MORE PW HELP IS PLAN IN HARVEST

Washington, April 17—(U.P.)—The army plans to bring another 125,000 German war prisoners to this country before harvest to relieve the labor shortage, it was learned today.

Brig. Gen. B. M. Bryan, Jr., assistant provost marshal general, said the transfers were dependent upon the availability of shipping. An early end of the European war, he said, may raise shipping and re-deployment problems that may upset the plans.

The scheduled movement will bring to around 500,000 the total number of war prisoners in this country. As of April 1, there were 311,630 Germans, 50,549 Italians, and 3,258 Japanese. About 35,000 of the Italians here are volunteer members of Italian service units directly engaged in war work.

H. E. C. will meet Wednesday afternoon April 18, with Sister Hoover.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STATION AGENTS AT UNITED AIR LINES

Special consideration given applications of honorably discharged veterans.

With air transportation making new strides as a major essential industry, there is an increased need for station agents at United Air Lines. Those employed are in line for promotion to interesting and important positions.

Applicants must be men between the ages of 19 and 35, and high school graduates. Men under 30 must be ineligible for Selective Service. They must be able to do active physical work, be neat in appearance, and have the ability to meet the public. Duties embrace all phases of airline operation and provide valuable experience leading toward specialization.

United Air Lines employees receive many benefits, including vacations with pay, insurance benefits, periodic wage review, and a retirement plan.

For full information regarding salary, increases in pay, opportunities for advancement, apply at United Air Lines, Medford Municipal Airport, Medford.
