BELCASTRO, MASK CLASH IN RETURN RING GO TONIGHT

The local spotlight will turn tonight on Medford armory for the long-awaited rematch between Pete Belcastro and the Gray Mask, two of the most hated wrestlers ever to campaign in the Medford tug and haul palace. They punched and twisted each other nearly into submission in two bouts recently, both ending in draws. Belcastro has been more than anxious for the bout for some time and has been chasing the hooded hoodlum all over the north-west seeking the clash.

Interest is running nearly as high in the semi-windup when Georges Dusette, the darling of the mat, will face his toughest bout here when he goes against Terrible Tony Ross over the four round route. Dusette's dangerous full nelson maneuver makes him the slight favorite although Ross might give the classy Canadian his first north-west defeat.

Dusette won the junior heavy-weight championship Monday night in Portland when he took a lone fall match from Gust Johnson.

Ivan Jones, physical education director at McLoughlin Heights, Vancouver, will pit his multitude of clever holds against tough Billy McEuin in the 8:30 opener.

Angels Favored As Coast Baseball Starts Saturday

San Francisco, March 28—(U.P.)—They did it before—and the chances appear that they can do it again.

So the Los Angeles Angels, winners of the 1944 and 1943 Pacific Coast league pennant races, will take the field Saturday against the San Francisco Seals favored to win their third consecutive flag in the 183-game race.

However, there appears to be the making of a ding-dong battle over the horizon all through the league and the United Press admitted goes out on a limb to make these choices:

- 1—Los Angeles Angels.
- 2—Seattle Rainiers.
- 3—Portland Beavers.
- 4—San Francisco Seals.
- 5—Sacramento Solons.
- 6—Oakland Aorns.
- 7—Hollywood Stars.
- 8—San Diego Padres.

The Rainiers have added a batting punch in the acquisition of Chuck Aleno, Ted Norbert and Bob Finley. If Manager Bill Skiff can round out his usually strong pitching staff, the Seattle club may furnish the major contention.

Admittedly Manager Marv Owen is going to miss Marino Pieretti, the 26-game winner from his Portland mound corps. But the Beavers have added three good hurlers to take his place and again should be a factor in deciding the big money winners.

Manager Lefty O'Doul has the same club of veterans he had in 1944—minus the pitchers—at San Francisco.

The "if" club of the season is the Sacramento Solons. Manager Earl Sheely lined up plenty of talent during the winter months. The Oakland Aorns definitely are the "maybe" team. Manager Dolph Camilli is stacked two deep all through the infield ouff behind the plate. His chances appear to hinge on well the replacements respond, and what the pitchers can do.

Some writers are tabbing the Hollywood Stars for the first division.

Fiery Pepper Martin appears to have a job cut out for himself if he is able to draw the Padres out of the cellar. The pitching staff has been completely denuded of stars, with very little for replacements showing as the season opens.

PLANS MADE FOR BASEBALL SQUAD

Plans for a baseball team made up of Medford players has been announced by Bud Conlin of the Owl Club. Conlin, who will be manager of the organization, said the enterprise is being financed by some Medford businessmen and may carry the name of one of the firms.

According to Conlin, he has already secured the services of eight aspirants. They are Paul "Hoosier" Hofford, Harry Dunn, George Gibson, Pete Montgomery, Steve Crippen, Harry Foley, Don Fawcett and Ralph Cook. They plan to hold their first workout as soon as weather permits. Challenges will be sent to Klamath Falls and Grants Pass for games, along with letters to other teams in southern Oregon, it was stated.

Players interested in trying out for the squad are asked to contact Conlin at the Owl Club.

Beavers Wind Up Training Season

San Jose, Cal., March 29—(U.P.)—Portland Beavers wound up their spring exhibition schedule last night with a 9-6 win over McClellan Field and a 14-9 victory in the afternoon over Fleet City at Camp Shoemaker. "Lefty" Mosser sparked the evening game, striking out 11 rival batters in the five innings he pitched. A home run by Ted Gullie featured a five-run first inning by Portland. The rookie squad took over in the last six innings.

COCHRAN TRAILS HOPPE IN BILLIARD PLAYOFFS

Philadelphia, March 29—(U.P.)—Welker Cochran closed the gap today in his battle with Willie Hoppe for the world three cushion billiard title, trailing by only 43 points after a pair of victories in the final blocks of their play here.

Cochran, the defending title holder from San Francisco, won last night's block 60 to 35 in 44 innings, tying a previous high run of 11 for the match play series.
