Permit Issued—Alfred Hagerly, 819 West Palm street, received a building permit yesterday from the office of the city superintendent to erect a garage and laundry room at a cost of $200.

Reames Home—Pvt. Thomas G. Reames, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reames, 27 Geneva street, arrived in Medford Wednesday on a delay-enroute from Ft. Sill, Okla., to Ft. Mason, San Francisco, Calif. Reames has been in the army a year and four months and is with the artillery. He will be in Medford until May 29.

Home From Hospital—L. O. Van Slyke, 916 West Tenth street, returned May 17 from Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, where he recently underwent surgery. He will remain at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Merritt of Ashland for a few days and will return to Medford the first of next week accompanied by Mrs. Van Slyke, who has been with her daughter for the past month.

Inducted—George E. Clark and Fred Prettyman were inducted into the army May 10 at Ft. Lewis, Washington through Jackson county board No. 2.

Sister Leaves—Mr. and Mrs. Al Dorris, San Jose, left Medford today after spending two days visiting with Mrs. Dorris' sister, Mrs. Amy Putnam, Central Point.

Miss Bertram Back—Miss Pat Bertram, 823 1/2 West 10th street, secretary to the city superintendent, returned to work today after being confined to her home the past three days because of illness.

Mrs. Gilbert Returns—Mrs. Van R. Gilbert, 135 North Holly street, returned to Medford yesterday after spending two weeks in Seattle visiting her son, Curtis Bonney, and his family. Mrs. Gilbert also spent a short time in Bremerton with relatives.

Books Needed—Medford residents were reminded today of the drive being staged by Medford branch of the American Association of University Women for books for Red Cross libraries overseas. Anyone having mystery stories, light novels, biographies or other books suitable for a servicemen's library is urged to take the copies to the health department in the courthouse, from where they will be shipped. The office will not be open Saturday afternoon.

Announce Adjustments—Industrial users of fats and oils are eligible for adjustments on red points under the new rationing ruling which raised the point values of lard, shortening, cooking and salad oils, according to a release from the Office of Price Administration, Portland. Applications for second quarter adjustments should be made in writing to the district OPA food rationing division, Bedell building, Portland, between May 15 and June 5, the release states.

Mrs. Brayton Here—Mrs. Ann Brayton of Spokane is visiting in the city at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brayton, 314 Vancouver avenue.

Court Tonight—Medford Girl Scouts will hold a court of awards tonight at the Lincoln school gymnasium, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Parents and friends are invited to attend the ceremony.

In Hospital—Mrs. Lottie Daniels returned to the Sacred Heart hospital today after a two months visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. N. Evans, who has been in Medford from her home in Philadelphia, Penn. The ladies have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hull, 517 South Grape street.

Fire Calls—Firemen answered a call this morning from the home of Leevi Lee, 212 North Bartlett street, and extinguished a flue fire. It was reported today. No damage was reported. Another run was made last night to the home of C. A. Richmond, 413 North Hill street. According to firemen no damage was listed.

Wood Home—Pfc. Frederick C. Wood is home in Medford visiting his wife, Ethel, at the family home. Ideal Court apartments. Wood is on 30 days convalescent leave after returning from Italy May 3. He served with the 363rd regiment of the 91st division while overseas. He will report to Mitchell convalescent hospital, Camp Lockett, Calif.

Cars Collide—A wreck involving a car operated by Hugh Wright, Trail, and a truck driven by Carl Dilley, occurred yesterday at the Central avenue and Main street intersection, local police reported today. Two children in the cab on Dilley's truck were thrown out of the vehicle and received scratches, the report said. Amount of damage to the vehicles was not listed.

In Medford—Emma Jane Brewer, Y2-c, and Pvt. John R. Brewer are in Medford visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brewer, 307 Laurel street. Miss Brewer is stationed with the Waves in San Francisco, and Pvt. Brewer is stationed at Hammond General Hospital, Modesto, Calif. Also visiting at the Brewer home is Miss Patty Lee Carroun, who is here for the week-end from San Francisco.
