

'SUGAR' BOYS TO DRAW BIG CROWD

Chicago, Feb. 14—(U.P.)—The "Sugar Bowl Brawl," matching Ray (Sugar) Robinson against George (Sugar) Costner in a 10-round welterweight bout will draw approximately 21,000 currownd welterweight bout, will tomers to the stadium tonight for about a $90,000 gate.

Robinson is considered the No. 1 challenger for the crown worn by Champion Freddie (Red) Cochrane, but he ranks only as a 9-5 favorite tonight.

Medford high school's basketball crew had to come from behind last night to eke out a 37 to 31 victory over Grants Pass in a southern Oregon conference game played at Grants Pass.

Medford was behind 21 to 10 3 1/2 minutes after the second quarter started but narrowed the gap to 23 to 16 at the halfway mark. Two minutes after the fourth period started the Black Tornado knotted the count at 28-28 and gradually forged ahead.

Fawcett Fouls Out
Grants Pass found no trouble hitting the hoop during the first half and their fast break and tight zone defense held the Tornado in check for two full periods. In the last half Grants Pass slowed down in an apparent attempt to hold on to their lead and that was where Medford started to score. Darrell Riggs played another excellent game under the backboards and during the second half dominated both baskets to gain control of the ball for his team. Dick Fawcett was the only player to go out on fouls, leaving the game in the final stanza.

Medford took 56 shots at the basket, making 17 while Grants Pass took 27 shots, 11 of them in the last half, and hit 11 times.

NEW REFEREE FOR WRESTLING MATCH

An out-of-town referee will be imported by Promoter Mack Lillard for next Thursday night's wrestling card at Medford Armory when Pete Belcastro and the Gray Mask clash in the top main event. The Mask protested Referee Earl Yoakley, claiming he could not get a square deal with Yoakley in the ring. There will be no time limit set for their coming battle but two out of three falls will decide the winner, even if they have to wrestle all night, Lillard said, adding they would not even stop the match for "curfew." The bitter ring rivals will be meeting for the third time, their two previous bouts having ended in draws. Both Belcastro and the Mask were eager for the bout to determine which is the better man.

Harold (Blood and Guts) Davidson and Terrible Tony Ross, both ranking close to the main eventers when it comes to dirty work in the ring, will square off in the middle bout, slated for four rounds. Lillard made this match at the request of fans who have been asking for a chance to see them in action against each other.

Georges Dusette, said to be one of the strongest men now working in the light-heavyweight glass, will collide in the three round opener with Silent Rattan, Kansas deaf mute. They will take to the mat at 8:30 p.m. promptly.

Bruins Top Hawks In Hockey League

A three-goal second period gave the Boston Bruins a 3 to 2 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks and a tighter hold on fourth place and a Stanley Cup playoff berth in the only National League hockey game played last night.

The victory was the second in the past eight games for the Bruins and nipped a late-season drive by the cellar-dwelling Hawks who have won or tied four of their last five games.

BY NELSON WINS PLAY-OFF ROUND WITH M'SPADEN

By John Lewis Stone
United Press Correspondent
New Orleans, La., Feb. 14—(U.P.)—Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., the Mr. Consistency of golf who chills opponents with his feverish brand of play, was $1,333.33 richer today after winning the $5,000 New Orleans open in a playoff round against Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Sanford, Me.

Nelson, who last year set a new money winning record for a golf professional, and McSpaden completed the regulation 72 holes with identical scores of 284, making the extra 18-hole playoff necessary. Yesterday Nelson was practically unbeatable.

Seven Under Par
Long off the tee and precision like in his accuracy with irons, the former Texan fired a seven-under-par 65 to make McSpaden's highly creditable 70 look poor by comparison. Nelson had McSpaden four down at the start of the back nine yesterday after turning the first round in 32, five under par. Regulation figures proved no obstacle on the back nine either, Nelson carding a two-under par 33 coming home McSpaden, Nelson's most persistent challenger this year, went out in 38 and back in 34.

Very few of the professionals remained for the final round—most of them moving on for a practice round at Gulfport, Miss., where the annual Gulfport Open begins on Thursday. That too is a $5,000 event.
