What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Friday afternoon troop 15 at the Oak Grove school held its annual court of awards. Because of the very able and stimulating leadership of Mrs. W. S. Rose and Mrs. W. D. Jensen, troop leaders, the girls have enjoyed many activities in their Girl Scout program. The badges awarded were: Cyclist, needlecraft, colorcraft, weaver, design, cooks, glass, junior citizenship, transportation and communication, my community and my troop.

Janis Grigsby, Ann Killingsworth, Priscilla Campbell, Leeta Paris, Betty Keeny, Deloris Coghill and Aylene Hopkins. Very special mention must go to Aylene Hopkins who has completed her requirements for the curved bar—the highest award in Girl Scouting. In addition to her regular troop activities Aylene Hopkins has given 150 hours of community service. A Girl Scout award for this service can only be earned when the service was given without financial remuneration. It was a joy to hand the 150-hour service award to Aylene Hopkins.
