

Society and Clubs

Janice Nealon Becomes Bride Of Dean Inglis

Of interest to the bride's many friends in the valley is announcement from Mr. and Mrs. John L. Nealon of Table Rock of marriage of their second daughter, Janice, to Dean C. Inglis, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Inglis of Birmingham, Ala.

The wedding was solemnized Sunday, March 18, at 2:30 o'clock in St. James Episcopal church of Oakland, Cal., by the Rev. W. H. G. Battershill.

The bride, who was attended by Mrs. N. W. Peterson of Oakland, wore for the occasion a street length dress of bride's blue, a Juliet cap and shoulder veil of pale blue with navy accessories. She carried white orchids on a white prayer book.

Mr. Gill gave his daughter in marriage. For the wedding she wore a pink crepe afternoon frock with a pink flowered hat and carried a white prayer book with a marker of butterfly orchids. Her attendant, Miss Lillian Retis of San Mateo, had chosen a powder blue ensemble and carried a bouquet of orchids.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gill wore a gown of navy blue with accents of pink and the bridegroom's mother was in royal blue crepe with sequin trim. Both wore orchid corsages.

Violin selections were given by Elmer H. Young during the ceremony and Mrs. Young played the wedding march.

A reception was held, with the bride cutting the first slice of cake. A touch of sentiment was added by the fact that the same decoration topped the three-tiered wedding cake which had been used for the wedding reception of the bridegroom's parents and his sister.

Mr. Lindstrom and his bride spent the week-end in San Francisco following the wedding and this month will go to Salt Lake City where the groom will participate in the national bowling tournament.

Mrs. Lindstrom, well known here, was educated in the Medford schools and graduated from senior high school. For the past eight months she has been connected with the California Flower Shippers in San Mateo. The groom was graduated from the Burlingame high school, for three years was with the Hammond Aircraft company of California and is now in business with his father. The Lindstroms are long-time residents of the peninsula district.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Babb of San Jose, former Medford residents, and Miss Dorothy McArthur of San Francisco, long time friends of the Gill family.

Mrs. F. J. Newman will be hostess for the April meeting of the group, entertaining at the home of Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak Court.

At the luncheon covers were laid for 24, three guests present being Mrs. Catherine Wait, Mrs. Maud Maasdam and Mrs. D. O. Hood. Mrs. Ralph Spencer and Mrs. Frances Cochran were assisting hostesses.

Students of the Jacksonville high school gave a skating party at the Medford armory Monday night. Eighty attended.

Members of the Roosevelt school PTA will be hostesses.

Miss Dorothy Gill Married Recently To John Lindstrom

At a candlelight ceremony held at the home of the groom's parents in San Mateo, March 17, Miss Dorothy LaVerne Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gill, 122 Cottage street, became the bride of Robert F. Lindstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lindstrom.

The service was read at eight o'clock in the evening by the Rev. John Wilkins of the Burlingame Methodist church. The ivy and flower-banked fireplace, flanked by gold candelabra and arrangements of white calla lilies, pink and white snapdragons and white stock, formed a beautiful setting for the bridal party.

Mr. Gill gave his daughter in marriage. For the wedding she wore a pink crepe afternoon frock with a pink flowered hat and carried a white prayer book with a marker of butterfly orchids. Her attendant, Miss Lillian Retis of San Mateo, had chosen a powder blue ensemble and carried a bouquet of orchids.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gill wore a gown of navy blue with accents of pink and the bridegroom's mother was in royal blue crepe with sequin trim. Both wore orchid corsages.

Violin selections were given by Elmer H. Young during the ceremony and Mrs. Young played the wedding march.

A reception was held, with the bride cutting the first slice of cake. A touch of sentiment was added by the fact that the same decoration topped the three-tiered wedding cake which had been used for the wedding reception of the bridegroom's parents and his sister.

Mr. Lindstrom and his bride spent the week-end in San Francisco following the wedding and this month will go to Salt Lake City where the groom will participate in the national bowling tournament.

Mrs. Lindstrom, well known here, was educated in the Medford schools and graduated from senior high school. For the past eight months she has been connected with the California Flower Shippers in San Mateo. The groom was graduated from the Burlingame high school, for three years was with the Hammond Aircraft company of California and is now in business with his father. The Lindstroms are long-time residents of the peninsula district.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Babb of San Jose, former Medford residents, and Miss Dorothy McArthur of San Francisco, long time friends of the Gill family.

