

Society and Clubs

Annual Week, Day Receive Attention Of Valley People

With the attention of valley people turned to National Music Week, the past several days have been marked with many musical programs, including the annual appearances of grade and high school pupils in concerts and operettas and recitals of music pupils both here and in Ashland. Outstanding among musical events this week will be the music festival for Rogue valley high schools which will be held Thursday at the Medford senior high school, with a public program in the evening at the gymnasium.

Today attention centers on the observance of Mother's Day which is to be marked with special church and lodge services and many family gatherings. Daughters of Job will attend church with their mothers at Zion Lutheran church this morning and this afternoon the Eagles' lodge is presenting the annual Mother's Day service at the lodge hall at 2 p. m.

'Alpha Delta Class Plans Silver Tea For Teacher Fund

To raise funds for the Medford Board of Christian Education, Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church will sponsor a silver tea in the social hall of the church Thursday afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. The board has accepted responsibility for furnishing a teacher of Bible history and literature in the public schools.

Mrs. Charles Emerick is general chairman in charge of the tea and will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Daugherty as chairman of decorations and Mrs. L. LeRoy Guyer as refreshment chairman. An interesting program is being arranged by Mrs. Clyde M. Hon and Mrs. Verne L. Bailey.

Mrs. Charles C. Stearns, president of the class, will be chairman of hostesses for the afternoon. Vern Bailey is teacher of the class.

A cordial invitation is extended to each woman of the church to attend and to bring guests.

V-E Day Program Is Given Monday By Local Lodge

In observance of VE Day, a patriotic program was given at the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday night, which had been arranged by Ina Huson, Carol Davis and Reta Rogers appeared in accordion duets and Laura Wicker, noble grand, read "Our Flag." Lona Bergman read the American Creed and Ethyl Weed gave a paper on the flag. The members also joined in community singing of several patriotic songs.

Program committee for the next meeting will be Ethyl Weed, chairman, and Lona Bergman and the refreshment committee will be the Mesdames Jane McCarty, Laura Jones, Lily Demmer and Gertrude Moffitt. Jessie Howard, Katherine Fleming and Nell Spencer made up the entertainment committee for Monday night.

Geneva A. Stockhoff, a Rebekah from Arcata, Calif., and a newcomer to Medford, was a visitor.

Riders Schedule Second Practice; Troop Will Meet

Second practice of the season will be held this morning by the Sheriff's Posse and Ladies' Mounted Troop drill teams, leaders announce. Members are to be at the posse stables and ready to ride at 10 a. m. Last week's first practice was well attended.

The troop has planned a ride Tuesday evening and at 7:30 p. m. will gather at the home of Mrs. O. H. Bengtson, 122 Orange Terrace, for a social evening.

Girls' Society Organized Here

A Medford unit of the Girls' Friendly society, sponsored by St. Mark's Episcopal church, was organized at a potluck dinner May 9, and officers were named.

Senior advisers will be Mrs. Margaret Fabrick and the Rev. George R. Turney, and Mrs. Turney will be junior adviser. During elections Miss Margery Hammond was named president; Miss JoAnne Gilmore, vice-president; Miss Jocelyn Bauer, secretary; treasurer; Miss Audrey Andrews, senior representative; Miss Susan Drummond, junior representative; Miss Kathleen Seekatz, program chairman; Miss Phyllis Merrick, worship chairman and Miss Katherine Hoppe, publicity chairman.

C. L. PERKINS
 Doctor of OPTOMETRY
 Successor to Dr. E. D. Elwood
 Department of Human Vision
LENSES PRESCRIBED
 Ph. 3281 214 Fisher Bldg.
 Cor. Main and Central, Medford

D. A. R. President - General Speaks at District Meeting

Mrs. Julius Young Talmadge, upper left, president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, spoke at a meeting of Oregon district three of the society held in Medford Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, upper right, Medford, Oregon, attended the meeting and later accompanied Mrs. Talmadge north to visit Salem and Portland chapters. Mrs. O. H. Brennenman, regent of Crater Lake chapter, presided at the luncheon-meeting which honored the national officer.

Service is the keyword of the Daughters of the American Revolution, said Mrs. Julius Young Talmadge, president-general of the society, speaking at a district meeting held here Wednesday at the Presbyterian church, and this service finds expression in the home, the community, the state and nation. Mrs. Talmadge of Athens, Ga., and Washington, L. C., came here from San Francisco, where she attended plenary sessions of the world security conference, and with Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, Medford, Oregon regent, left that evening for meetings in Salem, Portland and other cities in the northwest.

A number of state officers were present, including Mrs. Francis Cochran, Medford, state corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ernest Calhoun, Grants Pass, state national museum chairman; Mrs. Harry W. Andrews, Ashland, filing and lend chairman; Mrs. Boone G. Harding, Medford, state chairman of genealogical records; Mrs. Melvin A. Penney, Grants Pass, state chairman of district three. Two honorary state regents present were Mrs. Gordon McCracken, Ashland, and Mrs. Harding, Medford.

Presenting vocal solos were Mrs. Effie Kurtz and Harry Young, both accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh.

During the program Mrs. Talmadge was presented with a myrtlewood bowl as a gift from the local chapter. Following luncheon an informal reception was held in the church fireplace room.

Presbyterian Society Will Meet Tuesday

May meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will be held Tuesday at the church, with luncheon at 1 o'clock. Miss Elizabeth Burr will have charge of the program and Mrs. E. G. Randolph will sing.

Members are to bring service and a nursery will be provided for small children.

HOW DOES CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEAL?

THE DISAPPEARANCE of organic and functional disease, as well as of trouble in other forms, is continually recorded among those who have turned to Christian Science for help.

