41ST DIVISION IS GIVEN HONORS BY GEN. MACARTHUR

Hq., 41st Division, The Philippines—General Douglas MacArthur has singularly saluted "Oregon's Own" famed 41st infantry division for its sterling performances to date in the Philippines.

After smashing the Japanese on Palawan Isle and on the Zamboanga peninsula of Mindanao, Maj. Gen. Jens A. Doe, much decorated 41st commander, received the following message from General MacArthur:

"Palawan and Zamboanga represent splendid performances which reflect greatest credit on all concerned. Their perfect coordination, their resolute determination and their complete success show the fighting services at their best. Please inform all ranks."

On February 28 elements of the 41st landed on Palawan, handily won the principal town of Puerto Princesa, crushed all organized resistance and drove scattered remnants of the Japanese forces into the mountain wilderness. Palawan is the fifth largest of the Philippine Islands.

Maj. Gen. Doe led a task force of 41st veterans, including Oregon's 162d regiment, in the initial invasion of Mindanao, second largest island of the Philippines, striking on March 10.

Lt. Dale McMullin
Second Lt. Dale E. McMullin, 21, of Glendale and Medford, a navigator at an 8th air force bomber base in England, has been awarded the air medal, according to an announcement from the base. A graduate of Glendale high school, he was a student at the University of Oregon when he entered the service. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. McMullin and his wife, Lois, live at 304 South Central avenue, Medford.

Paul Pearson
Paul Pearson, son of Mrs. Francis I. Pearson of Prospect, was recently graduated as a radio gunner from the U. S. maritime service radio training station at Gallups Island, located in Boston harbor, according to a release from the regional public relations officer of the war shipping administration, Boston.

Pearson graduated from Prospect high school in 1939 and from Oregon State college in 1944. He formerly was employed by Shell Oil Co. at Martinez, Calif. A brother, Pvt. Stanford E. Pearson, is in the south Pacific.

Pfc. Vern Johnson
Pfc. Vern L. Johnson, son of Mrs. Grace Adams, 707 West Main street, Medford, recently arrived at a U. S. strategic air force station in England, according to a news release from the station. He will soon transfer to his permanent station from which America's fighting planes cover the advance into Germany.

Prior to entering the army air forces he was employed as a truck driver by the U. S. forest service in Medford.

Cpl. Emil Hunemiller
Cpl. Emil Hunemiller, whose wife lives at box 316, Rogue River, is now stationed at a U. S. strategic air force station in England, according to a release from the station. Cpl. Hunemiller, who was employed as a baker at Beck's bakery before entering the service, will soon be assigned to a permanent base, the dispatch said.

Bob Rodgers
John Kent
Bob Rodgers, AOM2/c, and Johnny Kent, ARM2/c, met recently on an island in the Pacific, the first time since November, 1942, when Kent enlisted in the navy. They graduated from Butte Falls high school with the class of 1942 and were members of the championship basketball team. Kent, who is in the navy air corps, landed with his crew on the island where Rodgers is stationed. Kent is the son of Mrs. Clara Kent and Rodgers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rodgers.

Harold Adams
Harold R. Adams, aviation machinist mate third class, 420 S. Grape street, Medford, has returned home for leave and re-assignment after 10 months flying in the Aleutians as a member of the navy's patrol-bombing squadron 136 which made 60 missions to the Kuriles.

Foreign Dishes with an American Accent

For variety and zest why not prepare the famous dishes of other countries? You'll find they offer subtle, delicate flavor... appealing to the whole family. Here are three recipes for famous international dishes, none of which makes inroads on your ration books.

- RUSSIAN BORSCH
- 2 lbs. beef stew meat
 - 2 1/2 tsp. salt
 - 1/2 tsp. allspice
 - 4 cups coarsely grated raw beets
 - 1/2 cup lemon juice
 - 1/2 cup finely diced green pepper or cut parsley
 - 1 cup finely diced onion
 - 2 cups thinly sliced celery
 - 2 cups canned tomatoes
 - 3 cups finely shredded cabbage
- Slowly cook meat with salt and allspice in cold water to cover 3 hours. Strain; measure broth, adding enough water to make 4 cups. Combine grated beets and lemon juice. Cook green pepper, onion and celery in just enough boiling water to cover 15 minutes; add cabbage, beets and tomatoes; cook 15 minutes longer. Drain vegetables thoroughly; add vegetables to broth; heat to boiling. Serve with whipped or plain sour cream; sprinkle with parsley. Serves 6 generously.

- MEXICAN CHILI BEANS
- 2 cups dried pink or red beans
 - 2 medium-size onions
 - 1 large green pepper or 2 small chili peppers
 - 1 bud garlic
 - 3 1/2 cups cooked tomatoes
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 1 to 2 tbsps. chili powder
- Pick over beans; wash; place beans in large kettle; add water to cover; partly cover kettle. Cook slowly 1 hour. Add sliced onions, peppers, minced garlic, tomatoes, and salt. Continue cooking slowly about 2 hours longer, or until beans are tender but still hold their shape. Add more water as needed to keep beans well covered with liquid. Add chili powder to taste just before serving. Serves 6 generously.
