Father to Assist In Presbyterian Ordination of Son
A feature of the morning service in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday will be the ordination of elders in which a father and son will participate. Wirt M. Wright, for many years an elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Ashland, will assist the elders of the local church when his son, Robert C. Wright is ordained an elder in this church. Mr. Wright is manager of the American Laundry in this city and has long been active in church circles. He is a soloist of ability and has sung in a number of Medford churches on special occasions.

1879 Circus Poster Still Shows Bright
Brazil, Ind. (U.P.)—A circus poster pasted on a wall 65 years ago and later hidden when an adjoining building was constructed, has come to light—as brilliant as it was in 1879. The discovery of the poster was made when the buildings were razed to make way for a new edifice. Bright pictures of lions, tigers, and a chariot race told of the approaching visit of
