

LOCAL and PERSONAL

In Washington—R. A. Work, 1514 West Main street, who went to Washington, D. C., two weeks ago on business for the soil conservation service, is expected home in a few days.

Flue Fire—Chemical equipment was summoned to the residence of J. P. Cocks, 603 North Fir street, this morning to extinguish a fire in a flue, fire officials stated. Only minor damage was reported.

Promoted—Leo Mills, formerly stationed at Camp White with the 91st infantry division and now serving in Belgium, has been promoted to colonel according to information received here by friends. Col. Mills is serving with Gen. Charles H. Gerhardt in the 1st army advance combat zone. While at Camp White Col. Mills served as inspector general. Mrs. Mills is making her home in Yates Center, Kan.

Receives Permit—The city superintendent issued a building permit today to Leo Nelson to lower the ceiling in Berry's Grill at 126 East Main street at an approximate cost of $200.

To Mare Island—Bernie Jonason, PN 1/c, left last night for Mare Island navy yard after a 14-day visit with his wife and child at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Mann, 47 Rose avenue. His wife and child accompanied him on a short trip to Seattle to see his parents and Mrs. Jonason's brother. Jonason entered the navy in July '44.

Posts Bail—Frank Hanson, 37, jailed Saturday for being drunk in a public place, was later released after posting $10 bail. When he was arrested he had no identification cards, registration or selective service classification card according to the police report. Charles Franklin Campbell, 49-year-old Montana resident, was held in the city jail Saturday night for drunkenness.

Pass Army Physicals—Fourteen registrants and transfers to selective service local board one passed pre-induction physical examinations at Portland February 21. They are: Delbert M. Boyd, Joe W. Rawhauser, Roy Elmer Coghlin, Robert F. Baker, LeRoy Kyker, Robert R. Myers, Riley C. Cook, George W. Nelson, J. E. Garrison, Gail J. St. Arnold, Arnold M. Depper, Weldon C. Schoolcraft, Carl D. Streicher and Frank E. Hall.

Atterbury To Leave—Maynard O. Atterbury, EM 1/c of the 55th USN construction battalion, will leave tomorrow for Camp Parks, Calif., after spending a 30-day leave here with Mrs. Atterbury at the family home, 54 Rose avenue. Atterbury has been in the Seabees 28 months, 23 of which he spent on South Pacific duty. While on leave he visited his mother and other relatives in Roseburg. Atterbury was an employee of the California-Oregon Power company before entering the navy.

Nervous Breakdown

Persons suffering with nervous prostration of mind and body have headaches, depressed spirits, irritability, dizziness, insomnia, iritability and weakness. They worry about everything. Normal nerve function is badly retarded in these people. Greater nerve control will enable them to regenerate great reserves of dynamic nerve energy for use in times of stress. Reserve vitality can be readily created. See your naturopathic physician for building increased nerve energy and greater vitality.
