island of Pantelleria to Great Britain, and possibly cede the Adriatic port of Trieste to Yugoslavia.

The armistice terms, signed on Sept. 3, 1943, have never been made public despite considerable agitation in this country and in Italy. The White House, State Department and War Department have repeatedly declined to do so on grounds of military security.

The controversy over the Italian armistice terms is based on charges that they are too harsh, and Italian sources have felt that is why the Allies never have made them public. The armistice terms signed with axis satellites — Finland, Bulgaria, and Hungary — were made public immediately. Italy was a full-fledged axis member.

The congressional source said that the terms were so harsh that Italian Premier Ivanoe Bonami sent President Roosevelt a 100-page letter last September listing specific grievances.
