

SCHOOL BUDGET IS UP IN HOUSE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Rep. Bengston Phones Request for Views of Interested Persons in County.

Salem, Ore., March 2 — (U.P.) — An attempted reconsideration of the vote by which the county school budget board bill (HB-80) was defeated, was scheduled in the Oregon House of Representatives today.

Rep. Giles French, Moro, chairman of the House taxation and Revenue Committee, which introduced the bill, said he will ask for reconsideration. The bill was defeated, but not killed, yesterday when the "ayes" lacked only two of the necessary constitutional majority.

(Editor's note: Expecting reconsideration of the budget board bill, Rep. Hilding Bengtson of Jackson county telephoned a request from Salem for views of school boards and others interested. The bill grants drastic budget and boundary making powers. Copies of the bill HB-80, are available at the county school superintendent's office.)

The House Resolutions Committee will consider a new memorial by Reps. Vernon Bull, LaGrande, Rose Foole, Klamath Falls, and Warren Edwin, Portland, asking the president to ban the return of persons of Japanese ancestry to the Pacific coast until the war is over.

deported after the war, is also under consideration by the committee, as is a memorial asking that the number of presidential terms be limited to two.

The Senate Alcoholic Traffic Committee introduced a bill (SB-285) to prevent liquor licenses temporarily under nuisance abatement proceedings from moving their property to a new location except under bond. The committee cited that putting "teeth" into the abatement law will stop proprietors from moving to a nearby location and reopening for business.

Would Define Duties
The Senate yesterday passed three bills to define duties of the State Agriculture Department and the State Board of Health, particularly as regards food and farm production.

A Senate bill (SB-29), resulting from an interim committee study, to create a new department of Public Health instead of the present board, remained in committee.

The other bills (SB's 128, 177 and 242) would define the legislative policy of each of the two departments and their jurisdiction; give the Public Health Board control of eating and drinking places, and give the Agriculture Department control of the milk industry while taking away its powers over eating places.

Sharp Objection
A bill to create Small Claims Departments in Justice Courts (HB-174) passed the House after sharp and unexpected opposition arose. Reps. Carl Francis and Max Landon objected to the bill on several grounds.

It would create the opportunity for small-time racketeers to flourish, they said. They maintained that every defendant was entitled to his day in a real court, and that the informal Small Claims Courts would be against the "dignity" of the bench.

A bill to place a tax on domestic as well as foreign insurance companies passed the House (HB-390). It would also lower the premium tax from 2 1/4 to 2 per cent. Rep. R. C. Frisbie said that it was in conformity with federal regulations, and the new law may avert the loss of as much as $1,250,000 in revenues yearly.

Another insurance bill (HB-391) also passed. It provides for the adoption of new mortality tables.

Wall Street
New York, March 2 — (U.P.) — Stocks moved irregularly on moderately active trading today. Opening firm and fairly active, the list went into a decline in the morning dealings but steadied later when traders turned their attention to special issues.

Several specials had wide gains—as much as 5 1/2 points in Safeway Stores whose directors voted to split the stock three for one. There were a few wide losses, notably in A. O. Smith which dropped 9 points at its low.

Early recessions were ascribed to technical items, including the usual week-end evening UP operations.

Closing Dow-Jones stock averages: Industrial 159.95, off 0.77; Railroads 52.03, off 0.48; Utility 28.42, off 0.16; 80 stocks 59.92, off 0.37.

BOBBY-SOXERS JAILED
San Diego, Calif., March 2 — (U.P.) — The hot licks of Duke Ellington's jazz band were too much for a dozen bobby-soxers who tried to crash his concert and wound up today in the city jail. Unable to obtain seats for swing musicale, the teen-agers caused such a commotion that police sent them to jail to cool off.

LIKE TO TWIRL AXES
Chanute Field, Ill. — (U.P.) — Sgt. Harold F. Emrich, Kansas City, Mo., a teletype student-soldier stationed here, spends his spare time engrossed in his hobby, twirling axes, similar to the way one would twirl a baton. His equipment consists of three-pound, two headed steel axes of the type that is found on most farms. To insure a firmer grip for the twirler, the handle has a small knob carved on the end.

Aberdeen-Angus Grand Champion Brings $10,000
Chicago, March 2 — (U.P.) — Ralph and Ona Wadley, East Lansing, Mich., today had received $10,000 for their grand champion bull Ramon's Burgess Eston, 7th, which took top honors yesterday at the national Aberdeen-Angus cattle show.
The bull was sold to the Grand Rivers Stock Farm, owned by the Hendren Brothers, Webberville, Mich.
Reserve grand champion Iremore of Wheatland 21st, owned by J. B. Hollinger, Chapman, Kans., brought $6,000. The bull, judged best of his class at the national western stock show at Denver, was purchased by the Ox Bow Farm, Prairie City, Ore.
Meals for the more than 50 animals quartered at Franklin Park in Boston cost the city about $23,500 per year.

WORLD PROBLEMS TALKED AT FORUM OF GIRL SCOUTS

Race relations, international relations, the Dumbarton Oaks plan for a United Nations organization and many other points were discussed Wednesday evening at the "Y" club when the Girl Scout council sponsored a forum discussion of "can youth of our nation contribute toward world peace tomorrow."

During the discussion the students advocated that political and economic equality be granted to all peoples as their human right and it was proposed that study of languages be more widespread as a means of promoting international relations. Developing this point the students said that unless persons know the language of another country they are handicapped in getting first-hand information that interpreters and translators "color" and perhaps influence understanding. The concrete suggestion was made that foreign language study should begin in the grade schools.

The Dumbarton Oaks plan was discussed and the opinion given that whatever the plan might be, it would always be completely dependent upon the good-will and perfect performance of those behind it.

The students appeared to realize that knowing of a solution to a problem does not necessarily provide the opportunity to do something about the problem.

One proposal was that the legal status be granted at the age of 18 and was backed by the arguments that youth is being drafted at the age of 18, asked to assume very serious responsibilities and that income tax is required for money earned.

In answer to a question from the floor "can youth and the older generation work harmoniously together toward a common goal" the reply was "yes, through such media as panel discussions, conferences or similar occasions where the two may meet and talk things over."

Mrs. Justin B. Smith was in charge of the panel discussion and participating were the Misses June Williams, Faye Mitchell, Elaine Walker, Maxine McKinney and Gerald Pence and Ferny McKibben.

Huge Ration Stamp Counterfeit Racket Uncovered In East

Boston, Mass., March 2 — (U.P.) — A vast meat and Butter ration stamp counterfeiting racket involving perhaps 200 Boston butchers and gamblers connected with horse and dog racing rings was disclosed today by OPA officials here.
The OPA said prosecutions would follow soon and that a number of "duration suspensions" would be meted out to meat dealers in the Faneuil Hall market section of Boston.
The racketeers visited meat dealers who had insufficient ration stamps to make up deficits and sold them stamps at the rate of $6 per 1,000 ration points. Dealers then were able to sell to customers without collecting ration points.
