

LAKE CREEK BOY RANKS SECOND IN STATE CONTEST

By Earle Jossy
County 4-H Club Agent
Merton Bradshaw, local leader and Senior member of the Lake Creek Beef Club, has placed second in the Oregon State Senior 4-H club contest sponsored by the Oregon Bankers' Association. Bill Williams, recently a member of the Valley View livestock club and now a member of the armed forces, placed fifth. These boys will each receive cash awards from the State Bankers' Association, according to H. C. Seymour, State Club Leader.

Merton is nineteen and has been the outstanding 4-H meat animal producer in Jackson county for the last two years and this year he won highest honors in the state and the Thomas E. Wilson gold watch, given annually to the state winner of the meat animal contest.
In nine years Merton has produced 34 beef steers, nine hogs, and 2½ acres of corn. He has had a total income from his 4-H projects of $5349.06 or an average of $594 a year for his nine years.
Besides his club projects, Merton has been operating an 850 acre farm and running 50 head of Hereford cattle for his mother since the death of his father in 1940.

Merton is a charter member of the first 4-H beef club organized in Jackson county, organized at Lake Creek in 1936 and he was one of the first 3 boys to exhibit steers from Jackson county at the Pacific International Exposition.

rites Wednesday for Henry Borah

Henry F. Borah, a resident of Central Point for the past 14 years, passed away at a local hospital late Thursday evening, following a short illness. He has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cassman of Central Point for the past eight years.
Mr. Borah was born on Feb. 12, 1860 in Wisconsin, and came to the State of Oregon in 1928, during most of that time he has engaged in orchard work. In 1895 he was united in marriage to Lilly Smith in South Dakota, and to this union was born one son. Mrs. Borah passed away some years later and he was married to Clara A. Hartig. He is survived by two sons, Melvin E. Klamath Falls, and Harry G. San Louis Obispo, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. William Lewis, Millbanks, South Dakota. He is also survived by six grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted from the Perli Funeral Home on Wednesday, April 11th, at 2 o'clock. Rev. Gilbert E. Coys, pastor of the Christian Church of Central Point, will officiate and interment will take place in the Siskiyou Memorial Park.