Mrs. F. J. Newman will be hostess for the April meeting of the group, entertaining at the home of Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak Court.

At the luncheon covers were laid for 24, three guests present being Mrs. Catherine Wait, Mrs. Maud Maasdam and Mrs. D. O. Hood. Mrs. Ralph Spencer and Mrs. Frances Cochran were assisting hostesses.

Students of the Jacksonville high school gave a skating party at the Medford armory Monday night. Eighty attended.

Members of the Roosevelt school PTA will be hostesses.

Carter-Brainerd Rites Take Place In Florida Church

An event of March 22 in Pensacola, Fla., was the wedding of Miss Anne Carter of Medford to David W. Brainerd, Grants Pass, United States navy. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Carter, 18 Hawthorne street, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Brainerd of Grants Pass.

The double-ring service was read at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Charles O. Trayer at Christ Episcopal church, Pensacola. Miss Carter's wedding costume was a street-length white frock worn with a small white hat, a shoulder-length veil and long white gloves. She carried a prayer book with rosebuds and her corsage was of white carnations.

Attendants for the couple were Lt. and Mrs. Harold R. Hartzell, both of Medford. Mrs. Hartzell, the former Beulah Stephenson, wore a light blue dress with black accessories.

A wedding dinner followed the service.

Mrs. Brainerd attended the Grants Pass high school and later graduated from St. Helen's Hall in Portland. Last fall she was a student at the College of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif. The groom, photographer's mate second class in the navy, recently returned to this country after extended overseas duty with the navy as an aerial photographer. He is a graduate of the Grants Pass high school and was trained at navy schools in Pensacola and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd will reside at Pensacola while the groom is stationed at the naval base there.

Officers Present Meeting Reports For DAR Chapter

Reports of the recent state board meeting at Salem of the Daughters of the American Revolution were given at the meeting of Crater Lake chapter held March 24 at the home of Mrs. R. E. Green on Park street. The meeting followed a luncheon.

Mrs. Bert Lowry, state regent, and Mrs. Frances Cochran, state corresponding secretary, presented the reports. Winning of the annual good citizenship award by Miss Betty Southwick of Lebanon was announced and Mrs. Lowry also reported that Miss Frances Irene Lee, Chinese cadet nurse sponsored by the state society who received a scholarship last year at Emmanuel Hospital, Portland, spoke at the meeting.

At the luncheon covers were laid for 24, three guests present being Mrs. Catherine Wait, Mrs. Maud Maasdam and Mrs. D. O. Hood. Mrs. Ralph Spencer and Mrs. Frances Cochran were assisting hostesses.

Mrs. F. J. Newman will be hostess for the April meeting of the group, entertaining at the home of Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak Court.

Students of the Jacksonville high school gave a skating party at the Medford armory Monday night. Eighty attended.

Circle in Charge Society Meeting

Members of Just Folks circle of the Methodist church were hostesses Tuesday for the homecoming meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service held at the church. After a potluck luncheon Loyalty circle members presented a playlet "Three Lives".

Mrs. Harry Myers, president, conducted a business meeting, with Mrs. L. C. Kidby leading worship service. A Lenten offering was taken. As the closing number Lucile Schoppert sang a solo.

ADRIENNE'S

FOR YOUR GRADUATION

Delightful New— DRESSES FOR YOUR PROM and GRADUATION

There's Rhythm in Their Lines—A Song in Their Colors.Come and See—Sizes for Juniors and Misses

In the Lingerie Dept. New Bras in All Sizes White and Tea Rose

BRIEFS With Elastic Waist Line Small Medium Large

Valley O. E. S. Chapters To Honor Grand Officer

Eastern Stars of the valley will be engaged this week with activities associated with the visit here of Mrs. Hazel Foster, Prineville, worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star for Oregon.

