

Society and Clubs

Olsen-Ross Rites Solemnized Here Thursday Evening

Among weddings of last week was that of Miss Dortha Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olsen, 40 Berkeley Way, to Captain Raymond Ross, which took place Thursday evening at the Medford Methodist church. The service was read at eight o'clock in the evening by the groom's uncle, the Rev. Joseph Knotts of Salem.

Miss Olsen's wedding gown was of the traditional white satin fashioned with a long train, and the three-quarter length veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses, bouvardia, lily-of-the-valley and Cecil Bruner roses. She wore a bracelet of tiny burnished gold leaves, a gift of Capt. Ross.

Attendants were Miss Ruth Cuffel, maid-of-honor, Miss Barbara Olsen, sister of the bride and Miss Vera Ray, bridesmaid. Miss Cuffel's gown was of blue, Miss Olsen's of pink and Miss Ray wore blue. They carried bouquets of bouvardia and sweet peas.

Best man for Captain Ross was Chester Fitch and ushers were Paul Bray and Riley Cook.

Harry Young sang "Because" preceding the rites and as the couple knelt for the closing prayer Mr. Young sang the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Doris Condit Lantz played the wedding march.

At the reception, held in the church parlors, Miss Cuffel cut the wedding cake.

Captain and Mrs. Ross have gone to Vancouver, B. C., and Lake Louise for a wedding trip. The captain, who served two and one-half years overseas with the American Division, reports for duty June 1 at Ft. Lewis, Wash. Mrs. Ross will return to Medford.

45th Anniversary Is Celebrated By Medford Chapter

Reames Chapter No. 86, O.E.S., celebrated its 45th anniversary of institution Thursday night at a dinner followed by a program and the stated chapter communication. Dinner was served to about 125 members and visitors.

The chapter was instituted in April of 1900, with Worthy Grand Matron Margaret L. Lutke of Portland and Worthy Grand Patron Thomas F. Ryan of Oregon City, here for the ceremonies. They were assisted by Hattie Reames White, grand marshal, and members of Adalee chapter of Jacksonville.

Mrs. White, still active in the chapter, was honored guest for the celebration.

Charter members numbered about 50 and Mary Reeves and V. I. Vawter served as the first matron and patron. Living charter members are Bessie Lummen, Lucy Elwood, Mary Strang, Mattie Pickel and Mamie Riddle.

During the evening Mrs. White was presented a life membership in the order, having been initiated in 1885, and was given the honor of cutting the birthday cake, assisted by Hope Woods.

Following dinner a colorful style show was held, with herringbone gowns featured. Mrs. White modeled a beautiful blue gown which dates back to 1856, a white opera cape more than 100 years old. Others wore gowns dating from 1890 to present day. Among these was a handwoven, handmade dress worn by Della Denney, Ester Turbin, Berta Morse and Mary Lee Strang modeled "flapper" styles of 1915 and Nell Purdin and Jane McCarty modeled gowns of 1900. Jennie Riddle wore a formal gown more than 75 years old and Angie Ray modeled a 1910 dress. Frances Zundell, Letta Queen, Hope Wood and Mabel Jewett appeared in styles of 1908.

Amelia Hiles, worthy matron acted as narrator for the show. Music was furnished by the high school sextet composed of Donna Dawes, Jean Hickman, Earriet Walker, Gloria Preston, Barbara Meadows and Loree Montieith, accompanied by Grace Pankey. Barbara Hill gave two accordion numbers.

During the chapter meeting a class of candidates was initiated. Chapter and dining rooms were arranged with bouquets of spring flowers by a committee of which Edna Skinner was chairman and Gladys Jewett was general chairman in charge of the dinner.

UNIVERSAL SPIRITUAL TEMPLE
meets Medford Hotel, mezzanine floor
2 p.m. each Thursday
REV. DARLENE LE VYNE
pastor in charge

Someone is wrong—we do not condemn anyone. "Just preach the Bible." Read John 3:15 to 21 vs. John 12:48 vs. Ephesians 4: vs. 9 to 21—Jesus' Teachings.

May Fellowship Program Planned By Church Women

The May Fellowship Day program of the Medford Council of Church Women is scheduled for Friday, May 4, in the First Methodist church, Main and Laurel streets.

