Wall Street

New York, May 9 — (UP)—
Stocks made an irregular decline today on contracted volume.
Special issues attracted a substantial following but the main list was neglected and a sufficient number of rallies and industrial declines to bring declines in those averages. Small gains predominated in the main group of utilities.

Market operators moved cautiously because of the uncertainties over partial reconversion of industry. Big corporations said they had no idea what the government had in mind regarding the changeover and they were maintaining a crossed-fingers attitude. As a result the trading element in stocks tended to sell

TAX BUDGET WILL BE SIGNED FRIDAY

The 1945-46 tax budget will be completed and signed Friday, members of the county court said today. The budget, now in process of preparation by the county clerk, was prepared in two sessions by the appointed committee composed of Ben Harder, Medford; Arnold Bohner, Central Point, and W. W. Robison, Ashland, acting with the county court.

Commissioner Arthur E. Powell of Central Point, said he thought the budget, when recapitulated would be about the same as last year. Selective increases provided for in the budget as well as a veterans' security officer.

The estimates for the various county offices and departments are approximately the same as last year.
