Early Jap Defeat Seen by Rep. Luce

New York, May 15 — (U.P.) — Rep. Clare Boothe Luce, R., Conn., who recently returned from a tour of European battlefronts, said today that she believed the Pacific war "may be over sooner than people think, probably within a year."

"I saw what our army did in Germany and the same thing will happen in Japan," she said. "The American G I is the greatest man in the whole world."

REGISTRATION FOR GIRL SCOUT CAMP IS URGED

Girls planning to attend the annual Girl Scout day camp this summer were urged today to register at once. Delayed registration complicates the planning of supplies and programs, Girl Scout leaders state.

Day camp will open June 18 and continue through June 29. The registration fee is 50 cents when paid in advance or 25 cents per day. It is stated that the Red Cross swimming classes and the day camp program will be coordinated so that girls may attend both.

GLENN DEIVERT GETS AWARD FOR SAIPAN HEROISM

The Bronze Star has been awarded to Cpl. Glenn E. Deivert, now at Quantico, Va., as a marine corps instructor, for heroic action during the battle of Saipan July 7, 1944, according to information received by his mother, Mrs. Sue Deivert, 305 South Oakdale avenue. Cpl. Deivert has been in the service since December of 1941 and has been overseas 32 months.

Cpl. Deivert's citation reads: "For heroic achievement in action against the enemy while serving as a cannoneer in a marine artillery battalion on Saipan, Marianas Islands, July 7, 1944. Cpl. Deivert serviced his gun which was firing direct at the advancing enemy while under heavy fire from enemy small arms. His courage, devotion to duty and complete disregard for his personal safety were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval service."

The soldier's wife resides in the Bronx, New York. He has two brothers in the service, Pfc. Thos. C. Deivert, also in the marine corps and now on Okinawa, and Cpl. Richard K. Deivert, serving with the 33rd Infantry Division. Cpl. Richard Deivert's wife and daughter, Linda Dee, born since the corporal left for overseas duty, reside in Emporia, Kan.

Central Point

Central Point, May 15.—Miss Mary Taylor was married to Private Wm. A. Moody at Santa Barbara, Calif., May 3. The ceremony was performed at the home of the minister, Joseph Sanders, after which a beautifully decorated wedding cake was served. They will make their home at Santa Barbara while Private Moody is stationed there. Mary has been attending the San Jose Bible College the last few months.

A reception was given recently at Willow Springs in honor of Wayne Vincent, Henry Waelty, Perry and Marcell Paudios, and Cleo and Everett Young who are home on furlough.

Arthur Hover celebrated his ninth birthday Saturday with a party at his home. Attending were Leroy and Fred Miller, Lanny Brenner, David and Larry Bigham, Marshall Kelly, and Albert McCahn. Ice cream and cake were served.

The Golden Link class enjoyed a party at the Jim Cornutt home on the Old Stage Road Friday. Attending were Ida Henderson, Etta Lacy, Ethel Davis, Lettie Gregory, Bertha Bursell, Lillian Hare, Cordy Burns, Ella Phillips, Mary Catey, Elizabeth Scott, Bertha Tetherow, Myrtle Cays, and Myrtle Cays, Sr., Josephine Cornutt, and the hostess Emma Houston. Delicious refreshments were served.

James Cummings was appointed councilman to take the place of A. J. Milton who has recently moved to Medford.

Nora Hansen and Wilma Grisham are expecting their sons to arrive home most any day on furloughs.

MRS. J. C. BERRANG TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Catherine Berrang, 76, a resident of Rural Route 4, Medford for 21 years, passed away at a local hospital early Tuesday. Mrs. Berrang was born in Girardville, Penn., on June 11, 1868.

On February 4, 1886 she was married to Jacob C. Berrang at Ashland, Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Berrang crossed the country in a covered wagon drawn by ox team, starting their journey in Connecticut in 1920. It took three years, four months and 16 days. Remains of the old wagon still stand near Phoenix and may be seen from the Pacific highway.

Mrs. Berrang leaves to mourn her passing her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Florence Siegel, of Medford, and one son, Charles Berrang, of New York, N. Y., also one grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at the Sacred Heart Catholic church Thursday at 9 a.m., the Rev. Father Hamilton officiating. Recitation of the Rosary will be held at the Perl Funeral Home Wednesday at 8 p.m. Interment will be in Siskiyou Memorial Park.

TEEN-AGERS DRAW TERMS IN PRISON

The county jail was cleared last week of all but one prisoner, a Mrs. Rees—serving 60 days for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, the sheriff's office reports.

Jack Sparks, 19, and Jack Pemberton, 18, each charged with larceny of an auto they afterwards wrecked in the Siskiyous, were sentenced last week by Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna, on pleas of guilty. Sparks was sentenced to 18 months and Pemberton to a year in state prison, both terms indeterminate. They were taken to Salem over the week-end.

Margery Sparks was directed by the court to return to her home and child. Rosemary Ileen Oleman, 16, was turned over to juvenile authorities. The girls were taken in custody with the two youths.

The quartet came here from Toledo, Ore., the authorities said.

EARLY ALFALFA CUT DAMPENED BY RAINS

Some alfalfa, cut and baled last week in the valley, has been dampened by the current rains, County Agent Robert G. Fowler reports. It was the earliest cutting of alfalfa in the memory of the county agent. Cutting generally starts the last week in May or the first week of June. The county agent said the early cutting was to forestall any aphis damage.
