Miss Rawlings, James Goodman Wed At Vallejo

Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Catherine Irene Rawlings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rawlings, former Medford residents now making their home in Vallejo, to James T. Goodman, USN, a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Goodman of Culver City, Calif.

The rites took place March 31 in the navy chapel at Mare Island, Vallejo, and were performed by Chaplain H. H. Callahan in a setting of white calla lilies and snapdragons.

Miss Rawlings, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with a long train and floor length veil. Her flowers were gardenias centered with a white orchid. Matron-of-honor was Mrs. C. H. Paskett, sister of the bride, who wore a frock of pale green lace and net and carried pink carnations.

Best man was A. G. Hemby, USN, and ushers were H. W. Nenoff and O. C. Hagan, both of the navy.

About 125 guests attended the wedding and 75 were invited to the home of the bride's parents for the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman are spending a month in Culver City after which the groom, chief machinist's mate in the navy, will return to duty.

The bride attended high school in Medford and Vallejo and later was a student at the University of California.

Scout Executive Leaves Medford; Successor Named

Mrs. Ralph Hamblin, Girl Scout executive for the Medford council for the past year, left yesterday for Illinois where she will join her husband. Mrs. Hamblin will be succeeded by Mrs. Marjorie Hopkins, former executive, who will assume the secretary's duties during spring and summer. Mrs. Hopkins will begin her work Monday and will be at the Scout headquarters office each day with the exception of Thursday which will be devoted to the branch library work which she has been carrying on for the Medford library.

Tuesday evening members of the Girl Scout Leaders' association entertained at a farewell party for Mrs. Hamblin, the affair being at the Girls' Community club. Games were played during the evening and refreshments were served. Mrs. Douglas Geiberson, Portland, former Girl Scout worker in Grants Pass and also a guest at the affair, poured.

Mrs. Hamblin was presented a gift from the association, presentation being made by Mrs. Rollin Jones.

About 35 attended, including leaders from Rogue River, Central Point, Jacksonville and Oak Grove, as well as the Medford troops.

Mrs. J. W. Bernard and Mrs. Catherine Neely were in charge of games for the evening and Mrs. Jones, Miss Mary Brougham and Mrs. John Larwood made up the refreshment committee.

Party Is Given At Swing Home

Robert G. Harper, who leaves this week to report April 18 for induction into the army, and John C. Anderson, Jr., whose induction has been deferred until after the closing of school, were honored at a party given recently at the home of Miss Mercedes Swing on the Old Pacific Highway. Co-hostess was Miss Mary Lee May.

Games and group singing were the diversion of the evening and refreshments were served.

In addition to the honored guests those present were the Misses Joanne Franklin, Barbara Ganfield, Clare Jane Hackett, Astrid Hansen, Betty and Janet Shaw, Don Harper, Don Anderson, Art Bostock, Wilmer Robertson, Roger Pederson, Dean Eddinger, Floyd Hiner and the hostesses.

Medford Resident Married Recently To Texas Sergeant

Mr. and Mrs. Willis T. Fasel, 40 North Peach street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Sgt. Ted Tolleson, son of F. C. Tolleson of Poetrolia, Tex. The double-ring ceremony was performed April 2 at Hahneman General hospital, Modesto, Calif., by Chaplain Edmond T. Witt.

Pvt. Helen Hanlen, WAC, played the organ and Miss Dorothy Fidiham sang "The Bells of St. Mary's."

The couple was attended by Miss Juanella Ford and Denton Tolleson, U. S. N., brother of the groom.

For her wedding the bride wore a marine blue three-piece suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Forrest E. Pitts of Atwater, Calif.

After a short wedding trip to San Francisco and San Mateo the couple returned to Modesto where Sgt. Tolleson is continuing treatments for injuries received on the Italian battlefield with the 91st division.

The bride is a graduate of the Central Point high school and for nearly three years was employed at Camp White.