The method of such overcoming of difficulty is prayer—a spiritually scientific manner of thinking based on the teaching of Christ Jesus.

What this prayer is and how anyone can understand it and use it effectively in accordance with his need are fully explained in the Christian Science textbook.

SCIENCE and HEALTH with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy

This remarkable book, other works by Mrs. Eddy, and all other authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased at the Christian Science Reading Room.

Medford Center Building.
 Medford

Open to the public at the following hours: 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

First Church of Christ, Scientist,
 212 No. Oakdale

In conformity with our President's request that this be observed as a day of prayer

A time of quiet waiting upon God will be observed in

THE

First Presbyterian Church

Holly at 8th Street

8 P. M. TONIGHT

We cordially invite the public and all who are not customarily worshipping elsewhere to join us. The service will be quiet, dignified and we believe, inspiring and uplifting.

Organ Meditations, Special Music, Quiet Hymns, Scripture Readings, Prayer.

Court of Awards For Girl Scouts Will Be May 18

A public Court of Awards for Girl Scouts will be sponsored by the Medford Girl Scout council May 18 at the Lincoln School gymnasium, it was announced last week. The program committee of the council, which has charge of this annual event, is made up of Mrs. Charles Thatcher, chairman, Mrs. T. E. May, Mrs. L. P. Older, Mrs. W. E. Anhorn, Mrs. R. A. Work and Mrs. Lester Harris.

Among the outstanding awards to be presented at the court are the five-year membership pins, given to both leaders and scouts. Adults now registered under the Girl Scout program who have been in the organization five years or more are Mrs. John Larwood, Mrs. Edward Leach, Mrs. E. Raymond Driver, Mrs. Myron Root and Mrs. Neil Collins.

Girl Scouts with five-year memberships are Jean Kincaid, Mary James Matthews, Lois Parsons, Joy Finch, Barbara Earl, Corrine LaTourrette, Kathleen Seekatz, Betty Lou Anseth, Marjory Ferris, Betty Clark, Jeanette Marie Marks, Betty Larwood, Jane Ray, Jean Runtz, Sally Cooney, Sylvia Eakin and Patricia Merriman.

Chapter To Hold Annual Luncheon Saturday At Club

Epsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma is making plans for the annual luncheon which will be held May 19 at the Girls' Community club at 1 p. m., with election of officers to be held during the afternoon.

At the April meeting of the group standing and special committees gave brief summaries of their activities for the past year. Miss Daphne Matthews spoke on new courses in the high school, stating that those in consumer education and in homemaking would remain. High school pupils, she said, need intellectual independence as well as economic independence.

Miss Ora Cox gave a comprehensive and pertinent talk on "freedom versus responsibility," emphasizing that there can be no freedom without acceptance of responsibilities.

Guild To Present Annual Musicale Monday Evening

Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church will give its annual musicale Monday evening at the church parlors, beginning at 8 p. m. Officers state that anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Featured on the program will be Mrs. Bernice Bolger, violinist, the Medford Trio, Mrs. Catherine Wendt, Harry Young and Mrs. D. R. Smith. The trio is made up of the Mesdames Catherine Wendt, Margaret Huson and Jean McAllister.

Medford Resident To Attend Jubilee

Mrs. A. G. McMillin, 56 North Peach street, will leave Monday morning for Roseburg where she will attend the Golden Jubilee celebration of the Roseburg Woman's club. The celebration will cover two days, with a dinner Monday night at the Umpqua Hotel and open house scheduled for Tuesday at the club rooms. Past presidents and charter members are to be honored. Mrs. McMillin, a past president of the club, resided in Roseburg for 18 years, coming to Medford to live 10 years ago. Mrs. G. V. Wimberley is now president of the organization.

Past President's Club is Entertained May 5

Mrs. Walter E. Rowley, 311 North Bartlett street, entertained members of the Past President's club of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Elta Deuel Hubbs tent, at luncheon May 5. Following luncheon the members discussed organization matters of local and national interest.

PARTS and SERVICE

for all makes of WASHERS and REFRIGERATORS

YOUNGER'S APPLIANCE SERVICE CO.

31 N. Bartlett. Phone 2419

CAMPBELL'S MILK

PASTEURIZED or RAW

Grade A — at your favorite Grocer, or phone 4190

Thank GOD for a PRAYING MOTHER

and for a Prayer - Answering God!

Observe MOTHERS' DAY and the NATIONAL DAY of PRAYER

at the Apostolic Faith Church

North Central Avenue and Third Street

Devotional and Evangelistic Services 11 a. m., 3 p. m., 7:45 p. m.

Orchestra and Chorus will Present Songs and Music Our Mother Loved. Old-Fashioned Preaching of Old-Fashioned Grace. An Altar of Prayer Where Souls Can Find God.

"Tell Mother I'll be there in answer to her prayer, This message, blessed Savior, to her bear."

Church Open All Day For Prayer

ADRIENNE'S

Just Arrived—New Large Shipment Of Hats For Your Summer Wear

Coolbreeze... as fashioned by Franklin into a two-piece enchanter... weaves a spell of cool magic with its flurry of summer "snowflakes" that frost the bodice in the shape of unsullied white eyelets, embroidered on Snow-white, Strawberry-pink, Ice-blue, Frosti-lime. Sizes 10 to 20. $25.00

Coolbreeze... fashioned by Franklin into a slim, trim dress with a clever keyhole neckline. Ruffled lace and bright-white eyelet embroidery frost the front and perky pockets. The effect is a cool treat for anyone's eyes! Snow-white, Strawberry-pink, Ice-blue, Frosti-lime. Sizes 10 to 20. $25.00