Luncheon Planned By Local Chapter For DAR Officer

Plans for entertaining Mrs. Julius Young Talmadge, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, were made at the last meeting of Crater Lake chapter April 28 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak Court, with Mrs. F. J. Newman as hostess.

Mrs. Talmadge, of Athens, Ga., and Washington, D. C., will be honored at a luncheon Wednesday, May 9, at the Presbyterian church parlors here and following the luncheon will meet with chapter members. Mrs. Talmadge, a delegate to the world security conference being held at San Francisco, will continue north from Medford to visit chapters in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, Medford, Oregon state regent, will accompany Mrs. Talmadge while she visits chapters in Salem May 10 and the Portland chapters May 11.

The president general will bring the latest national DAR news to the chapters in the west since she attended the DAR national board of management meeting in Washington, D. C., just before leaving the east. The board meeting supplanted the annual Continental Congress, canceledd this year due to war conditions.

During the chapter meeting, Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, Mrs. Frances Cochran and Mrs. Lowry reported on a meeting with the Sons of the American Revolution concerning the restoration of the old courthouse at Jacksonville for the housing of all relics and to perpetuate historical interest in the town, one of the oldest in the state.

Mrs. M. N. Hogan of the Jackson County League of Women Voters explained the plan of the Dumbarton Oaks conference for a United Nations' organization.

Mrs. D'Albini, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. R. E. Green, Mrs. Pankey and Mrs. Taylor were named on a nominating committee.

A musical program was given by Mrs. Thomas Young, who presented piano numbers, and Miss Dorothy Jean Farley, who sang three numbers, accompanied by Miss Phyllis Furry.

An interesting guest was Mrs. Nutting, member of the DAR chapters in St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Newman, assisted by Mrs. R. G. Beach and Mrs. A. E. Stratton, served refreshments. Mrs. Lowry and Miss Sara van Meter poured. Arrangements of spring flowers decorated the rooms.

Wednesday Club Program Given For Music Week

A program in observation of National Music Week was given at the Wednesday Study club last week, having been arranged by Mrs. F. E. Nichols. Numbers were presented by senior high school pupils of Miss Mabel Nansen, music supervisor.

A quartet composed of Miss June Williams, Miss Audrey Jarmin, Carl Winklebleck and Jerald Pence presented two numbers and Miss Phyllis Furry gave two piano numbers.

Following the musical program Mrs. J. G. Love presented a review of a book by Deems Taylor giving the interpretation of music from primitive ages down to modern times. The important part that music plays in the American home and school was stressed and a short discussion by members followed.

It was reported that Mrs. E. B. Pickel is improving in health and expects to return here from Portland about the first of June.

Mrs. Harold Brown, chairman of the "good times" committee, invited the club to hold the next meeting in her home. This will be a luncheon and election of officers.

Annual Luncheon Of Church Women Attended By 200

More than 200 Medford women were present Friday for the annual May Fellowship luncheon sponsored by the Medford Council of Church Women at the Methodist church. The luncheon had been termed a "Noah's Ark" affair, featured pear salad in the menu and had for a program theme "Our Town", Medford, the "pear-adise" of the world.

Mrs. L. C. Kirby, president of the council, presided at the luncheon and the invocation was given by Mrs. Nellie Rosnick. Musical numbers were furnished by Miss Jean Farley, who sang, with Miss Phyllis Furry accompanying.

Mrs. C. A. Meeker, program chairman, introduced five speakers who spoke on various phases of "Our Town." Mrs. Harry Holmes of the Red Cross spoke on the problems of returning service personnel; Mrs. Dolph Phipps, chairman of the board of the Girls' Community club, spoke on the topic of newcomers; Mrs. Ethel Tennent, supervisor of the Medford war nursery told of that phase of the program theme; Mrs. Ben Schmidt spoke on juvenile protection and Mrs. Marjorie Hopkins, executive secretary of the Girl Scout council, concluded the speakers' program.

Luncheon tables were decorated with flowers and with posters appropriate to the luncheon theme and women attending found their luncheon partners by matching animal pictures.

Camp, Auxiliary Department Heads Visit In Medford

A number of department guests were present at the meeting of the Col. Sargent Camp and Auxiliary, U.S.W.V., at the armory Wednesday.
