Annual Luncheon Given Thursday By Church Group

Entertaining at the annual Mother's Day luncheon, members of Loyalty circle of the Methodist church were hostesses at a large gathering of Medford women at the church Thursday.

A musical program featured the girls' triple trio from Medford Junior high school, directed by Mrs. William McAllister, and Mrs. Mary Cave and Mrs. Nancy Hulbert, Roseburg, in vocal duets with accompaniment by Mrs. B. Doolen. Mrs. Doolen also gave a reading.

Mrs. E. Henderson read poems dedicated to the oldest mother, the youngest mother and the mother with the largest number of sons in the service and presented these women with corsages and leis of flowers. Mrs. W. A. Holloway was the oldest mother present and Mrs. Vivian Kyker was judged the mother with the most sons in service. She has five sons in the armed forces.

Mrs. Frank McKeown was general chairman in charge of the affair and decorations had been arranged by Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Cramer. Mrs. Cramer had made a novel centerpiece of snowballs which spelled "Mom" and also made the corsages and leis presented during the luncheon. Mrs. Lucille Cave was luncheon chairman.

Mothers, Teachers Honored At Party Given By Juniors

The Junior Department of the First Christian church entertained members, mothers and substitute teachers at a party May 5 at the church. Corsages were presented to the guests by the boys and girls and Claudia Cooper, Arlene Rasmussen, Don Church, Dale Cooper, Barbara Cook, Carolyn Bourne and Herbert Burnham presented a program.

Games were played and the juniors then escorted the honored guests to the refreshment table. In attendance were 28 juniors, 14 mothers and six teachers.

The successful party was planned by Mrs. V. Bailey, superintendent; Mrs. J. T. Davis, Mrs. M. E. Olson and Mrs. B. Gregory, teachers.

Wives Club Plans Service Program At Last Meeting

A service group was formed by members of the Local Officers' Wives club at a meeting held Friday night at the Outpost. The group will sew for refugee children under the direction of Mrs. B. Stafford, chairman, and Mrs. Sam Schlankey, assistant chairman. A flower chairman will be announced soon to head a committee to provide the Outpost with flowers.

During the evening a gavel was presented to the group by Lt. Col. and Mrs. Thomas L. McCullough.

Hostesses for dessert and bridge were Mrs. George Kotchik, Mrs. Chris Hald and Mrs. V. E. Whitehouse. Mrs. Don Galbreath is president of the club.

Officers' Wives Are Entertained

Wives of Camp White officers, who make up sewing and surgical dressing work units at the Outpost, were entertained last week by Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter and Mrs. I. E. Schuler, the affair being at the former's home, Topside. The party, originally planned as a picnic, was held indoors because of unfavorable weather.

About 25 attended.

Miss Goetz Returns After Stay In City

Miss Lucille Goetz, formerly of Medford, left last night for her home at Residence club, Knob Hill, San Francisco, Calif., after visiting for the past week with Mrs. Arthur H. Endris, 16 Ashland avenue. Miss Goetz, who was employed as a medical technician at the Community hospital while residing in Medford, will resume her work as technician at the Mt. Zion hospital in San Francisco.

Mrs. Aiken To Leave For Visit In North

Mrs. Belva Aiken, 816 West 4th street, will leave tomorrow for Chelan, Wash., for a two weeks' visit with her niece, Mrs. Ray Baker. Mrs. Aiken is employed at the West Side Shopping Center.

Missionary Work Is Program Theme At Union Meeting

Missionary work in China, India, South America and other parts of the world was discussed at the temperance and missionary program of the Medford W.C.T.U., held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Hutchinson, 522 West Tenth street.

Mrs. Anna Roseborough read an interesting paper on China. Mrs. G. O. Sanden read an article on India and the Rev. Louis C. Kirby told of his missionary work in South America. A musical program included a vocal duet by Mrs. Dorothy Shrayer and Mrs. Aletha Knutson, a duet by Mrs. John Eby and Mrs. Knutson and a vocal duet by two five-year-old girls, Carolyn Eby and Ellen Kay McEuen. They were accompanied on the harp by Mrs. Eby.

A candlelight service, traditional with the union for the annual missionary program, was carried out under the direction of Mrs. Eva Low, who had arranged the program.

During the meeting it was planned that a letter of appreciation be sent to the Rev. and Mrs. Fred M. Weatherford for their cooperation with the work of the union. The Weatherfords left Friday for Portland after making their home here for 11 years. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Millie Tucker.

Refreshments were served by the Mesdames Edna Purcell, Josephine Iverson and Eva Low.

Newlywed Couple Visits In City; Guests At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Calavan, whose wedding took place in Albany Sunday, May 6, came to southern Oregon for a wedding trip and were registered at the Holland Hotel last week. The groom resided in Medford for three years before leaving for Vancouver, Wash., and during that time made his home at the Holland Hotel.

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Earley entertained at a dinner and shower for the newly married couple, the affair being in the Blue Room of the hotel. Friday the couple left for Vancouver, Wash., where they will reside.

While in Medford Mr. Calavan was with the Public Utilities commission and is now with Eads Transfer company.

Postponed Meeting To Be Held Tuesday

Fidelity circle of the Methodist church, unable to meet last Tuesday because of VE Day, will meet May 15 in the Sunshine parlors of the church at 2 p.m., officers announce. Mrs. Clarence Meeker will be guest speaker. Mrs. Verga Craig will lead devotions, while Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. Lucy Simmons will be hostesses.

Daughter-in-Law Here From San Francisco

Mrs. Ray L. Ettinger and small daughter have arrived in Medford from San Francisco and will make their home for the present with Mrs. Ettinger's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ettinger, 824 West Twelfth street. Mrs. Ettinger's husband, lieutenant in the navy and a B-24 pilot, is in the South Pacific war theater.

Last Meeting Planned By St. Mark's Women

Last meeting of the year will be held by St. Mark's Auxiliary Guild Tuesday at the MarKade. A potluck luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock and will be followed by a program appropriate to Mother's Day arranged by Mrs. L. E. Williams and Mrs. H. Morris.

The group will sew for the Red Cross at 10:30 a. m.

Men Have Charge Of Annual Event For Star Chapter

Reames chapter of the Eastern Star observed the annual Men's Night last Thursday following the stated communication of the chapter, with the men presenting the program and serving refreshments.

Sebastian Appolo was program chairman for the evening and presented his accordion band in a variety of numbers. Elton Waldron, worthy patron, welcomed the men and C. E. Gates made a humorous response. Mrs. Amelia Hiles, worthy matron, gave a reading describing the men of our day and the Messrs. Roat, Hoffman, Brooks and Strang sang songs appropriate for the occasion.

Refreshments were served from tables gaily decorated with current issues of newspapers.

Miss Nanette Holmes Here For Brief Visit

Miss Nanette Holmes, in San Francisco for the past several weeks, is in Medford for a brief visit with her father, David Holmes, 1327 Reddy avenue. She will leave Tuesday for California but plans to return after two weeks for a more extended stay here.