Mrs. Foster will attend a district meeting of Reamies and Adair chapters at the Masonic hall here Wednesday night at eight o'clock and Thursday afternoon will be honored at a tea given by these two chapters. The tea will be at the home of Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street, from two to four o'clock, and all Eastern Star members are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Friday afternoon Nevita chapter of Central Point and Alpha of Ashland will entertain at a

Officers Honored At Dinner Parties Given Last Week

Two dinner parties given this last week honored Lt. and Mrs. Frederick J. McGovern and Lt. Roy Holquist. Lt. McGovern stationed at the Medford air base for the past 13 months, is leaving Monday to report for an overseas assignment and Lt. Holquist, formerly stationed at the Medford base and now at San Francisco, was here on leave.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden entertained at their home, 211 Genesee street, in celebration of Lt. McGovern's birthday anniversary. Other guests were Mrs. McGovern, Miss Margaret Ruth Bolton and Lt. Holquist.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schuler entertained at a dinner for the McGoverns and Lt. Holquist, 12 guests being present.

Bridge-Luncheon Given Saturday By Mrs. Moore

Mrs. Donald E. Moore was hostess for a bridge luncheon given the afternoon of March 24 at the Officers' Outpost. Guests for the most part were members of the Little Theater Group who worked with Mrs. Moore during the recent production of the play "Deadlier Than the Male" of which Mrs. Moore was assistant director.

At bridge prizes went to Miss Virginia Hammond for high score, to Mrs. W. Garland Jones for second and to Mrs. Stanley Brewer for low.

Circle in Charge Society Meeting

Members of Just Folks circle of the Methodist church were hostesses Tuesday for the homecoming meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service held at the church. After a potluck luncheon Loyalty circle members presented a playlet "Three Lives".

Mrs. Harry Myers, president, conducted a business meeting, with Mrs. L. C. Kidby leading worship service. A Lenten offering was taken. As the closing number Lucile Schoppert sang a solo.

ADRIENNE'S

FOR YOUR GRADUATION

Delightful New— DRESSES FOR YOUR PROM and GRADUATION

There's Rhythm in Their Lines—A Song in Their Colors.Come and See—Sizes for Juniors and Misses

In the Lingerie Dept. New Bras in All Sizes White and Tea Rose

BRIEFS With Elastic Waist Line Small Medium Large

GIRDLES Two-Way Stretch Small Medium Large

SLIPS Lace Trimmed Tailored White and Tea Rose

ADRIENNE'S

Miss Lendermann, Corporal Walden Married Saturday

Miss Edith Lendermann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Lendermann, became the bride of Cpl. Charles H. Walden, son of Mrs. Jennie Walden, 1134 Court street, at a ceremony held Saturday, March 24.

The service was read at the home of the bride's parents, 1020 Court street, by the Rev. W. L. Dawes of the Baptist church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Lendermann's wedding costume was a blue suit worn with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

Mrs. Lester Ross, San Jose, Calif., sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and J. C. Smith, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Following the wedding a reception was held for members of the immediate families and other relatives. Cpl. Walden and his bride then left for California on a wedding trip.

Leslie Johnson, Pfc. Woodward Wed In Medford

Miss Leslie Lee Johnson of Medford became the bride of Pfc. Leeman A. Woodward at a ceremony held March 18 at the First Baptist church here. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chesser of Burlington, Ia., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward of Chicago.

The Rev. Walford A. Dawes performed the service and attendants for the couple were Miss Irene Stenberg and Pfc. Harry Stauffer.

Pfc. and Mrs. Woodward are making their home at 901 West Tenth street. The groom is with the headquarters of SCU 1913 at Camp White and Mrs. Woodward is employed at the camp, having made her home here for the past three years.

Committee Meets At Medford Home

Mrs. Jennie Hutchinson entertained the alumnae committee of the Home Economics Extension council at her home, 522 West Tenth street, Thursday afternoon. After a business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Eula Middlebush, chairman, refreshments were served by Mrs. Hutchinson, assisted by Miss Marian Farrell.

Present were the Mesdames Susan Maust, Maud Port, Nora Straus, Ethel Lathrop, Ella Middlebush, Pearl Williams, Eudora Bohnert, Mabel McCracken and Miss Farrell.

C. L. PERKINS

Doctor of OPTOMETRY Successor to Dr. E. D. Elwood Betterment of Human Vision LENSES PRESCRIBED Ph. 1351 214 Fisher Bldg. Cor. Main and Central, Medford

Bohnerts Announce Troth of Daughter To Gray Thompson

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert of Central Point announce the engagement of their daughter, Norrene, to John Gray Thompson, United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, Central Point. The wedding is planned for next fall.

