

Mighty Beavers Extend League Lead to 5 Games

By United Press
Portland's mighty Beavers had a five-game lead in the Pacific Coast League today, but even their hometown supporters must admit that Manager Marv Owen's men have waxed fat at the expense of the lowly Hollywood Stars.

The two clubs already have met 14 times this season with 11 decisions going to the Beavers. They maintained their mastery over the basement-dwellers yesterday by annexing both ends of a doubleheader before 10,000 disappointed Hollywood fans, 7-6, and 10-0. This gave Portland the series, six games to one.

The Oakland Acorns climbed into second place by downing the Seattle Rainiers twice, 13-2 and 5-1, before an overflow audience of 11,000 at Oakland. The Oaks had a 5-2 margin for the week.

The Los Angeles Angels stopped the San Diego Padres, 2-1, in the first game of their twin bill, but the Padres pleased 9,300 backers by taking the nightcap, 5-4. But the Angels had a 4-3 edge in the series.

Sacramento's Solons pasted the slipping San Francisco Seals in both games, 15-7 and 11-1, to wind up with a 5-2 record before 7,000 capital city fans.

Portland runs up against stiff opposition this week at San Diego, while Oakland visits Los Angeles and San Francisco gets a whack at Hollywood. The schedule will be rounded out with Sacramento playing host to Seattle.

TRACK RECORD SET
Tijuana, Mex., May 7.—(U.P.)—Bric-A-Brac, son of War Admiral today held a surprise victory and a new track record in the renewal of the $20,000 Tijuana Handicap at the Hipodromo de Tijuana. The game horse ran the mile and a quarter in 2:02 2-5 yesterday, clipping a fifth of a second off the mark set 12 years ago by Gallant Sir.

Ohio had its coldest winter in years. Existing snowplows and road maintenance equipment were wholly inadequate to cope with the snows.

New York, May 7.—(U.P.)—The Detroit Tigers, sporting an odd combination of tightwad twirling and a "hit or miss" batting order, were responsible today for a new wartime shortage—scoreboard zeros.

It's either feast or famine for the Bengals, who generally spend their time shutting out the opposition or getting shut out. Yesterday it was the opposition that got horse-collared—twice. Lefty Hal Newhouser blanked the champion St. Louis Browns with just one hit to win, 3 to 0, and in the second game, Althon Benton won his fourth straight game and his second shutout, 1 to 0.

Tight pitching highlighted other games. At Boston, Rookie Dave Ferris of the Red Sox proved his sensational debut last week was no fluke by blanking the Yankees, 5 to 0, for his second straight shutout. He scattered seven hits and made two himself. Hank Borowy turned the tables for New York, winning the nightcap, 2 to 0.

Chisox Win Two
The White Sox took a firmer hold on first place at Chicago, beating the Indians twice, 3 to 0, and 6 to 4.
Emil (Dutch) Leonard, back after being rejected from military service, pitched a three-hitter at Washington, beating the Athletics, 2 to 0, after Philadelphia won the opener, 3 to 2, to break a six-game losing streak. The Giants beat the Braves,

4 to 3, and tied them 1-all at New York in a seven-inning second game, called because of rain.
Philadelphia Beaten
The amazing Dodgers took two at Philadelphia, 7 to 5, and 10 to 7.
The world champion St. Louis Cards finally started disappointing themselves in pennant winning style, knocking the visiting Chicago Cubs out of second place with a double win, 6 to 2, and 5 to 1.
Ed Heusser, who has allowed only two runs in three winning games, gave Cincinnati a 3 to 1 victory at Pittsburgh in the opener. Truett (Rip) Sewell countered by giving the Bucs a 5 to 1 victory in the second.

WAGNER RETURNS TO ARMORY RING

"Gorgeous" George Wagner, self-styled toast of the coast and former light-heavyweight champion, has been signed to face Tony Morelli in the headline bout of Mack Lillard's Thursday night mat fracas at Medford armory. Both are well versed in the school of rough wrestling maneuvers and fans who like that type of muscle twisting will be treated to a rare dish.
The semi-windup will be exactly the opposite when Walter "Sneeze" Achieu and Georges Dusette, junior heavyweight crown-bearer, square off in the four-round go.
The opener will see another old favorite back in the local picture in the person of Paavo Katonen who also is a former light-heavyweight champion. He will face Antone Leone.

UCLA TO PRACTICE
Los Angeles, May 7.—(U.P.)—Bert Labrucherle, new football coach at the University of California at Los Angeles, will be introduced today to 55 gridiron candidates as he holds the initial spring football practice. Sixteen of the football prospects are let-terms.

Hawaii comprises 20 islands, of which eight are inhabited. One of the Hawaiian islands, Kahoolawe, has only two inhabitants.

George Fazio Wins Golf Championship
Fresno, Cal., May 7.—(U.P.)—George Fazio of Los Angeles, a wiry little guy who was in the navy up to a few months ago, held the California open golf championship today.
Fazio won the annual $3,500 classic at the tough Fort Washington course yesterday with a 54-hole total of 210, six under par. Army Sgt. Jim Ferrier of the San Francisco Presidio, former Australian open titlist, missed a long putt on the last hole which would have tied the southern California professional.

Central Point

Central Point, May 7.—The Home Economics' meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Taylor on the Old Stage Road, Wednesday, was well attended.

Preferred by Particular People

Because Sicks' Select is brewed to the highest standards of the brewing art, there may not always be enough to meet the demand. But its quality is always maintained—and it is one of the few beers that is invariably in favor with both men and women. Light, smooth, and zesty it has a character all its own and many acclaim it as "America's smoothest Table Beer."

LUCKY ME!
I'M A "COPCO" CUSTOMER

LUCKY—BUT SMART, TOO. This lady is lucky because she enjoys one of the lowest residential rates for electric service in the whole nation. She buys twice as much good electric service with her electrical dollar as the Average American Homemaker buys with hers. Just think of it—twice as much.

The lady is smart, too. Smart because she takes full advantage of this great household bargain. She uses it freely to lighten her homemaking tasks—to conserve her valuable time—to save her precious energy. Her home is brightly lighted, too, for she understands that good lighting does much to bring cheer and comfort to her home. She knows it helps protect her family's treasured vision.

Follow the lady's good example. Use your cheap electric service as effectively as you can, now. And plan to make your postwar home ALL-ELECTRIC!
