ARLINGTON WINS FIRST TILT WITH 30 TO 28 SCORE

BIG TURNOUT OF SAN FRANCISCO SEALS REACH 44

San Francisco, March 6—(U.P.)—The training camp population of the San Francisco Seals hit 44 today, the biggest Seals turnout in five years, Manager Lefty O'Doul reported.

Seven more players are yet to arrive, O'Doul said. New arrivals in camp included Elmer Orella, southpaw hurler; Harold Raybourn, 17, Santa Maria, Cal., infielder; Doug Oliver, pitcher from Oakland; and Marion Dix, Denver, Colo., infielder.

Boyes Springs, Cal., March 6 (U.P.)—"Despite the loss of pitchers Jack Lotz, Damon Hayes and Joe Sullivan, the Oakland Oaks this year will be sitting as prettily as almost any other team in the coast league," Business Manager Vic Devincenzi declared today.

Devincenzi explained that Lotz, Hayes and Sullivan all are working on defense jobs which they don't want to leave. Harry Shuman, obtained on a trade for Les Scarsella, is expected to swell the Oaks' mound staff, but the date of his arrival is uncertain.

San Jose, Cal., March 6—(U.P.)—Ad Liska, veteran hurler, and outfielder Spencer Harris, arrived at the Portland Beavers training camp today. Liska, who wintered in Wisconsin, won 18 games last year.

Ontario, Cal., March 6—(U.P.)—The Hollywood Stars' 1945 pennant hopes received a severe jolt today with disclosure that Ken Richardson, hard-hitting outfielder, was in St. Vincent's hospital, Los Angeles, suffering from a brain concussion and a fractured rib as the result of an auto accident yesterday.

Manager Buck Fausett said that Brooks Holder, fleet outfielder, remained a holdout.

San Fernando, Cal., March 6—(U.P.)—Manager Bill Skiff, buoyed by the appearance of veteran catcher Hal Sueme and a day of sunny weather, today was ready to put the Seattle Rainiers through another day of stiff workouts.

Anaheim, Cal., March 6—(U.P.)—Manager Bill Sweeney today had visions of another Los Angeles Angel baseball team of pre-war calibre with the disclosure the Chicago Cubs had released powerful Glen (Rip) Russell, fence-busting outfielder, to the Angels.

If slugger Lou Novikoff should come to terms with the Angels, the league champions would have two of the hardest hitters in baseball.

El Centro, Cal., March 6—(U.P.)—Manager Pepper Martin today put the San Diego Padres, all 25 of them, through the second day of their spring training.

Only seven of the 25 had seen previous service with San Diego. Yet-to-arrive were two other veterans, Dick Gyselman and John Kreevich, and Tony Criscola, traded last year from Cincinnati's Reds.

DePAUL ACCEPTS BID TO N. Y. TOURNAMENT

Chicago, March 6—(U.P.)—DePaul University, having given up hope of receiving a bid to the National Collegiate Athletic Association's tournament, announced today it would enter its basketball team in the annual New York Invitational Tournament to be held in Madison Square Garden, March 17, 19 and 21.

BOWLING

In Classic league last night Jim's Super Service defeated Medford Feed and Seed two games to one. (R. Pruitt 245-601). Domestic Laundry won two out of three from Signal Oil, (Frisbie 220-587) and Rolling Pin won two out of three from Maid Rite (Cannon 213-604).

RACING INDUSTRY HOLDS HOPE FOR GO AHEAD SIGNAL

New York, March 6—(U.P.)—The thoroughbred racing industry began waiting today for the occasion when a "ray of hope" from the office of War Mobilizer James F. Byrnes will brighten into a "green light" for the resumption of racing.

There were intimations that it might come even before the fall of Germany. Maj. Thomas H. McCreery, head of the Horsemen's Protective Benevolent Association, said he had been assured that limited racing would be permitted "as soon as war conditions in Europe are sufficiently improved to warrant it."

McCreery, reporting a lengthy conference with Maj. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, a deputy in Byrnes' office, provided the industry with the first definite word that the administration would consider plans for reopening the tracks before the war was over.