Mrs. Louis C. Kirby, president of the council, announces that reservations should be made by the presidents of the church women's groups and turned in to Mrs. C. Earl Bradfish. They can be made by telephoning 3646 by May 1.

Mrs. Clarence Meeker, in presenting the program, will call on several women to give various phases of the theme, "Our Town." Mrs. Harry Holmes, chairman of the Home Service corps of the Red Cross, will speak on "returning service personnel"; Mrs. Marjorie Pena Hopkins, secretary of the Girl Scouts, and Mrs. Ben Schmidt, "juvenile protection"; Mrs. Ethel Tennent, director of the Medford nursery school, "children of working mothers"; Mrs. Dolph Phipps, president of the board of directors, will conclude the discussion with "our town and the young working girl."

Mrs. Rosnick will give the invocation.

A free-will offering will be received to defray the cost of the luncheon and to support the work of the council. A nursery will be provided for small children during the program.

Former Resident Wed In New York To Army Officer

Valley friends of Miss Leona Marian Conger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Conger, route 2, will be interested in the news of her marriage to Col. Leslie Thompson Sutherland. The service took place April 9 at the Riverside church in New York and was read by the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Col. and Mrs. Sutherland are residing near the Edgewood Arsenal, Md., where the officer is currently stationed. Mrs. Sutherland has been employed at the arsenal for the past several months. She was home last fall for a month's visit with her parents.

Miss Delma Carter Bride Of Corporal

Prospect—A marriage of interest here took place at Reno, April 17, when Miss Delma Carter, daughter of Mrs. George Carter of Prospect became the bride of Cpl. Delbert Parscel of the U. S. Marine Corps. Mrs. Parscel, a 1944 graduate of Grants Pass high school, has been employed by the Alley Brothers Lumber company for the past year. Cpl. Parscel has recently returned from the Hawaiian Islands where he has been stationed for the past several months.

The young couple is visiting with the corporal's parents at Grants Pass, until he reports for duty.

Mrs. Ralph Waldron Entertains Group

Members of the Leisure Day club held an all-day session at the home of Mrs. F. E. Richey 634 McAndrews Road, with a covered dish luncheon at noon. Mrs. Ralph Waldron presided at a business session. Present were Mrs. O. C. Richey, Mrs. Ralph Waldron, Mrs. A. H. Taylor, Mrs. Ben Music, Mrs. John Gee and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wallace, 344 South Grape street, who recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, were married in Coblenz, Germany. Mrs. Wallace's native city. Mr. Wallace was then a sergeant with the United States army of occupation in Germany.

Ceremony and Tea At Local Hospital Will Honor Aides

In honor of 24 recent graduates of the two night classes of volunteer Red Cross Nurses' Aides, formal capping ceremonies and a tea are being held this afternoon at Community Hospital by Miss Phyllis Swearingen and the nurses' aide committee, assisted by members of the corps. Special invitations have been extended members of the public health department, Sacred Heart, Community and the Camp White station hospitals, the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, Red Cross and other interested persons who have contributed to the program in Medford.

The oath of civilian defense will be administered by Frank Hull and Mrs. Lester Gilman, R. N., will administer the volunteer nurses' aide oath. Presentation of caps and pins will be by Mrs. Don Newbury, chairman of the aide committee, assisted by Mrs. T. R. Florey, vice-chairman, and Mrs. C. W. Gutches, corps captain.

Miss June Williams will present two vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Phyllis Furry, and Mrs. Howard Rutherford will present incidental music during the afternoon. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Porter J. Neff, Mrs. C. W. Ashpole, Mrs. S. M. Tuttle and Mrs. J. C. Boyle. Mrs. Neff is making flower arrangements for the affair and assisting about the rooms will be Miss Nancy Newbury and Miss Anne Durso.

Sacred Heart graduates, instructed by Sister Joseph Amabel, R. N., include Clara Beer, Dorothy Gould, Mary Roper, Beulah Osburn, Mary Wilson, Clara Purcell, Florence Homer, Lorraine Cachelin and Hiltrude Van Dyke.

