Phoenix Pie Social Friday Evening To Buy Band Uniforms

Phoenix, March 10—Phoenix P.-T. A. has selected as a main project for the year the purchasing of capes and caps for the school band and in order to accomplish this, will sponsor a band concert and pie social Friday, March 16, at 8 p. m. in the school gym.

An entertaining and interesting program of band numbers is being prepared by Harry Meyers, band instructor. Assisting him will be Mrs. Mabel Sims and her high school chorus.

After the program, A. H. Dudley, auctioneer, will auction off pies as a means of raising money. Two cases of milk have been purchased to sell to those desiring to drink milk with their pies and for the children. Coffee will be served by the P.-T. A. It will be greatly appreciated by the P.-T. A. if every member of the community will bring at least one pie and, if possible, two pies in order that the extra pies may be cut and sold by the piece to children or to those not desiring a whole pie.

Buying the band costumes is quite expensive, but P.-T. A. members feel that with the united co-operation of the entire community, they will be able to put over the project.

What's Doing at U. S. O.

Riverside USO will hold a St. Patrick's dance Friday night, March 16. Music by SCU orchestra from Camp White. The St. Patrick's day will furnish the decorations theme.

THE GRANGE

Phoenix Grange

A covered dish dinner preceded the Phoenix grange meeting Feb. 27. Grange marked its 14th birthday; also the birthdays of members born in this quarter. Brother Fish conducted community singing, opening lecture hour. Eight charter members present told the history of the Phoenix chapter which was organized Feb. 17, 1931, by Brothers Nealon and Anderson, state deputies. Some of the first officers including master, Ray Ward; chaplain, Brother Maust; secretary, Florence Drake; lecturer, Susie Maust; Ceres, Mildred Ward, were present.

On request of Brother Tripp, use of the hall was donated for the annual fireman's supper March 31.

Sisters Ward and Drake and Brother Maust were appointed to prepare a grange history. Brothers Boe and Ellison were named to help ceil the restroom.

Next serving committee will be the Inmans, Boswells and Hiltons.
