

BICKERING BOTHERS
San Diego, Calif., Feb. 23 — (U.P.)—Charles Williams, 75, got fed up yesterday with the constant bickering of four women in the residence where he lived. Today, physicians said he would probably recover from a deep neck wound, self-inflicted. He said his attempt at suicide was to end "the infernal noise."

Soldier's Dive In Foxhole Changes 'Words' of Shell

Hammond, Ind., (U.P.) — S/Sgt. Bob Essinger recently wrote his wife that when shells zoom over the heads of the boys, each one seems to say something different to each individual.

All of them were talking about it one day when Essinger said, "When I hear those shells, they say, 'Who-oo-oo is-shyoo?'"

At that moment, a Negro soldier said, "That old shell says to me, 'Yo ain' goin' back to Alabama!'" But when I dive in the foxhole, I say, 'I is, I is, I is!'"

DORLOT KILLED

London, Feb. 23 — (U.P.) — Jacques Dorlot, chief of the pro-Nazi French popular party and notorious collaborator, was killed during a recent low-level Allied air attack on southwest Germany, the German DNB agency said today.
