New York, May 18—(AP)—“That’s the spirit.”

Those three words, shouted by Manager Mel Ott to his victorious Giants as they lumbered into the dressing room yesterday after coming from behind to beat the Cubs, 8 to 5, typifies more than anything else what is making his club look more like a pennant winner all the time.

It is axiomatic in baseball that a penna. winning team must win the tough games—the ones in which they have to come from behind or break late inning deadlocks. And that is just what the Giants have been doing. In sweeping to eight victories out of nine against the so-called tough western clubs, they have come from behind or broken ties to win six times. They have been ahead all the way on only two occasions.

The victory, 12th in the last 13, finally enabled the leading Giants to gain on the Brooklyn Dodgers, whose 11-game winning streak ended at Ebbets field as the Pirates won, 12 to 3.

Ken O’Dea’s fifth inning double with the bases loaded gave the St. Louis Cards the three-run margin they needed to beat the Braves at Boston, 7 to 4.

Walter (Boom Boom) Beck, 41-year-old Cincinnati pitcher, gained his first victory of the campaign, 4 to 2, over the Phillies at Philadelphia, shading Whitlow Wyatt in a battle of veterans.

For the fourth straight day, the entire American league program was rained out.

37 KEGLERS SET FOR 1ST ANNUAL LOCAL TOURNEY

With the entry list containing the names of 37 top keglers in southern Oregon and northern California, the first annual handicap bowling tournament, staged at Medford Bowling alleys will get under way at 2 p. m., Sunday.

Medford leads the entry list with 14, Klamath Falls following with seven. Grants Pass and Redding will each be represented by five bowlers. Eugene’s lone entrant is Melvin Keibelbeck.

Audrey Swope, Medford, and Florence Eaton and Louise Pasteg of Klamath Falls, will represent the bowlerettes of this area.

In addition to the five cash prizes, aggregating some $175, Medford merchants have put up a number of merchandise awards. Included in the list of merchants contributing are Jim’s Super Service, Domestic Laundry, Valley Music Co., Karl’s Shoe Store, Lampert’s Sporting Goods store, Hubbard Bros. Hardware Co., and Valentine’s.

The complete schedule:
2 p. m. Melvin Keibelbeck, Eugene; Floyd Sayer, Long, McRae, Crader and Avery, Redding.
8 p. m. Howard Jamison, Audrey Swope, Jim Moore, Art Klatt and Melvin White, Medford; Bill Owens, Lee Denzer, Al Hackenworth, Jim Young, Florence Eaton, Louise Pasteg, and Bill Davis, Klamath Falls.

8 p. m. L. C. Lawrence, Pete Laganette, Ray Schach, Carl Hammer and A. Meyer, Grants Pass; George Witter, Wilkie Pruitt, George Eads, George Barr, C. H. Paske, Fred Amburgey, Earl Sims, Roy Pruitt, Paul Schantol, Murray Bradley and Frank Hohlweg, Medford.

TO LIGHT TORCH
Los Angeles, May 16—(AP)—Avery Brundage, American Olympic games committee president, will light the Olympic Torch Monday in ceremonies beginning Coliseum Relays week. Brundage will be honorary referee of the fifth annual Coliseum Relays, May 26.

GEORGE WAGNER BEATS MORELLI IN QUICK TIME

“Gorgeous” George Wagner took two out of three falls in the main event of last night’s wrestling card at Medford armory to even the score with Tony Morelli before a near-capacity crowd.

Morelli attacked Wagner as “Gorgeous” George was folding his beautiful white satin robe and the bitter rivals went after each other without benefit of the bell. Morelli came up with the first spill in the opening round.

They didn’t wait for the bell to start the second canto either. Referee Earl Yoakley became entangled with the grapplers and Emil Westfall, one of the seconds, came into the ring and engaged Morelli in a brief, impromptu slugfest while Yoakley was getting out of the scramble. Wagner, using fists to Morelli’s jaw, felled him for a body press and repeated the maneuver in the third round when he made Morelli miss three Sonnenburgs.

Paavo Katonen took the measure of “Sneeze” Achieu two falls to one in the semi-windup.

In the first match, Antone Leone and Georges Dusette went to a draw. Dusette gained his fall when he wrapped his towel around Leone’s neck and threw him about the ring.

Dick Boatwright, Medford, was lucky to get a no-fall draw with Otis Mackie, Trail logger, in a special event. Mackie had the better of the bout all the way but lacked strength to pin Boatwright.

SOLONS WALLOP OAKS 12 TO 1; SAN DIEGO WINS

By United Press
Only two games were played in the Pacific Coast League again last night as continuing rain in the northwest prevented San Francisco - Seattle and Los Angeles - Portland from getting started on their series.

Sacramento took a 12-1 win over Oakland after two straight defeats, while San Diego made it two out of three against Hollywood by pounding four Twink pitchers for a 16-2 decision.

Jo-Jo White, veteran outfielder, paced Sacramento’s triumph with six hits, including two doubles, in as many trips to the plate. The Solons hopped on Jack Lotz for five runs in the opening inning. Lotz was battered for 10 runs and 13 hits before Manager Dolph Camilli lifted him in the fifth. Norm Deeweese homered for the only Oakland tally.

If the current rains continue the best place to fish this coming week-end will probably be the living room gold fish bowl although Al Piche, who furnishes this column with his prognostications each week, says there will be some good spots.

Salmon fishing is still slow in Rogue river, Piche says, but is expected to get better due to high water. Trout fishing is spotty with catches being made mostly on eggs; fly fishing is fair. Piche says the supply of flies is getting low and a definite shortage is foreseen in the next 30 days.

Little Butte and Big Butte creeks are too high for trout fishing although some fish can be caught in Little Butte from Lake Creek up stream, on eggs or spinner. M. Smith, Medford, caught 10 large trout on eggs in Little Butte, at Lake Creek, Wednesday in two hours.

Evans Creek has been good the past few days with flies, according to Piche. Bear Creek is good on worms or eggs, with several young anglers taking large steelhead on worms. German

Brown and Dolly Varden have been taken at Prospect Dam on worms with light leaders and size eight hooks getting best results.

Emigrant dam is still yielding many catfish from shore, where several large trout also have been taken. Best fishing is from a boat, however.

Fish Lake has been “on and off” all week but is expected to pick up with advent of warm weather. Trolling obtains best results. Dave Davis flashers and Pop Geer Tandem spinners are recommended.

The road to Diamond Lake is expected to be open opening day, May 30, and fishing is expected to be good. Salmon fishing at Gold Beach is about over although some good catches have been reported there this week.
