JURY TO RECONSIDER MURDER INDICTMENT

The grand jury, Victor Bursell, Central Point foreman, will convene Thursday for reconsideration of the second degree murder indictment previously returned against Fred A. Wolf for the alleged slaying of Percy H. Ijames last February, during a sidewalk altercation at Gold Hill.

Circuit Judge Herbert K. Hanna last week granted the demurrer of the defense to the indictment, on the grounds it failed to specifically describe the death weapon, listed in the original true bill as "a sharp instrument." The court directed re-conviction of the grand jury to iron out the legal technicality. The defense is represented by Attorney Don R. Newbury. Wolf has been in the county jail since his arrest following the tragedy.

OBITUARY

ZENA GRISHAM
Zena Antonette Grisham of Medford, passed away at a local hospital, April 17. She was born at Waterbury, Conn., Dec. 8, 1869 and moved to Hamilton County, Nebraska in 1871 where her father, Benjamin Abbott, was one of the early homesteaders, later establishing the Alvin postoffice.

The little country Alvin church was built and named for her grandfather the Rev. Alvin Abbott.

She was married to David M. Grisham, September 8, 1887, moving to Jackson County, in 1900 where they have lived except for a few years in the Willamette Valley.

She was a devoted christian and a faithful worker in the church from early childhood.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn three daughters, Pearl Nichols, Central Point; Estella Heft and Lola Thompson, of Medford, and one son, Nathan D. Grisham, Central Point; also five grandchildren, Evelyn Bingham, LaRene Thompson, RM2/c Robert N. Grisham, Phyllis Grisham and Mary Grisham, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m., at the Perl Funeral Home. Interment will be in Central Point cemetery.

THOMAS J. PERRY
Services for Thomas J. Perry, 81, who passed away in a local hospital Monday, will be held at the graveside in Sams Valley cemetery at 2 p. m., Thursday with the Rev. W. A. Dawes officiating. Arrangements are in care of Conger-Morris Chapel.

He was born in Clinton County, Iowa, on August 5, 1863. When three years old, with his parents he came to California by covered wagon, wintering there, and then came on to Sams Valley the following Spring where he resided until his death. He had lived on the same place for 79 years.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Armanda Webber, Sams Valley, and a brother, B. H. Perry, Ashland.

GEORGE T. DAVIS
Services for George T. Davis, Griffin Creek, who passed away Sunday, will be held in the Conger-Morris Chapel at 2:30 p. m., Wednesday with the Rev. Harry Hansen officiating. Interment will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

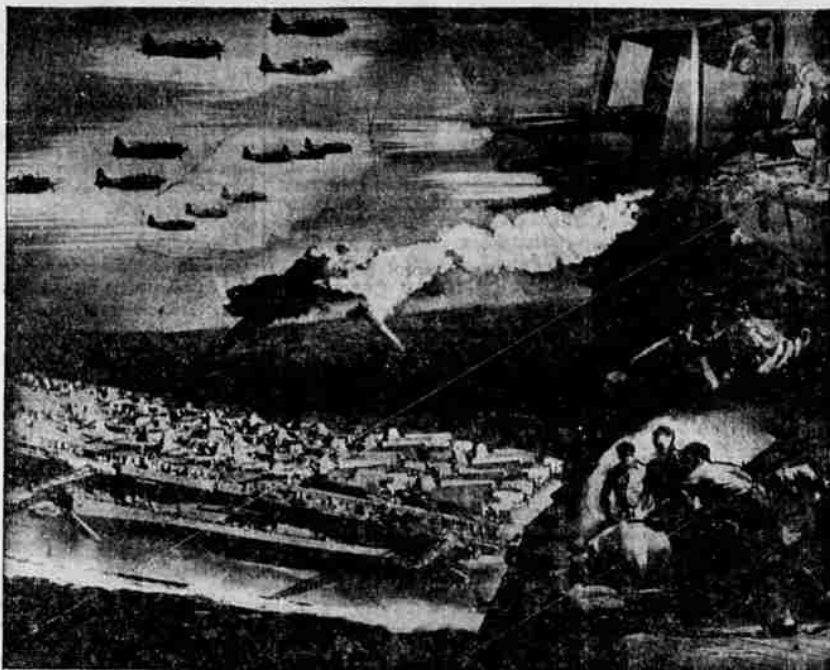

He was born in Paintrock, N. C., on April 20, 1869, and had lived in this community for 24 years.

He is survived by three sons, Robert and Lester Davis, Medford, John Davis, Denver; a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Gabbard, Ark.; a brother, Saul Davis in the east; and five grandchildren.

WEATHER

"The Fighting Lady" At Craterian Wednesday

Headline drama in the Pacific blazes to the screen in the full-length, full-color, full-of-fight picture, "The Fighting Lady," which comes to the screen of the Craterian theater Wednesday of this week. Loaded with thrills and suspense, the picture tells the story of a sea-going

"lady" who fought like a hell-cat and of her 3,000 fighting sons, and was photographed on the spot in zones of combat by the United States navy under the supervision of Cmdr. Edward J. Steichen, U. S. N. R. Lt. Robert Taylor, now with the naval air force, is heard delivering the commentary. Battle scenes never before seen in any film... the daring exploits of the carrier's officers, pilots and crewmen... are shown for the first time in "The Fighting Lady."

Anne Baxter and John Hodiak are co-starring in "Sunday Dinner for a Soldier," the companion feature on the program.