Community Hospital graduates, instructed by Miss Betsy Rolland, R. N. and Mrs. Lester Gilman, R. N., include Mildred Early, Edythe Herriott, Mrs. C. G. Van Valzah, Joan Aya, Elsie Kreer, Mary Gilmore, Audrey Miles, Phyllis Cray, Esther Bauer, Mary Schenck, Wilma Hayes, Frances Naumes, Louella Schneider and Laura Butts. About 100 guests are expected for the ceremonies and tea.

25th Anniversary Is Celebrated By Medford Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wallace, 344 South Grape street, who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary April 3, have made their home in Oregon ever since arriving in this country as bride and groom shortly after the termination of World War I. Mrs. Wallace, the former Amalie Helen Koch was a war bride, marrying Sgt. Wallace when he was stationed in her home city of Coblenz, Germany, with the army of occupation.

In celebration of their silver wedding anniversary the Wallaces entertained 35 guests at their home for a buffet supper, and the guests signed their names in the guest book which was presented to Sgt. and Mrs. Wallace by Chaplain Schleiser on their wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace lived in Grants Pass, the sergeant's home town, when they first arrived in Oregon but for the past five years they have lived in Medford. Mr. Wallace is now with the Columbia Utilities company at Camp White.

Mr. Wallace served overseas in the last war for more than four years, having been sent over with one of the first contingents and remaining with the army of occupation after hostilities had ceased.

Mariners' Class Meets at Church

Members of the Mariners' class of the First Christian church met Wednesday evening in the Fellowship Hall for a potluck dinner, business meeting and social hour.

Features of the evening's entertainment included an instructive talk on fire hazards by Skipper Claude Haggard, accordion numbers by Glenn Yost, Jr., and games.

The group welcomed back Irwin R. Doty, RT-3-c, home on leave from Treasure Island Mrs. Martha Mathis and Mrs. Hallie Wright were guests.

Miss Nancy Swem Reigns As Queen Of Annual Dance

Most important social event of the year for students of Medford senior high school, the annual Junior Prom, took place last night at the school gymnasium, and highlighting the event was the coronation of Miss Nancy Swem as prom queen. Miss Swem, senior student, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swem. Princesses for the prom were Evelyn Van Hise, Margo Gammill and Gloria Preston from the senior class and Betty Lou Baker, Beverly Conser, June Bosworth and Joan Hoppe, juniors.

Queen Nancy was escorted to her throne by Charles Jones, president of the senior class, and received her crown from John Bullock, president of the student body. She wore for the prom a gown of white with a full skirt.

A circus theme had been used in the hall decorations and for programs. A false ceiling in tent style was of pink and blue and a large elephant stood behind the queen's throne, which was fashioned to resemble a howdah. Murals were of circus animals.

During the intermission a program was presented by Jerry Liebman and Joan Adler, who presented a feature dance; Phyllis Furry, who gave piano selections, and Jerry Clark, who gave popular song numbers.

Patrons and patronesses were the Messrs. and Mesdames E. H. Hedrick, L. D. Harris, John Moffat, Eugene Thordike, L. A. Mentzer, Justin Smith, M. Liebman, J. C. Tucker, Al Simpson and Miss Mary Busch, Miss Carol Snyder, Miss Joan Cunningham, Miss Delie Whitehead, Mrs. Delphie Meyers and Mrs. Johnnie Smith.

Jerry Liebman was general chairman for the prom and other committee chairmen were Marjorie Thompson, decorations; Allen Kircher, construction; Nat Bender, lighting; Janet Horsley, programs; Betty Lou Baker, refreshments; Bob Stevens, music; Barbara Meadows, patrons and patronesses and Bill Tams, clean-up.

Junior class officers are Bob Watson, president; Allen Kircher, vice-president; Lee Johnson, secretary; Al Boucher, treasurer; Lorraine Pergard, representative. Miss Jacquie Kitley and J. C. Tucker are class advisers.

Colleen Imhausen Married In Reno To Melvin Miller

Married April 23 in Reno, Nev., were Colleen Imhausen of Medford and Melvin Miller of Shady Cove. The service was performed by the Rev. Brewster Adams of the First Baptist church at the Adams home.

The bride's wedding costume was an ensemble of light blue with accessories of white and her flowers were carnations. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Miller will return to Medford to reside on North Riverside avenue. The groom is engaged in the logging business.

Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Friend, An telope Orchard, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Morgan of Shady Cove. Both the bride and groom attended Medford high school.