JOHNSOS OFFERED WORK WITH RAMS

Chicago, March 6—(U.P.)—Luke Johnsos, 37-year-old coach of the Chicago Bears, today considered a $20,000-a-year offer to coach the Cleveland Rams in the National Football League.

The one-time Northwestern University football star was offered the head coaching job of the leaderless Rams yesterday by Charles (Chlie) Walsh, general manager of the Cleveland Rams.

"I haven't committed myself one way or the other," Johnsos said. "I plan to give Walsh my answer within the next couple of days."

Johnsos turned down a three-year contract at $15,000 a year to coach the Rams a year ago. Cleveland then signed Aldo (Buff) Donnell, who recently entered the service after coaching the Rams last season.

Prospect

Prospect, March 6—Orville Lenderman, who stays at the home of his brother, Ray Lenderman, in Jantzer Village, had a narrow escape from serious injury Friday night when he went to sleep while smoking a cigarette in bed. Mrs. Roy Lender-

Dinkens, was served at 7 p. m. A business meeting, presided over by Mrs. T. J. Rickey, followed, and an interesting program was presented by students of Mr. Jaros' room.

Cpl. and Mrs. Ted G. Jantzer arrived here Feb. 26, from Columbia, S. C., and are guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Jantzer. Cpl. Jantzer, who is with the 28th airborne tank battalion, will have to report at his base, March 13.

Pvt. and Mrs. Delbert Spain and little daughter, Delberta, from Mineral Wells, Tex., where the former recently finished his basic training in the U. S. infantry at Camp Wolters, visited friends here for a couple of days last week. Pvt. Spain, a "cat" driver for the George L. Jantzer Lumber Co. before being inducted last October, will report at Fort Ord, Calif., the last of this week, for further training before being sent overseas.

Miss Norma Dean Chandler has recovered from her recent tonsillectomy and resumed studies in the local high school.

Mrs. Allen Collingwood, who has been at Mineral Wells, Tex., where Pvt. Collingwood is taking his basic training at Camp Wolters, returned here and is making her home with her mother, Mrs. Dee Hedgpath. The Collingwoods' 3-year-old son, Leon, who has been staying with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps at Copco, Calif., while his parents were in Texas, is now with his mother.

Pvt. Claude Johnson, former Prospect man inducted last October and in training at Camp Wolters, Tex., has been in the army hospital for the past two months, seriously ill following major surgery a month ago. He is reported on the road to recovery at this time. Mrs. Johnson and their two children, Leroy and Donna, are living near.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gray and son, Donald, of Medford were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goode. Other guests at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goode and children, Patricia Ann and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hollenbeck and daughter, Miss Joanne, and Miss Thelda Goode. The young people spent the afternoon skiing at Union Creek.

Pvt. Stanford Pearson, son of Mrs. Frances Pearson, who has been stationed at Pearl Harbor for a couple of weeks, arrived recently in the Marianna islands. Pvt. Pearson writes that the weather is perfect there and he is enjoying the swimming. Mrs. Stanford Pearson is living with her husband's mother, here.

Mrs. Eldon Bean has returned from the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford, greatly improved in health. Her little daughter, Eldonna, has been staying at the home of Mrs. Bean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moore.

NEW FLYING BOMB OF LONGER RANGE

London, March 6—(U.P.)—Air Secretary Sir Archibald Sinclair told commons today that the Germans are flying a new and longer-range type of flying bomb at Britain. Sinclair also disclosed that a British bomb sight of "extraordinary complexity, ingenuity and accuracy" now is in use. Lancaster bombers used it to sink the German battleship Tirpitz in Norwegian waters.

In a review of royal air force activity, Sinclair disclosed for the first time that a Dakota transport plane landed in occupied Poland last spring and brought out ranking Polish underground officers. Polish guerrillas fought a 48-hour battle against the Germans to keep the landing field open.

TITO ENTRUSTED

London, March 6—(U.P.)—Marshal Tito has been entrusted with formation of a new united Yugoslav government in accordance with a recommendation of the Crimean conference, Belgrade dispatches said today.