District P.-T. A. Conference To Attract Many Delegates

Of widespread interest in the valley this week is the district conference of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held Tuesday, April 17, in Ashland. Since registration for the conference now numbers over 175 and is still increasing, according to committee members, it has been necessary to change the meeting place from the Presbyterian church to the Elks' club.

The meeting will begin at 10 a. m. with a community sing led by Mrs. Herschel Obye of Grants Pass. The Rev. Earl Downing of Ashland will give the invocation. Speakers for the morning session are Mrs. Katherine Read, Oregon State college, who will speak on "A Changing Family in a Changing World," and Mrs. O. C. Ufford of Fort Collins, Colo., "Leadership From the Ranks."

Mrs. Ufford is a regional vice-president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Harry H. George of Portland, president of the Oregon congress, will speak during the luncheon, which will be served by ladies of the Bellview grange. Mrs. Lucille McKay will entertain with vocal solos.

The afternoon session will be resumed at 2 o'clock with introduction of committees by Mrs. R. I. Flaherty of Ashland. M. B. Winslow, superintendent of schools at Grants Pass, will speak on "Looking Ahead to Education," and Mrs. M. N. Hogan of Medford will cover the subject of "The People's Peace."

Delegates from Jackson county's 23 Parent-Teacher units, and those of Josephine, Klamath, and Douglas counties will be in attendance.

Meetings are held at the I.O.O.F. hall, 221 West Sixth street.

Entertainment Planned For Rebekah Meeting

Mrs. Martha Miller, chairman of a committee in charge of entertainment for the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday night, states that an interesting program of music and other numbers is being planned. About 25 members will participate.

Operatic Program Is Announced For Musical Society

With "The Opera" as program topic for the evening, Medford Musical society will hold the April meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Lemery, Windsor avenue, at 8 o'clock. Members are asked to note the change of meeting place, the gathering having been originally scheduled for the home of Mrs. M. N. Hogan.

The program will be a combination of operatic recordings by well known artists and of numbers presented by local musicians, including a group of young student musicians from Southern Oregon College of Education who will be making their first appearance before the musical society. The students are Miss Marilyn Young, Miss Elaine Sutherland and Miss Kaye Hoffman, the latter the accompanist.

Others appearing will be Mrs. Imogene Smith, with Mrs. Rawles Moore as accompanist, and Mrs. Elow Mae Wilson Gale with Mrs. Otto Frohmayer accompanying. There are to be selections from "Mignon"; "Carmen"; "La Traviata"; "La Boheme" and "La Tosca".

Mrs. Lemery's assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Archie Pierce, Mrs. H. D. Christensen, Mrs. Ruth Bolton and her daughter, Miss Ruth Bolton.

Election Is Held By Church Guild At Last Meeting

Election of officers was held by Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church at a meeting held Monday, April 9. Re-elected to office were Mrs. Paul Bulkin, president; Mrs. Florence Erbes, treasurer; and Mrs. Ruth Schroeder, secretary. Mrs. Frank Hussong was elected vice-president.

The Missionary society conducted entertainment for the evening. Mrs. C. W. Guches gave a resume of the activities of the society. Mrs. Victor Birdseye narrated a missionary story followed by several steel guitar selections by Margaret Dunnagan.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. J. Patton, Mrs. K. C. Farley, and Mrs. Frank Hussong.

Roseburg Woman To Speak Tuesday At Meeting Here

Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Roseburg, president of the Presbyterian, will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church scheduled for Tuesday. Mrs. Campbell is said to be an unusually interesting speaker.

During the meeting entertainment will be furnished by Miss Nancy Swem, pianist, and Miss Jean Farley, vocalist. A plate luncheon will be served at one o'clock and those attending are to bring service.

The committee states that a nursery will be provided for small children.

The wedding of Miss Anne Carter to David W. Brainerd of Grants Pass took place March 22 in Pensacola, Fla., where the groom is stationed with the navy. Mrs. Brainerd is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Carter, 18 Hawthorne street, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Brainerd of Grants Pass.
