

Benefit Show Tonight

Phil Carlin, Jr.

Tonight at the Holly theatre is the season's greatest entertainment event—the Jackson county Shrine's giant benefit show to raise funds for the Shrine's crippled children's hospital, Portland. Through cooperation of the Leverette Interstate Theatres and various major film companies an outstanding program of stage and screen entertainment has been arranged.

On the stage in person will be Phil Carlin, Jr., ten-year-old Portland prodigy, who sold $1,000,000 worth of War Bonds in the last bond drive. Phil is an accomplished organist, and his Hammond electric organ was shipped by express from Portland for this presentation.

Marilyn May, noted dance artist, will be seen in her interpretation of the Rhumba, and Primitive Worship dances. Medford high school band will lead a parade through the main business section before the show and will appear at the theatre. The Jackson County Shrine Patrol not only will parade with the high school band but act as ushers at this gala event.

The screen program consists of a selected group of features reviewing stage favorites and tunes of the gay nineties and featuring Eddie Cantor and Al Jolson, with none other than the Marx brothers in their funniest comedy-feature, "The Big Store" for the grand finale.

The Holly doors will open at 7:30 tonight. All seats are priced

SCHEMERS PREY ON SOLDIER KIN

Next of kin of Army casualties should guard against the possibility of being victimized by certain individuals, groups and organizations who are conducting promotional schemes in which published Army casualty lists provide the basis of fraudulent exploitation, the War Department cautioned today.

These schemes take on varying forms, the most common of which is to write the next of kin, as appearing in the newspaper casualty lists, seeking further information on the soldier listed as a casualty. The next of kin is advised that the deceased soldier is to be given a particular and special niche in a so-called "hall of fame" or "hero's memorial book" or photographic lay-out, the War Department said.

cash remittance requirements are set forth.

The post office department is taking vigorous action as fast as these swindlers are uncovered.

Most popular courses in spare-time studies offered soldiers of the Mediterranean Theater by Armed Forces Institute are book-keeping and accounting.
