

Seattle Beats Angels; Ties Beavers for First

By United Press
 Manager Bill Skiff's Seattle Rainiers, showing power at the plate and fair-to-middlin' pitching, have gone on the warpath. After getting bumped off by the Los Angeles Angels in the first two games, the Rainiers came back to crack the Seraphs four times in a row, win a 4-2 series and, incidentally, climb back into a deadlock with the Portland Beavers for first place.

The Sacramento Solons, recovering from four straight thumpings by Portland, won a twin bill yesterday, 6-1 and 5-1.