Both families are well known in the Central Point area, the Bohnert family having resided in the valley for a great many years and the Thompsons for the past 10 years. Miss Bohnert graduated from Central Point high school and is now a sophomore student at Oregon State college. Mr. Thompson also graduated from Central Point high school and attended Oregon State college for two years, being affiliated with Sigma Pi fraternity. He is a signalman first class in the navy and is now serving in the South Pacific.

TRADE LOT

S. Riverside, Klamath Falls for Suburban Lot Dr. A. A. Soule, M. D. Phone 2870

CAMPBELL'S MILK

PASTEURIZED or RAW Grade A— at your favorite Grocer, or 'phone 4190

CORDIA NASH

Announces the REOPENING of the HARMONY BEAUTY SHOP

April 2nd 213 Fluhrer Building Phone 3096

GROCETERIA

Number 1 Sixth and Central

OPEN TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Evening of MUSIC

Tonight at 8 o'clock Presented by ORCHESTRA and CHOIR

—of the— APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH

North Central Avenue at Third Street

PROGRAM

An Easter Alleluia.....E. L. Ashford Beside the Syrian Sea.....Van Denman Thompson Narcissus.....Ethel Best Pipe Organ, played by Miss Naomi Frost

Mighty Jehova.....Donizetti Orchestra

The Holy City.....Stephen Adams Soprano Solo, accompanied by the orchestra

An Easter Flower.....B. O. Worrell Orchestra

Christ Is Risen.....J. A. Parks I Know That My Redeemer Liveth.....Ira B. Wilson Chorus - Choir

Calvary.....P. Rodney Tenor solo, accompanied by the orchestra

Unfold, Ye Portals, from the Redemption.....Charles Counod Chorus-Choir, accompanied by the orchestra

Morning Devotional Service, with appropriate Easter Sermon and Music at 11:00 a. m. Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; Young People's Meeting, 3:00 p. m.

EVERYONE WELCOME NO COLLECTION TAKEN

Heart Stimulant
A new Houbigant perfume that will lift your heart right up on its tiptoes! Ultra-feminine...slightly spicy, slightly sweet...and haunting as summer moonlight.
$2.00 - $1.50 - $1.00 - 50c plus tax
Also in Eau de Toilette - Dusting Powder - Liquid Skin Sachet

Wainscott's Pharmacy
Cor. Main & Riverside, Ph. 2440

ADRIENNE'S
FOR YOUR GRADUATION
Delightful New— DRESSES FOR YOUR PROM and GRADUATION
There's Rhythm in Their Lines—A Song in Their Colors.Come and See—Sizes for Juniors and Misses
In the Lingerie Dept. New Bras in All Sizes White and Tea Rose

BRIEFS With Elastic Waist Line Small Medium Large

GIRDLES Two-Way Stretch Small Medium Large

SLIPS Lace Trimmed Tailored White and Tea Rose

ADRIENNE'S

CORDIA NASH
Announces the REOPENING of the HARMONY BEAUTY SHOP
April 2nd
213 Fluhrer Building Phone 3096

GROCETERIA
Number 1 Sixth and Central
OPEN TODAY
9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Evening of MUSIC
Tonight at 8 o'clock Presented by ORCHESTRA and CHOIR
—of the— APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH
North Central Avenue at Third Street

PROGRAM

An Easter Alleluia.....E. L. Ashford Beside the Syrian Sea.....Van Denman Thompson Narcissus.....Ethel Best Pipe Organ, played by Miss Naomi Frost

Mighty Jehova.....Donizetti Orchestra

The Holy City.....Stephen Adams Soprano Solo, accompanied by the orchestra

An Easter Flower.....B. O. Worrell Orchestra

Christ Is Risen.....J. A. Parks I Know That My Redeemer Liveth.....Ira B. Wilson Chorus - Choir

Calvary.....P. Rodney Tenor solo, accompanied by the orchestra

Unfold, Ye Portals, from the Redemption.....Charles Counod Chorus-Choir, accompanied by the orchestra

Morning Devotional Service, with appropriate Easter Sermon and Music at 11:00 a. m. Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; Young People's Meeting, 3:00 p. m.

EVERYONE WELCOME NO COLLECTION TAKEN