LOCAL and PERSONAL

Back From Portland — Mrs. Mary Brown returned Monday from a short visit and shopping trip to Portland and has resumed her work at the Medford Irrigation district office.

• • •

Permit Issued—William Hoff, 329 Kennett street, received a permit at the office of the city superintendent today to shingle a building at his residence, at a cost of about $70.

• • •

Stamps Validated — Gasoline coupons B7 and C7 for passenger gasoline rations and R3 for non-highway gasoline rations became valid for five gallons each March 1, according to E. W. Eggen, OPA mileage rationing representative.

• • •

Holmes Here — Bob Holmes visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cole Holmes, 6 Keene Way drive, last week end, returning Monday evening to Boulder, Colo., where he is starting his final term in electrical engineering at the University of Colorado. He is studying under the navy's V-12 training program.

• • •

In France—John Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen, 418 Park street, is now in France with a signal corps unit, a letter from him which arrived a few days ago stated. He has been promoted to fifth grade technician. Cpl. Jensen, who has been in the army about two years, is a graduate of St Mary's academy and was a student at Oregon State college before entering the army.

• • •

Transferred — Gerald Stover Stephens, a son of Mrs. Anna B. Stephens, Talent, has completed training at the naval air technical center at Norman, Okla., and will now be transferred to another station or assigned to a ship, a release from Norman states. He was given the rating of seaman second class. Stephens, a graduate of Talent high school, enlisted in the navy in July of 1944.

• • •

Report Accidents—Cars driven by Mrs. Adra E. Walker, 245 Lyman avenue, and E. L. Powell collided yesterday when Powell failed to see Mrs. Walker's automobile going south at the intersection of Eighth and Bartlett streets. Another traffic accident was reported that a car driven by James Cook, Medford, hit an automobile driven by Mrs. Loyal Bates, Talent, when she attempted to pull from the curb on Central avenue as he was passing.

Here From Farragut — Sam Morehouse, S2/c, is here for a week from the Farragut naval base where he has been in training under the OGU department. Morehouse, in the navy for 14 weeks, is visiting his family at 19 North Peach street.

• • •

Overseas—T/5 Ernest R. Smith, son of Mrs. Charles Pitts, 707½ West 11th street, is now in France, according to word received by his mother this week. T/5 Smith is serving with a signal company overseas after being stationed in the United States for the past three years.

• • •

Inducted—Francis Lee Flink and Berry Johnston Albright, Jr., were navy inductees from Medford, February 24, at Ft Lewis. Five men taken into the army from here are Douglass Cresswell Welch, Lloyd Edwin Bennett, Earl Hollen Barnhart, Clyde Edward Gilbert and James Albert Westensee. Welch and Bennett were inducted February 22, the others on February 23.

• • •

Plaskett Home—Bill Plaskett arrived in Medford yesterday for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Plaskett, 11 Highland drive. He has just completed naval "boot" training at Memphis, Tenn., and returns there for training as an aviation radio crewman. Young Plaskett, who played end with Medford's championship football team last fall, is a member of the 1945 graduating class of Medford senior high school.

• • •

Commissioned—Elmer Bashaw received his commission as an ensign in the United States naval reserve at the University of California at Los Angeles graduation exercises held Saturday, Feb. 24. From Los Angeles Ens. Bashaw went east to enter training school at Harvard university and will take a four-months' course in communications. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bashaw, Central Point. Mrs. Bashaw traveled to Los Angeles for the graduation ceremonies and returned home yesterday.

TOPS IN SAFETY

Tulsa, Okla. — (U.P.) — The annual national trophy of the American Trucking Assn. was presented recently to the Associated Motor Carriers of Oklahoma for its safety work during 1944. It was the first time the national safety trophy has been presented to an Oklahoma organization.

B-29s Raze 240 Tokyo Blocks!

(Acme Radio-Telephoto)

The dark sections in this airview of Tokyo are part of the 240 city blocks—29,074,000 square feet—that B-29 Super-Fortresses burned out in their heaviest raid of the war on the snow-covered enemy capital. Largest dark section is the big Ueno railway yard and freight marshalling station, apparently almost completely knocked out. 21st Bomber Command photo, radioed from Guam by U. S. Navy radio-telephoto.

ROYAL CLARE TO BE TRANSFERRED

Royal Clare, manager of the Medford branch of the Zellerbach Paper company for the past six years, will leave Sunday for Portland to assume new duties with the Portland office of the firm. He has been replaced here by Lynn Robertson, for 15 years with the Crown Willamette Paper mill of Camas, Wash.

Mrs. Clare and their two children will remain at the family home until school closes for the term before leaving for Portland. Both Mr. and Mrs. Clare have been active in civic and social circles and have many friends in the city.

The Robertsons have purchased a home at 759 South Holly street, and Mrs. Robertson and daughter, Linda, 3, will arrive here soon.
