Civic matters have been much in the news in recent days. In addition to extensive improvements and developments planned by the city, the state is working on highway improvement plans and a federal postal inspector spent a day in the city recently surveying the building needs of federal offices and bureaus here. The city plans to hold a special election at which time the citizens will vote on several proposals, including construction of a trunk line sewer, park improvement, construction of a new bridge at Jackson boulevard, an addition to the city library, extension of a storm sewer and enlargement of the sewage disposal plant.

A large group met here this week to formulate an answer to the request of a state highway commissioner that highway 97 from Eugene to Klamath Falls be designated as the main inter-regional road of the state rather than 99.

Other civic enterprises include a benefit show given here for the crippled children's hospital in Portland, and closing of the clothing drive during which more than 30,000 pounds of clothing was donated for the use of needy in Europe.

Two hundred extension unit members came in from the rural areas Tuesday for the annual spring festival. The program and exhibits had international friendship as a theme because of the world security conference in San Francisco.

Of special interest is the news that T. Sgt. Hubert A. Santo has been awarded posthumously an oak leaf cluster to the silver star. Sgt. Santo, who had served overseas since early in the war, was recently killed in action in the Philippine Islands. The first star was awarded Dec. 14, 1943, and the second was awarded for gallantry in action against the Japanese forces at San Manuel, Luzon, Jan. 24, 1945.

News releases from a bomber base in England told of the award of air medals to Lt. John Sausberry, navigator, Lt. Albert Espey and to Cpl. Warren Holbrook, and of an oak leaf cluster to the air medal for T. Sgt. Gene Blackford, nose gunner on a Fortress. Pfc. Charles Leaming, in Germany, and Sgt. Marc Jarmen, in Italy, have won combat infantryman's badges.

Promotions in the news this week were those of Gerald A. Fitzgerald to first lieutenant with the 37th division in the Philippine Islands; Chester O. Webb, engineer-gunner of a Liberator, Italy, to staff sergeant; Milton Benford, to the rank of captain at an Indian base and Lorne Webster to the rank of flight lieutenant with the R.C.A.F. Webster is in Ceylon.

Sgt. Gordon Warner is now in Germany with the 6th army, Sgt. Louis A. Rose is on the opposite side of the world on Okinawa Island. Italian dispatches say that Pvt. Paul Creech, Pfc. Earl Hughes, Sgt. Theodore Driver, Sgt. Paul Trahan, Pvt. Henry Stuart and Capt. Ross F. Swall are with a unit knocking out German targets in the Po valley. Cpl. Kenneth Passmore is a radio operator with a mobile unit of the 9th air force in France.

This week's casualty list includes the name of Pfc. Richard Carl (Jimmy) von der Hellen, who died recently as the result of wounds suffered on Luzon; Lynn E. Clafin, USMC, missing in action in the Pacific; Cpl. Walter L. Dye, wounded in Europe; Pfc. Stanley C. Kunzman, wounded in Germany; Sgt. Fayette Shellely, missing in action in Norway; Pfc. Ralph Gillmore, prisoner of war of the Germans. Sgt. Clafin's brother, Sgt. Cecil Clafin, was previously declared missing in action in Italy.

Sgt. Ralph Waldron, Jr., has been released from a German prison camp after having been a prisoner for 13 months.

Home after service overseas are Pfc. James Peters and Cpl. Albert Howard, at Santa Barbara, Calif., at the rest camp, and Sgt. Clinton Culley, now at Santa Ana following his return from England where he completed 30 missions. Others in Medford after overseas duty are

J. W. Herron, Mommie, who spent two years in the Pacific theater; Frank Hohlweg, MM3c, overseas for 16 months; Pfc. Leonard S. Lyons, paratrooper who served six months in Europe and was recently wounded in Belgium; Pfc. James Crandall, in the Pacific for three years, and Sgt. Keith Denman, who has been assigned to Hamilton Field after serving in Europe for two years. T. Sgt. Wayne Fairchild has returned to Pyote, Tex., after a furlough here. He previously served 19 months with the air corps in the Italian theater. Also home now is Sgt. J. S. Humphries after 32 months in North Africa, Italy and England.

Muir, recently graduated from the naval air technical training school at Norman, Okla., and David Holmes, Jr., has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the army air corps reserve after graduating from Luke Field, Ariz. Also commissioned is Bill Underwood, who graduated from Moore Field, Tex.

Pvt. Reed Cox, paratrooper recently arrived in Germany for duty and Irl Groves, CBM, has been discharged from the navy and returned to Medford after serving 22 months in the South Pacific.

COMMUNITY PANEL TALKED FOR OPA

To hear the OPA community service panels explained by Miss Mary Johns, Portland, information specialist with the district office, a small group of Medford residents met Thursday noon at the Hotel Holland. Organization of such a panel is being considered by the local war price and ration board.

After stating that the object of OPA is to see that the economy of the nation withstands the pressure of war, Miss Johns explained that community service panels acted after the fashion of a public relations council, that it supplied correct information to the public at large and in turn referred back to OPA problems and complaints from the public. The panels are already in operation in many towns and cities, she said.

Attending the meeting were R. G. Fowler, Eugene Thorndike, Herb Grey, Allen R. Smith, Victor Milnes, Miss Marian Farrell, Frank Humphrey, Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, Miss Johns, Howard Strode, Portland, district supervisor of local boards; L. L. Ternahan and Leonard Carpenter, secretary and chairman of the local war price and ration board.
