New York, May 19 — (U.P.) — Pennant hopes of the Detroit Tigers were in the hands of Trainer Ray Forsyth tonight as he worked on a pulled muscle in the side of Dizzy Trout, who was the last pitcher in the first game of a doubleheader which Detroit split with Washington. Lefty Hal Newhouser won the nightcap, 3 to 0, on six-hit pitching and fancy hitting. The last-place Cleveland Indians made a spirited bid to get out of the American League cellar, trimming seventh-place Philadelphia twice, 4 to 0 and 2 to 1.

Manager Jimmy Dykes of the league-leading Chicago White Sox, came up with another starting—and finishing—pitcher as the Sox strengthened their hold on first place with a 3 to 2 triumph over Boston.

LEONE, MORELLI GO SOUGHT HERE

Medford wrestling fans have been asking Promoter Mack Lillard the past few days to match Tony Morelli with Antone Leone, the gorilla-like tough guy from Oyster Bay, N. Y., for next Thursday's main event at Medford armory. Lillard said yesterday he was unable to contact Leone regarding terms, but Morelli was agreeable to the proposition.

Morelli said he would also like a rubber match with "Gorgeous" George Wagner, the Eugene turkey grower, to settle accounts for their last two matches when each won a decision. Kenny Ackles, the Hollywood wonder boy, may be able to break away from northwest commitments long enough to be on Thursday's card, Lillard said.
