

JACKSON COUNTY FARM NOTES

Compiled by County Office O. S. C. Extension Service

May Collings Set Effective May 1

OPA's new colling prices for all hay, which becomes effective May 1, establish maximum base prices for sales by producers. Base prices for Oregon, for sales of ungraded loose hay by producers during the period January through April, are as follows: Alfalfa hay, $22.50 per ton; alfalfa mixed hay, timothy and clover hay, grain, vetch and grain mixed hay, $20.50 per ton; sweet clover hay and cowpea hay, $18.50 per ton; others not included in first three groups, $16.50 per ton.

These base prices for sales in other months are reduced as follows: May, through October, $1.50; November, $1.00; December, 50 cents.

If covered by an official or state certificate of grade, the base price of the hay may be increased as follows: U. S. No. 1, $2.00 per ton; U. S. No. 2 leafy,

$1.50 per ton; U. S. No. 2 green, $1.00 per ton; U. S. extra leafy, $5.00 per ton.

For baled hay, the base prices may be increased as follows: $3 per ton for single compress baling; $7 per ton double compress baling.

World Security Proposals Explained

A brief, concise explanation of the Dumbarton Oaks plan which will be discussed at the coming San Francisco conference is contained in O. S. C. Extension Circular 457, "United Nations Proposals for World Security," now available at the Jackson county extension office.

The circular explains in understandable language the major points that will be considered by the United Nations. It is intended to stimulate study of the plan and to encourage formulation of public opinion about the proposals. It reviews the major points for and against the plan.

Written by Dr. U. G. Dubach, head of the political science department at Oregon State college, the leaflet has been issued by the Extension service as a contribution to better understanding on the part of rural people of the plans under consideration for world peace.

"While the main objective of this proposed world organization is to outlaw war, inevitably there will be many other results, economic and social," the circular's introduction points out. "These include effect on national employment, markets for farm production and world trade. This is probably the greatest question ever brought before the American people for decision. Because of the social and economic implications, farm and rural people should have a thorough understanding of the issues involved."

The circular will be distributed to leaders of farm and rural groups in Jackson county with a suggestion that it provide some of the subject matter for discussion of this important question. At the same time, copies are available free of charge to anyone who wants one.

4H Pig Feeding Contest Announced

Cash prizes totaling $800 have been appropriated by the Pacific International Livestock Exposition for a Pig Feeding Contest for Pig Club members of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, L. J. Allen, assistant state club leader has just announced. The purpose of this contest is to give the 4H club members experience in feeding pigs for market and to demonstrate the rate of gain in weight, cost of gain, and the profit that can be made.

The requirements are: Four pigs from the same litter must be fed for market, the pigs must be entered in the contest and all records started at weaning time (not more than 10 weeks old), records must cover a feeding period of at least 90 days.

The pigs must be exhibited at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition where the prizes will be awarded.

Judging will be on the following basis: Individuality (judged from prime market hog standpoint), 60; greatest average rate of gain in weight, 10; lowest cost of gain in weight, 10; completeness and accuracy of record book including story, 20; possible score, 100.

All pens with an average weight of 175 to 210 pounds will score perfect so far as weight is concerned. All pens with an average weight of over 210 pounds will be penalized one-fourth point for each pound over weight. Pens averaging less than 175 and over 230 pounds are ineligible.

LOCAL MAN HEARS FROM PARENTS OF PRISONERS

J. D. Wagner, 1021 North Central avenue, said today he has received approximately 200 letters from parents of Americans who are Japanese prisoners of war as a result of letters he has written. Wagner listens to the short wave broadcast from Tokyo each morning between 8 and 10 o'clock, lists the names and messages and notifies parents of prisoners that he has heard a message from their son. He said the broadcast comes in on the 31 meter band.

LT. GORDON BENSON IN JAPANESE PRISON CAMP

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benson, Klamath Falls, recently received encouraging news about their son, Lt. Gordon Benson, U. S. Army Air Corps, who is a prisoner of war of the Japanese. In a telephone conversation with Major Shireley they were told that he was recently shipped to a prison camp of the Japanese mainland and was in good health at that time. Major Shireley was imprisoned with Lt. Benson in Bilibad prison camp. The Bensons are former residents of Medford.

First woman ever to don an Army uniform as a soldier in the Women's Army Corps was a Texan—Col. Oveta Culp Hobby, director of the corps.

HOG GUARANTEE HIKED TO BOOST FALL CROP

Washington, April 12—(U.P.)—The government increased the guaranteed price of live hogs 50 cents a hundredweight today in an effort to boost the fall pig crop by 18 per cent.

Acting in the face of a food shortage which senate investigators have blamed on federal policies, War Food Administrator Marvin Jones said the hog support price would go up immediately and be continued at the increased rate until Sept. 1, 1946.

ANNUAL MUSIC PROGRAM OF C. P. SCHOOLS FRIDAY

Central Point, April 12—Annual spring program of the music department of Central Point Schools will be presented Friday at 8:30 p. m. under direction of Harry L. Meyers. Numbers by the orchestra, the band and the girls' chorus will be featured. Adding variety to the evening's entertainment will be a style show by the home economics department and acrobatics from the girls' physical education class.

DISEASES DECLINE IN COUNTY DURING WEEK

Communicable disease in the county declined during the week ending April 6, the weekly report of the county health officer indicates, with but seven cases of communicable diseases listed.

From Medford were reported one case of measles, one of whooping cough, one of tuberculosis and one case of influenza. Ashland reported a case of mumps and Trail two cases of chicken pox.
