Staff To Practice — Officers and staff members of the Pythian Sisters lodge will practice Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at the K. of P. hall.

Home — Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street, returned home last night from a visit of two weeks with relatives in Salem, Portland and Seattle.

Here From Klamath — Visitors in Medford yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins of Klamath Falls. Mr. Jenkins, who was here on business, is the publisher of the Klamath Falls Herald and News.

Visitor Here — Pvt. Charles McLaughlin is in Medford on a 19-day furlough from Camp Hood, Texas. Before induction about six months ago he was employed in the lumber industry in the Medford vicinity.

Bon Home — Elwood Hedberg, Jr., radio technician 3rd class, U. S. navy, arrived home Sunday and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, Sr., at the family home 1206 East Main on a nine day leave. He has been stationed at the Materiel school, Treasure Island, San Francisco, but is to be reassigned elsewhere when he reports back to his base next week. Hedberg has been in the navy about 20 months and was last home for 24 hours at Christmas.

Board To Meet — The Jackson County Chamber of Commerce board will meet tomorrow noon at the Holland Hotel for luncheon. Board members planning to attend are asked to call the chamber office, 2294, and make reservations.

Arrested — Bryan E. Mercer, 18, route 1, was placed in the county jail Wednesday for purchasing liquor with a forged birth certificate, according to a police report. The youth was held at the request of a liquor inspector, the report stated.

Sentences Suspended — Jesse F. Graham, 49, Barton Waldroup, 26, and Edward P. McFarland, 53, jailed for being drunk in public places, received five day suspended sentences in police court today. Ivan E. Shumate, 38, held on the same charge, was released on $10 bail today.

In Captain — William D. Bray, chaplain stationed on Saipan with a Superfortress unit, has been promoted to the rank of captain according to information received by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray, Lozier Lane. Capt. Bray has been in the army for one and one-half years and before entering the army was a theological student at Southern Methodist university. The chaplain wrote that in addition to his ordinary duties, he had started pre-theological courses for a group of former divinity students and also has a class in Greek. Capt. Bray told of a special New Year's eve service which he conducted at the camp and which was broadcast shortwave to the United States.

NEAL A. CURRY IS PROMOTED TO 1ST LIEUTENANT
Allen D. Curry, 505 Benson street, has received a wire from his son, Neal A. Curry, stationed with the 79th General hospital in England, notifying him of his promotion to first lieutenant. Lt. Curry, who is acting adjutant for the general hospital, went overseas in October 1943, and has been in the army approximately three years. He graduated from Medford first school and worked for the National bank here, in Ashland and later at Hood River. He was stationed at Camp White at one time.

In a letter recently to his father, Curry mentioned seeing Douglas Eden in a London U.S. after finding his name just ahead of his own on a guest book at the club. Bob Leonard also of Medford called on Curry at his hospital. Mr. Curry has two other children in service. They are T/Sgt. Robert Wayne, AAF, stationed at Kissimmee, Fla., in service over three years, and a daughter, Phyllis, a private first class in the Wac, currently stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., who has two years of military service.

County Lagging In War-Bond Buying

Jackson county purchased but 64 per cent of its quota of war bonds for January according to the last report on bond purchases issued by the treasury department and received by Henry Zacharisen, county bonds sales chairman. The county's "E," "F" and "G" quota for the month had been set at $231,000 and total sales amounted to but $148,523, the report shows.

The chairman states that the February quota is $211,000 and he is hopeful that citizens will increase their purchases this month.