Miss Nancy Swem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swem, 38 Ross Court, reigned as queen of the annual Junior Prom, held last night at the high school. Miss Swem, also the present queen of Medford Bethel, Daughters of Job, is shown here in her robes as Bethel queen.

Newlywed Couple Arrive In City; Will Reside Here

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spencer Bullis have arrived in Medford and have taken up residence here. Mr. and Mrs. Bullis are newlyweds, their marriage having taken place in Mansfield, Ga., March 31, at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Bullis is the former Elizabeth Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Overton Lawrence of Mansfield. The groom served in the navy early in the war and after his discharge was employed at Tulane university, New Orleans, for a time. He is the son of Seth Bullis, 15 Florence avenue.

Mrs. Emmens In South For Conference Session

Mrs. Tom Emmens, 602 Catherine street, left by plane yesterday for San Francisco where she plans to attend sessions of the San Francisco conference.

Miss Huldah Rose Is Betrothed To Sergeant Fisher

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rose of Medford announce the engagement of their daughter, Huldah Rae, to S/Sgt. J. L. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fisher of Springfield, Ore.

Miss Rose attended Medford schools, graduated from the Southern Oregon College of Education and for the past three years has been a member of the faculty of the Eagle Point schools. Sgt. Fisher attended the University of Oregon and the Southern Oregon College of Education. He has recently returned from 27 months overseas duty in the European theater.

No definite date has been set for the wedding as Sgt. Fisher is a patient at Barnes General hospital, Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Rasmussen, Son Leave For Nebraska

Mrs. George Rasmussen and son, Peter, left Monday for Omaha, Neb., to visit her husband, Lt. (j.g.) George Rasmussen, who is stationed with the navy there. Mrs. Rasmussen resides at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts on Crown Hill road.

University Students In City For Week-end

Miss Betty Mack, Miss Paula Blanton and Miss Dolores Ray will return to the University of Oregon today after visiting their parents in Medford this week-end.

BEAUTY SCHOOL SPECIALS

Permanent Wave
$3.00 $4.00
$5.00 $6.00
$8.00 $10.00

COLD WAVE
$10.

Shampoo 50¢ and Hair Style 50¢

MEDFORD SCHOOL of BEAUTY CULTURE
235 E. Main

CLEARANCE OF COATS and SUITS

ENTIRE STOCK SPECIALLY PRICED

COATS $6.00 to $14.75
Fall and Spring weight. Values to $24.95
Sizes 10 to 44. REAL VALUES

SUITS $5.00 to $17.90
Lined and Unlined. Values to $24.95
Sizes 10 to 44. DON'T MISS THESE VALUES

ALSO—GIRLS' NEW SPRING COATS $9.95
Sizes 7 to 14. Boxy and Fitted
Red, Blue, Beige, Orchid, Brown, Green and Gold. Ceiling price $15.95

HAROLD'S LADIES' APPAREL Medford
130 E. Main

ADRIENNE'S

Coats Preferred

Here are the three top coats in Spring's hit parade of fashions. The shortie that goes with everything. The doll-waist coat that slim beauties like to tie tightly around their waists. And the boy coat... long may it reign! In bright shades... navy and black.

Also Companion Coats and Suits are shown in the Coat and Suit Department

From $25.00 each to $59.98

TRADE LOT

S. Riverside Klamath Falls for Suburban Lot
Dr. A. A. Soule M. D.
Phone 2870

In Time of Sorrow

It is in time of sorrow that Perl's service is so sincerely appreciated... here you may leave ALL details to us, and long experience plus complete facilities enable us to provide a service both beautiful and moderate in cost.

Lady Attendant

PERL'S FUNERAL HOME

426 WEST SIXTH ST. TELEPHONE 2675

AMBULANCE SERVICE

REMEMBER

Mother's Day

IS MAY 13th

CHOOSE YOUR MOTHER'S DAY CARD FROM OUR LARGE SELECTION

Priced From 5c to $1.00

Special Cards for MOTHER'S DAY

- TO DAD ON MOTHER'S DAY
- TO AUNT ON MOTHER'S DAY
- MOTHER'S DAY MONEY ENCLOSURE CARDS

WE HANDLE THE HALLMARK CARDS

SWEMS GIFT SHOP

217 E. MAIN STREET