TRUMAN HOPEFUL FOR EARLY MEET

Washington, May 16.—(U.P.)—President Truman said today he hopes there will be a meeting of the allied Big Three soon.

The President told a news conference, however, that he could not say that such a meeting actually will be held, nor where.

But he left no doubt that he expects to meet with British Pime Minister Winston Churchill and Russian Premier Josef Stalin as soon as conditions will permit.

Postal Workers Wage Increases Voted By House

Washington, May 16.—(U.P.)—The house today passed and sent to the senate legislation granting permanent pay increases to post office employes. The vote was 360 to 1.

If approved by the senate the measure would provide the first adjustment in basic pay rates of postal employes since 1925.

It would give each regular employe a 20 per cent pay increase, but not to be less than $300 nor to exceed $400. Cost of the proposal was estimated at $150,000,000 over the fiscal year ending June 30, 1944.

The measure would replace a temporary act expiring July 1 which was approved May 1, 1943, and gave each employe an annual $300 bonus.

Yugoslavia Asked To Vacate Istria

London, May 16—(U.P.)—Diplomatic sources said today that the United States and Britain formally have asked Yugoslavia to withdraw all her forces from Trieste and the rest of Italy's pre-war province of Istria without delay.

Identical, strongly-worded notes were delivered to Marshal Tito's government in Belgrade by the American and British ambassadors, informants said.
