

MEDFORD WOMAN COBLENZ NATIVE

A close "map watcher" these days is Mrs. Earl Wallace, 344 South Grape street, for Mrs. Wallace is a native of Coblenz Germany, on which allied troops are advancing today. With growing excitement Mrs. Wallace learned today that Maj. Gen. Terry Allen, Sr., is with the troops on the march to Coblenz. Twenty-five years ago in April Mrs. Wallace, then Amalie Koch of Coblenz, secured the signature of Gen. Allen on papers which permitted her to come to this country as the bride of Sgt. Earl Wallace of Grants Pass, veteran of a United States military unit during the first World War. Mrs. Wallace's two sisters also married American soldiers and eventually came to live in this country. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary April 3. This morning Mrs. Wallace visited the Tribune office on her way to the Riverside USO for her work as a volunteer. She is very proud of the pin which shows 500 hours spent in this service to enlisted men serving her adopted country.

Non-Smoker Keeps Cigarette Supply Safe From Family

Oakland, Calif., (U.P.)—A safe deposit box seems indicated in the case of William H. Wehrle, 58, who has 150 packages of cigarettes from all over the world. The packages are unopened and so shall they remain, said Wehrle, who amassed them not for smoking purposes, but as a hobby. He owns what is believed to be the most complete collection of American brands and several packs from Mexico, Europe, and the Orient. "I collect, but don't smoke," Wehrle declared, explaining that he stopped smoking and started collecting several years ago when his wife made "sighting" comments about his rolling his own, exhausting a can of tobacco daily. Comments Wehrle's rueful family, "We wait in line like everybody else." KEEP CONTAINER HANDY Don't keep your used fat container so far from our stove or sink that you wear out your rationed shoes getting to it. When it is near at hand you save every scrap of fat. ONE GOOD TURN . . . Stoneham, Mass., (U.P.)—The Golden Rule was observed here when Frederick J. Lang rescued his dog, Blackie, from a fire when the pup collapsed while trying to wake his master.

Cigarette Collector Boasts 500 Brands

Farmington, Minn., (U.P.)—Fred McAndrew, cafe proprietor, has plenty of cigarettes, despite the national shortage. McAndrew's collection is just that. It consists of 500 brands acquired from 33 nations, and he has been seven years getting it together. Farmington servicemen all over the world, remembering McAndrew's hobby, have sent him strange packs, including some taken from dead Japanese at Tarawa. There is another which was sent from Germany to a prisoner of war stationed near here. McAndrew, now trying to run his total to 1,500 kinds of smokes, will have one bitter regret even if he reaches that goal. He had a custom-made pack for the King of England, but thieves took it, along with 30 other packages. ADM. ADMIRAL—HE HOPES Fort Lewis, Wash., (U.P.)—Secretary Forrestal doesn't know it yet, but the navy has a new admiral. Officials at the Fort Lewis induction center recently signed Arthur Admiral, Mount Vernon, Wash., into the navy, after he explained, "I want to be sure to live up to my name."
