

LOCAL and PERSONAL

From Grass Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Andrews, Grass Valley, Calif., are house guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ghull, 1902 Gore avenue.

To Hold Sale—A sale of home made cakes and pastries will be held by women of the Oak Grove extension unit Saturday at the Quality Market beginning at 10:30 a.m.

To Serve Breakfast—Women of the Baptist church will serve an Easter breakfast Sunday from 9 until 11 a.m. at the Riverside USO for servicemen, it was announced today. The organization served the Easter breakfast last year, the affair being attended by a large number of men either before or after attending church services in Medford.

On Furlough—Pvt. John Freeland, who recently completed basic training at Camp Roberts, Calif., is spending a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Freeland, Beall Lane.

Permit To Build—Oron McDonald, 526 North Front street, received a building permit yesterday from the office of the city superintendent to erect a garage for an approximate cost of $100.

Director Here—Col. Elmer V. Wooten, state director of selective service, was in Medford yesterday conferring with board members of Jackson county selective service boards No. 1 and 2.

Home From Overseas—Pfc. Fred Grigsby, son of Mrs. Bert Grigsby, 816 1/2 Summit avenue, arrived home on a 45 day furlough Wednesday after 34 months overseas. He has been serving with a medical battalion in Italy.

In Coast Guard—James R. Bestul and Aubrey C. Davis, 17-year-old Medford youths, have enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard at Portland and now are at home on inactive duty status, awaiting call to the training station at Alameda, Cal., according to a coast guard dispatch. Bestul, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bestul, 428 North Holly street, attended Jackson grade school and Medford senior high. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis, 819 Pennsylvania avenue, is a former Medford senior high school student.

SLIGHT PROSPECT FOR FROST SEEN TONIGHT
Frost Observer Roy J. Rogers reported today the prospects for frost tonight were slim, and if any, it would be very light.

Orchardists say there is a good bloom in prospect. In several recent years the valley has been visited by heavy frosts the final days of March and the first week of April.

NAVAL BRACELET, LOST IN MAIL, IS FOUND ON STREET

A navy identification bracelet sent from Florida arrived at the home of the addressee today, three weeks after the original package was delivered.

Robert C. Crowl, F2-c, sent the bracelet along with other personal belongings from Fort Pierce, Fla., to his mother, Mrs. George Clark, on Spring street. Mrs. Clark, knowing the bracelet was to be included in the package, notified the post office that it was missing and was given forms for Crowl to fill out.

In the meantime Mrs. G. O. Sanden, 304 South Central Ave., brought the bracelet to the Mail Tribune office after finding it on South Central. The Tribune office contacted Mrs. Lawrence Crowl, 725 South Central Ave., grandmother of the navy man. Mrs. Crowl, excited as to why the bracelet should be found in Medford when she knew her grandson was in Florida, got in touch with his mother to return the bracelet.

Mrs. Clark said the package showed only a small break which was not big enough for the bracelet to fall out.
