A Worthy Cat

To the Editor: I feel that Micky, known and loved by many people in southern Oregon is worthy of having his obituary published in your newspaper.

Mickey was not a pure-bred Persian cat. He was a half-breed. He was born June 19, 1925 and died March 10, 1945. He was very intelligent and we never could quite understand how the wheels went around so rapidly in his little cat brain. His temperament held all the bright hues of the rainbow.

He never molested the birds and many times we have seen him sitting on our deck steps with his two pals, our red Setter and red Cocker watching coyely after cooey of Quail pass within 10 feet of him without moving an eye-brow or swinging his tail. He knew they were our friends and to be left alone. He knew his way around and adapted himself to any situation. He carried himself with dignity and position.

Mickey was not buried under the rose vine in our garden by my husband, misty eyed, and laid tenderly away. Micky was buried in our hearts.

MRS. SID RICHARDSON.

How Sober Hoskins Got His Name

Everybody kids Sober Hoskins about his name. Of course, they allow that it's appropriate. Sober never drinks anything stronger than a glass of beer. And a harder worker in the fields there never was.

From where I sit, there may be something in what Sober's dad says. Naming children after virtues is a fine old American custom. Look at the names of our pioneers and pilgrims: Faith, Pious, Charity, Hope, Ernest.

Maybe we should use such names more often. And one I'd like to add is "Tolerance." If we all had Tolerance for a middle name, and lived up to it, we'd have a better, happier world.
