From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

The Cuppers Have a Dream Come True
Dee and Jane Cuppers used to say that as soon as the children had flown the roost, they were going off together on a second honeymoon... take a trip... or rent an apartment in the city.
So after little Sue got married, I stopped in to say goodbye. Dee was sitting in his favorite chair before the fire, sipping a mellow glass of beer. And Jane was busy with her knitting, just as always. They looked about as restless as the tabby cat on the hearth.
"Jane and I figured," Dee explained, "that you couldn't beat

Truman, Marshall In Brief Powwow Subject Secret

Washington, April 19—(U.P.)—President Truman summoned Gen. George C. Marshall, Army Chief-of-Staff, to the White House for a 15-minute conference today.

After the conference, which started at 11:30 a. m., EWT, Marshall smilingly told reporters that he had "lots and lots" of news.

"But," he added with a grin, "I can't give it to you."
Marshall said he couldn't say anything on the subject of the nearness or remoteness of V-E day.

"But some day when this war is done," he promised, "I can tell you a lot of things."

BISHOP THRONED IN OLDEN RITES

Canterbury, England, April 19—(U.P.)—Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, former Bishop of London, was enthroned in ancient Canterbury Cathedral today as the 97th Archbishop of Canterbury and Primate of all England.
