Cramer-Hoover Rites Are Held At Local Church

One of Medford's largest early spring weddings was that of Miss Rosalind Cramer and Melvin Hoover, which was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cramer, 400 Maple Park Drive, and the groom is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoover, Route 4.

The ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Charles Calkins. A floral arrangement of snapdragons and acacia with lighted tapers formed a setting for the bridal party. The tapers were lighted by Mrs. Maurice Sample, cousin of the bride.

Preceding the service Mrs. Henry Huenergardt played "Adoration" and Harry Young sang "Bless This House," "Oh Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Huenergardt.

The bride's wedding gown was of the traditional white satin fashioned with a neckline of seed pearls and a long, circular train. The fingertip length veil was edged with lace. Her flowers were a bouquet of white roses and lavender orchids. Miss Cramer was given in marriage by her father.

Attendants for the bride were Mrs. Claud Hoover, matron-of-honor, Miss Jo Ann Adler, maid-of-honor, and the Misses Dorene Fields and Gloria Jones, bridesmaids. Mrs. Hoover wore a gown of blue lace and net and the other attendants wore similar dresses of blue net. All carried bouquets of roses.

Because of the inability of the young men who were the college classmates and fraternity brothers of the groom to be in the wedding party, since they are in service, their fathers and friends served in their stead. The brother of the groom, Claud Hoover, acted for Cpl. Louis Thurman as best man. Ushers were Robert Fowler, acting for his son, First Lt. Robert Fowler, Jr., Eugene Thorndike, acting for his son, Sgt. William Thorndike, and C. H. Herman, acting for his son, Lt. Henry Herman. The soloist, Harry Young, sang for Sgt. William Young.

The wedding reception was held immediately after the ceremony with the traditional cake being cut first by the bride. Afterward Mrs. J. E. Solis, aunt of the groom, completed the cutting. Mrs. Louis Bittle, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Florence Benner, poured.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover left after the reception for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside in Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Alexander Hamilton high school of Culver City, Calif., and also attended the Roman and Le Teu private schools for girls in California. She has been active in local musical circles.

The groom graduated from Medford high school in 1940 and later studied at Oregon State college where he was affiliated with the college chapter of Phi Gamma Delta. From there he entered the army and was recently given an honorable discharge at Ft. Benning, Ga. The Hoovers have resided in the valley many years and the family is widely known.

Newlywed Couple Returns To City; Rites In Corvallis

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Conger have returned to Medford after a wedding trip to the coast and have taken up residence at 831 Minnesota avenue where they will be at home to friends after Mar. 6. Mrs. Conger is the former Maurine Shearer.

The Shearer-Conger rites were an event of February 14, taking place at three o'clock in the afternoon in the Presbyterian-Congregational church at Corvallis, Ore. This date was selected because it was the 62nd wedding anniversary of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Stewart, pioneer resident of Lane county.

For the ceremony the bridal party stood before a fireplace in the church chapel banked with daffodils, narcissi and heather. Dr. E. W. Warrington of Oregon State college performed the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Shearer's wedding costume was a suit of sage green with brown accessories. Her corsage was of green orchids. The bride's attendants were Miss Lois Lutz, Corvallis, who wore a brown suit and a gardenia corsage, and Mrs. W. E. Caldwell wearing a black dress with a corsage of gardenias.

Both Miss Lutz and Mrs. Caldwell are Sigma Kappa sorority sisters of the bride and Mrs. Caldwell is also a sister of the groom.

Dr. Caldwell acted as best man for the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party gathered at the home of Miss Lutz where the traditional wedding cake and refreshments were served. Later Mr. and Mrs. Conger left for the wedding trip to Oregon coast points.

Both the bride and groom have many friends in Jackson county. Miss Shearer for the past three years has been on the staff of the Rogue River National Forest service in Medford and is president of the Business and Professional Women's club. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shearer, well known residents of the Cottage Grove district.

Mr. Conger, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Conger, Route 2, has resided in the county his entire life. He is currently engaged in farming.

Announce Troth Miss Joan Cox To Dean Pruett

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cox, 515 West Jackson boulevard, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Joan, to Dean W. Pruett, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Pruett, Route 2, Box 49. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Cox graduated from St. Mary's Academy here with the class of 1944 and is attending beauty school at present. Mr. Pruett graduated from Medford senior high school with the class of 1944 and is now an aviation radioman third class in the navy. He was in Medford on a brief visit last week and then reported to a California naval base.

N. Dakota Residents Are Antelope Visitors

Mrs. Louis Greb of Antelope had as house guests the past month her sister, Mrs. Eda Messner and Mrs. Messner's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prebe, all from Valley City, North Dakota. Mrs. Greb's daughter, Mrs. Frances Miller of Dorris, Calif., also spent a brief time with her mother recently.

The Dakota visitors especially enjoyed the climate, Mrs. Greb reports, and plan to return in the near future for a more extended visit.

Barbara Brayton Becomes Bride of Richard T. Nelson

Miss Barbara Ann Brayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brayton, 314 Vancouver avenue, became the bride of Richard T. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson, Old Pacific Highway, at a service which took place Saturday, Feb. 24, at Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Father Henry Orth performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, baskets of mixed flowers providing a setting for the bridal party. Preceding the rites Bill Brayton, brother of the bride, sang "Ave Maria" with Miss Jean Denman at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and net designed with a long train and worn with a fingertip length veil. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and bouvardia streamers. Miss Monica Wilcox of Vancouver, Wash., was maid of honor. She wore a frock of ice green chiffon velvet and chignon, a small cap of green velvet and chignon, and pink fresh flowers and carried a nosegay of pink blossoms.

Also in the wedding party were little Dickie and Karlyn Phair, the small boy acting as ring bearer and his sister as flower girl. Karlyn wore a floor-length white organdy dress with blue trim and an organdy head-dress. She carried a tiny nosegay of flowers.

Robert Holes, United States navy, was best man for the groom.

Present for the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ann Brayton of Spokane; Mrs. Lucille Wilcox, Bremerton, Wash.; Miss Louise Beirne, Kelso, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Abbott and son, Robert, Brookings, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott being an aunt and uncle of the groom.

The reception was held at the Nelson home, with Mrs. William Nikolaus, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. James Murray, aunt of the bride, assisting at the reception.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Nelson left for a wedding trip, traveling by plane to Seattle and from there taking a boat trip to Victoria, B. C. The bride's going-away costume was a three-piece brown gabardine suit worn with brown and shell-pink accessories and a pink scarf. She wore an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy here and is now a cadet nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital, Vancouver, Wash., where she will graduate in June. The groom, a graduate of Medford high school later attended the University of Oregon and Oregon State college. He recently returned to this country after serving three years in the South Pacific as a pharmacist's mate first class in the navy and plans to later enter the University of Southern California to continue his medical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have taken an apartment in Portland.
