"Hollywood Canteen" Showing

As a proud salute to men in uniform fighting this war on varied battlefronts and a tribute to the members of stage and screen whose unceasing efforts have done much to help soldier morale, the screen has fashioned the newest musical hit, "Hollywood Canteen," opening a three-day engagement at the Craterian theatre today.

Edward Arnold in Rialto Hit

"Main Street After Dark," opening today at the Rialto for a three-day engagement, is a compact, fast-moving and exciting thriller about women pickpockets who prey upon soldiers and sailors at embarkation points until the police department evolves a novel plan and cleans out the criminals who engage in this despicable thievery. Featured in the outstanding cast are such favorites as Edward Arnold, Hume Cronyn and Selena Royle. Paul Kelly and Virginia Grey starring in "Grissly's Millions," a mystery story of the dead's revenge for murder, is the companion feature.
