

MRS. ELLIOTT'S BROTHER FREED

Mrs. Bert Elliott received a wire Wednesday evening stating that American doughboys had liberated her brother, the Rev. David P. Martin, from the Los Banos Prison Camp in the Philippines. Rev. Martin, for 19 years a missionary in Japan, and later moved to the Philippines, has been a prisoner of the Japs for three years. Martin is a former outstanding University of Washington athlete. He was reared at Rogue River and is well known in Medford.

THE GRANGE

First step toward development of a new park for Medford, which has been discussed and planned for so long, was taken this week when the city council purchased 15 acres of land, the Olds tract, on the east bank of Bear creek between the East Main street and Jackson boulevard bridges. Price of the land, $20,000 was donated by 22 city residents and firms.

The council plans to develop the project as soon as possible and one of the recreational facilities will be the municipal swimming pool for which a special tax levy has been voted.

Changes in local business establishments recently include sale of the four Medford theaters to Walter H. Leverette by the Hunt estate. The Leverette chain, Leverette Interstate Theaters, now includes the four theaters here, two in Ashland, two in Yreka and one in Weed. Mr. Leverette has sold his interest in the three Grants Pass theaters to Mr. and Mrs. William von der Hellen, A. Orin Schenck and Mrs. George Hunt.

Tony Manno has opened a new hardware store in the old Rexall drug store building.

Medford and Prineville start a two-out-of-three game basketball series here tonight with the winner to enter the state tournament at Salem next week. Medford is slightly favored to win despite loss of Dick Fawcett because of illness and possible loss of Jerry Ross for tonight's game. Prineville has two players out, suffering from illness and an injury received after arriving here Tuesday.

Rogue River and Arlington move their "B" struggle for a tourney berth to Arlington tomorrow night. Arlington won the first game 30-28 and Rogue river evened the score the next night with a 37-to-22 victory.

A recent letter from Staff Sgt. R. H. Archer stated that he had left China and returned to India and that he was "back on a water buffalo diet, with delicious dehydrated potatoes for a chaser." W. L. (Red) Hober, now a chief warrant officer in the navy, recently wrote about a visit to New Zealand, declaring he thought the country quite similar to Oregon.

Capt. James Anning, who served 22 months overseas, including China and India, will now be fighter pilot instructor at Strohler field, Kan., and Lt. Thomas Helman, who returned home nearly a year ago after many missions as a Fortress pilot out of England, has transferred to the ATC and is at Great Falls, Mont. Lt. Mark Miller has been assigned to duty at Big Springs, Tex., at the bombardier school. Chester Webb, B-24 engineer-gunner with the 15th AAF in Italy, has been promoted to sergeant and Pvt. Esley E. Surran is serving with the signal corps in Italy. Douglas E. den, B-17 bombardier with the 8th AAF, has been promoted to first lieutenant. Bill Wall, on a supply ship in the Pacific, has been made a boatswain's mate second class.

First Lt. Ted Taylor has arrived in Medford after 34 months in the southwest Pacific and more recently in the Philippines and Lt. Henry Fisher, after service in widely scattered parts of the world has been assigned to midshipman's school in New York City. Others home after service overseas are Ray McKnight, S1/c, who saw action in the Philippines and wears a purple heart; Chief Petty Officer John Fortin from the South Pacific; and Clyde Chriss, seaman, home after 13 months in the south Pacific.

Both Cpl. John Jensen and Cpl. Ernest R. Smith are now serving in France.

Sgt. Dolph Guyer, wounded recently in Philippine action, wrote the latter part of February to say that he was getting along fine and his wounded arm healing nicely. St. Carroll Watson received wounds while serving in Holland but has now recovered and returned to his company in Germany. He has sent home clippings from the Windmill, army newspaper published by men of the Tomahawk special service section and believed to be the first American army newspaper printed in Germany during this war.

Lt. Spencer Wells, marine corps fighter pilot serving on a carrier in the Pacific, has been reported missing in action and Cpl. Cecil R. Claffin, gunner on a bomber of the 12th AAF, Italy, is also declared to be missing.

Recent "blessed events" were the birth of a son to Capt. and Mrs. Frank Van Pelt (Evelyn Leonard); son born to Lt. and Mrs. Ray Ettinger (Mary Durand) and son born to Mr. and Mrs. Art R. Gray (Katherine Weston). Capt. Van Pelt is with the army in Germany and Lt.

Ettinger is a navy pilot in the South Pacific.

Sunday the engagement of Joan Cox to Dean W. Pruett, ARMC, was announced. Dean is now stationed at a California base. Weddings announced were Rosalind Cramer and Melvin Hoover; Maurine Shearer to Lewis E. Conger; Barbara Ann Brayton to Richard T. Nelson and Jane Anderson of Greenville, S. C., to Lt. Jack Martin of Gold Hill. The Hoovers will live here, the groom having recently been discharged from the army. The Nelsons will live in Portland while the bride finishes cadet nurse training, and the Congers will also live here. Nelson recently returned home after overseas duty with a medical unit of the navy and Lt. Martin also recently returned home from army air corps duty in the Pacific.

NEAR JERRY COLONNA IN BOB HOPE'S PEPSODENT SHOW, NBC, TUESDAYS, 7 P. M.

Put a "Jonah" on Jerry Colonna!

He's quick and agile, this funny man, Colonna! Jerry's out to beat you in M.J.B.'s Coffee Quiz game—but maybe you can put a "Jonah" on his plans. Here's all you do: Read through the quiz questions and pick a "right" answer for each. Then check your selections against the correct answers below—compare your score with Colonna's!

- The first license to sell coffee in the American Colonies was issued to:
 - ☐ William Penn ☐ Dorothy Jones
 - ☐ Ben Franklin ☐
- Coffee was carried as an original "K ration," in concentrated form, by:
 - ☐ Napoleon's troops ☐ Cleopatra's slaves
 - ☐ African warriors ☐
- The firm now known as M.J.B. Co. (packers of M.J.B. Coffee) started in business in the year:
 - ☐ 1881 ☐ 1902 ☐ 1779
- In which of these countries do 65 coffee trees grow for each inhabitant?
 - ☐ South Africa ☐ Chile ☐ San Salvador

(Jerry Colonna answered 2 out of 4 questions correctly in the above Coffee Quiz. Correct answers, in order, are: Dorothy Jones; African warriors; 1881; San Salvador.)

The right answer in choosing coffee is always M.J.B! It's got the flavor—full, rich and mellow. And M.J.B. is vacuum-packed (with the highest vacuum of any coffee) to assure peak freshness! All M.J.B.'s wonderful flavor and aroma is locked in for your enjoyment. We guarantee there is no finer coffee. Try M.J.B. Make your coffee with the same care you've used in the past... then you'll know—

You can't make a bad cup of M.J.B.

Double your money back if you don't agree M's the finest coffee you ever tasted!
