CANCER

While more is being learned about cancer, its treatment is far from satisfactory. It must be considered as a systemic disease rather than as a local. Much in the field of cancer is being done. Still many different opinions exist as to what cancer is, and it is a term used by the ancients as descriptive of malignant tumors. The term cancer was given to these tumors or new growths because the swollen yellowish veins and lines extending out from the central mass bore some resemblance to the crab. Cancer, as a general term, is still used to include malignant tumors. These tumors include two types of malignant new growths or neoplasms. They are called carcinoma and sarcoma.

CLOTHING DRIVE SLATED TO END TUESDAY NIGHT

All citizens or groups having serviceable clothing to donate to collection are reminded to turn the articles in before Tuesday evening, at which time it is planned to conclude the drive.

Although it seems impossible for Jackson county to reach its quota of 125 tons, a creditable showing has been made and quality of the clothing is practically 100 per cent serviceable, according to Reginald A. Staggs, general chairman of the drive, being sponsored by Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Medford school system, Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions clubs have rendered valuable service in aiding the drive, Staggs said. E. H. Hedrick, city superintendent of schools, said this morning that city schools have turned in a total of 6,582 pounds of clothing. Lincoln school students turned in 602 pounds, 1,368 pounds from Jackson school, 658 pounds from Roosevelt school, 1,042 pounds from Washington school, 819 pounds gathered by high school students and 2,093 pounds by students of the junior high school.

Again it is urged that people who have not yet ransacked their closets for old clothing do so now and either drop their bundles in the receptacles on the streets or leave them at Humphrey's Motor company, 33 South Riverside, or Fichtner's Garage, Sixth and Fir streets, before Tuesday evening.

CPL. M. WILLIAMS KILLED IN ACTION ON WESTERN LINE

Cpl. Marshall K. Williams of the 36th cavalry reconnaissance troops was killed in action March 23 somewhere in Germany, according to information received by his father, C. J. Williams, Route 1, Box 550C, recently.

The corporal enlisted in the cavalry in November of 1942 and arrived overseas in March of 1943. He served first in North Africa and was with the 5th army during the landing at Salerno. After fighting at Cassino and Anzio and participating in the march on Rome, Cpl. Williams was assigned to the 7th army and helped establish the beachhead in southern France in June of 1944.

The deceased was born June 30, 1923, in Peacott, Ida. and came to Medford in 1939 with his family. He attended Trail and Medford schools, graduating in 1941, and was employed at Camp White before entering the army.

Survivors, in addition to his father, are a brother, Bob, of Prospect; another brother, Warren, fireman first class in the navy, and three sisters, Esther Schraeder, Gladys Winingham and Mildred Miller, all of Medford.

Estate Gets Bill For Irish Wake

Cincinnati, O., (U.P.)—Attorney William Hyman, in settling the estate of a person who died in Ireland received a bill from "Francis McDonagh, general grocer, wine, spirit and provision merchant (motor and cycle repairs) executed on short notice."

It reads: "Two pints whiskey, two bottles port, two dozen stout, six pounds ham, a half-dozen loaves, four pounds of jam, two pounds of butter, one bottle of sauce, four packages of jelly, one car. Total five pounds, four shillings, one penny." It was for the wake.

Possoms In Attic Keep Lady Awake

Houston, Tex., (U.P.)—Mrs. Hilda Mann wishes the animals in her attic would play possum instead of being playing possums. It wasn't so bad at first. Just one possum, apparently.

But then he brought a friend and then they brought their gang, or else raised a family in remarkably quick order. Because now there are about five possums using Mrs. Mann's attic.

And she's been losing sleep. Counting possums in no way replaces counting sheep as sleep inducer, she says.

One Army general hospital in the Mediterranean Theatre, which has handled more than 26,000 patients, reduced hospitalization time 30 per cent, by improving physiotherapy apparatus for arm and leg exercise.

Light-Fingered Guests Plague to Hotel Managers

Dallas, Tex., (U.P.)—Wartime shortages have created a new headache for hotels—and we don't mean the shortage of rooms and help.

Henry C. Dickson, president of the Baker Hotel, says perhaps the worst shortage is that of pepper.

"People run off with our pepper shakers," he said. "We wouldn't care too much if they just took the pepper, but we're running out of shakers."

Light-fingered guests, always a hotel problem, are worse in war-time, according to Manager Scott Hardy of the Texas Hotel Assn.

"They take the sheets and pillow cases now," he said. "They even walk out with blankets, ash trays and the soap."

"Some of them even steal our matches."

The National Hotel Assn., he said, tried to work out a deal under which laundries would remove towels with hotel identification from private laundry bundles and send them back. But it was held not legal.

PROUD OF TYPHUS DRIVE
Hallettsville, Tex., (U.P.)—The Texas town of Hallettsville, population 1,500, claims it is the first in the world to immunize everyone within the city limits against typhus fever. It took nine full days to give the shots to every man, woman and child within the city limits.

New Analgesic Tablet now released to public

(Pain Reliefs)

Thousands find it gives quicker, safe relief from headache — from pains of sinus, neuritis, neuralgia and arthritis

FOR MANY YEARS aspirin has been accepted by both the medical profession and the public as a safe, sure way to relieve pain.

But many people who had complete confidence in aspirin did not find it gave as quick relief from blinding, excruciating pain as they hoped for. Hence in desperation they sometimes turned to other remedies less well proved.

To meet this situation a group of medical research men set out to see what could be done to speed up the analgesic or pain-killing action of aspirin—to make it bring their patients quicker relief, without heart or stomach upset.

Out of these researches came a really new kind of analgesic tablet, a combination of aspirin and calcium glutamate. In this new tablet, aspirin does its old, safe job of relieving pain. But through its combination with calcium glutamate, extensive tests by physicians showed it gave most people both quicker relief and greater relief from pain.

After this extensive testing and use by members of the medical profession as a prescription remedy, this new analgesic tablet has now been released for non-prescription sale by every druggist. It is called Superin (from super-aspirin). You can get its blessed, quick relief from pain by asking your druggist for a bottle today — 30 tablets for 59¢. Ask for Superin—Superin. Prepared by Carter Products, Inc., New York.
