World Prayer Day Service Is Held Friday At Church

The World Day of Prayer program, sponsored last Friday in Medford by the Council of Church Women, was based on a service written in London by four British women for use in 51 countries around the earth. The theme, "That ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light," is found in 1 Peter 2:9.

Locally the worship service began at 2 o'clock in the First Christian church and was under the direction of Mrs. Donna Taylor. The women of the council assembled at 10 o'clock in the morning for the annual business meeting conducted by Mrs. A. H. Gregory, the retiring president. Sharing some Lenten thoughts, Mrs. C. A. Meeker read the opening devotions.

Annual reports were given by the officers and committee chairmen, new officers were elected and Mrs. Fred M. Weatherford conducted the installations. Serving for the coming year are Mrs. Louis C. Kirby, president; Mrs. V. Birdseye, first vice-president; Mrs. C. H. Herman, second vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Keenan, recording secretary; Mrs. C. V. Cooper, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. C. H. Beery, treasurer.

In the address of the morning the Rev. E. S. Hansen of Zion Lutheran church brought a message on faith from the old testament prophet, Habakkuk.

Following the luncheon, served in the church parlors, musical numbers were given by a trio made up of Mrs. Ruth Eby, Mrs. Joy Sorenson, Mrs. Esther McUne, accompanied by Mrs. A. F. Kornstad. The Rev. Delbert W. Daniels, pastor of the First Christian church, lead prayer.

New War Projects Are Announced By D.A.R. President

Three new war projects of the Daughters of the American Revolution are to be rushed to completion with all possible speed according to an announcement received this past week by Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, Medford, regent of the Oregon chapter. The new projects were approved at the recent meeting of the D.A.R. National board.

One of the projects, which the announcement states is heartily endorsed by the army surgeon general, is a wired program distribution system, costing $60,000, for patients in the great Mayo general army hospital at Galesburg, Ill. When installed this latest miracle of radio will provide head phones beside every bed of the hospital which has a 2,000 to 2,500 bed capacity. The patients will have a choice of five programs, including the main speaker system of the hospital.

The other two projects concern the navy. One of them will provide mobile x-ray units for six new hospital ships, each unit to cost $15,000. The units can be moved to various parts of the ship and can also be taken ashore for use in isolated places such as small islands or beaches.

Third of the war projects will provide another type of portable x-ray unit for use on navy hospital ships. This type can be moved to any place in the wards and private rooms of the ships to make x-ray examinations. Each of the units cost $900. They will be installed on the seven navy hospital ships now in service, as well as on the six new ships now built or building.

"These three new war projects are really needed and they will help our soldiers and sailors in their fight for health" according to Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, president general of the D.A.R. "Funds for the projects are raised by voluntary donations. We raised over $350,000 for our blood plasma mobile units and will continue to contribute to projects which will help those who are wounded and sick. The surgeon general of the army and the surgeon general of the navy told us of the need for these three projects and we are glad to adopt them and include them in our war activities program."

Tummy, who portrayed Lincoln's mother; Mrs. Paul Bulkin, who played Lincoln's father, and Helen Holt Wilson, who took the part of Ann Rutledge. All wore costumes, Mrs. Tummy and Mrs. Wilson wearing family heirloom gowns.

As a part of the skit an old-fashioned table was prepared for the serving of refreshments, the table being laid with a red and white checkered cloth and set with old fashioned dishes, silver and other articles. Old-fashioned hasty pudding and other refreshments were then served.
