

Society and Clubs

85th Anniversary Observed Friday By Mrs. Holloway

Mrs. Mary Holloway, who celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary Friday, was honored that afternoon at a tea given by her daughters, Mrs. James Fleming, 311 Laurel street, and Mrs. William H. Gerretsen, Roseburg. The affair was at the Fleming home.

The tea table was attractively decorated with a centerpiece of pink sweetpeas and pink tapers and other table appointments were in pink and white. Refreshments included the traditional birthday cake.

Pouring were Mrs. Clarence Meeker and Mrs. Clarence Pankey. About 35 friends called during the afternoon and in addition Mrs. Holloway received a number of messages from relatives and friends.

Mrs. Holloway, a native of Lincolnshire, England, came to America 56 years ago and has resided in Medford for more than 15 years, coming here from Brownsville, Ore. In June of 1939 Mrs. Holloway and her husband, the late Charles Holloway, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Holloway's death taking place about six months later. In addition to Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Gerretsen, Mrs. Holloway has two other children, Mrs. Dale Sturges of Portland and William A. Holloway of Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Holloway was especially honored during Mother's Day celebrations here, having been the oldest mother present at three different functions given last week and on Sunday.

P.E.O. Chapter Birthday Party Is Held Tuesday

Chapter BE of the P.E.O. sisterhood observed the ninth anniversary of its organization at a birthday party held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson Boulevard. Mrs. R. G. Fowler reviewed the many activities of the chapter and a birthday cake was served during the social hour.

It was announced during the meeting that Miss Annette Gray's braille transcription of the book "Golden Slipper" by Arna Wendell Bontemp had been accepted by the library of congress as a valued addition to its collection. Miss Gray is now engaged in making another of the transcriptions.

Mrs. L. C. Taylor, president of the chapter, was elected delegate to the annual state meeting which will be held June 21 and 22 in Portland.

Party Is Planned For Tuesday Eve St. Mark's Guild

Women of St. Mark's Episcopal church Evening Guild are making plans for a benefit card party which will be given the evening of May 23, Wednesday. The affair will be in the Episcopal parish house on North Oakdale avenue, beginning at eight o'clock, and both bridge and pinocle will be played, with prizes for both games.

Mrs. Paul Selby, president of the guild, is general chairman in charge of the party.

Medford Zontians Plan Installation

Installation of women who will hold office the coming year will be held Tuesday evening by Medford Zonta club. The ceremony will be at the home of Mrs. Thora Lawrence, 2218 East Main street, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A social hour and refreshments will close the evening, with Mrs. Effie Kurtz, Mrs. Jacque Lenox and Mrs. Winnifred Mack serving on the hostess committee.

Mrs. Orville Miles Is Visitor in City
Mrs. Orville Miles, Walthill, Neb., is visiting in the city at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alberta McVeigh, 99 Motel.

Mrs. Royal Clare Is Honored Guest At Bridge Party

Mrs. Royal Clare, who is leaving in the near future to reside in Portland, was complimented at a dessert and bridge party Friday evening. The affair was at the home of Mrs. Zane Komler, 822 Minnesota avenue, with Mrs. Glenn Harrison and Mrs. Frank Humphrey as co-hostesses.

A Mexican theme was carried out in table and room appointments and for prizes. Mrs. Clare was presented a gift from the group and a booklet containing small pictures of each guest and several lines of verse written by Mrs. Charles Warner.

Mrs. Wilton White held high honors at cards, Mrs. A. J. Loeffler, second high, Mrs. Wade Stuart, third and Mrs. Warner, low. Other prizes went to Mrs. B. C. Taylor, Mrs. Gordon Gilmore and Mrs. Hal Johnson. Twenty-four guests were in attendance.

Mrs. Clare and two small children, Jack and Judy, will leave May 29 for Portland. Mr. Clare, former district manager of the Zellerbach Paper company here, is now on the Portland staff of that firm. The Clares will reside in Portland at 2524 N. E. 35th avenue.

Medford Student Is Named Winner Of Honor Award

Miss Alpha Whillock, Medford student at Oregon State college, has been named winner of the Lipman Wolfe honor award for sophomores. The award is based on scholarship, qualities of womanhood, leadership, unselfishness and kindness and contributions to campus welfare. Miss Whillock, completing her sophomore year at the college, is a daughter of Mrs. Edith Whillock, 1003 West Main street, and is spending the week-end in Medford at her home.

The Medford student has recently received other honors at the school, having recently been elected vice-president of Associated Women students and having been pledged to Euterpe and Phi Chi Theta, honor societies of the school. She graduated from Medford senior high school in 1940.

Wednesday Club Holds Election At Brown Home

Mrs. C. A. Renken is the new president of Medford Wednesday Study club, having been elected at a luncheon meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. H. L. Brown, 105 Geneva street. This was the final meeting of the season.

Mrs. Clarence Meeker was named vice-president, Mrs. Orel Welsh, secretary, and Mrs. F. E. Nichols, treasurer.

A review of the year's activities was given by Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, retiring president of the group.

Hostess Dinner Is Held Monday At Church Center

MarKade hostesses held a mother and daughter dinner at the recreation center Monday evening last week, with about 40 in attendance. Miss Jean Coffin was general chairman in charge of arrangements and Miss Jeanette Tjolkner had arranged the program for the evening.

The Rev. George R. Turney, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, spoke briefly on the purpose of the MarKade and Mrs. Ruth Boyd, director of the center, also spoke. Entertainment was furnished by Miss Elaine Sutherland, Ashland, who sang a group of songs, and by Miss Dolores Morris, who gave accordion numbers.

Returns From Seattle
Mrs. Leroy Williams, 1126 West Tenth street, returned yesterday from Seattle, Wash., where she attended the wedding of her brother, Forest Spears, to Miss Viola Brink.

Medford Woman Elected Officer Of Oregon AAUW

Mrs. Robert Shepherd, Sagnaw Drive, is the newly elected secretary and treasurer of the Oregon division of the American Association of University Women. Announcement of new officers was made last week following count of a mail vote of the 22 Oregon branches, the state convention having been cancelled due to war conditions.

Mrs. C. D. Winston of Corvallis is the new state president and Mrs. John Burcham of Salem is vice-president. Mrs. Winston, who has served as assistant dean of Oregon State college, has served as radio chairman of the state division for several years.

The new secretary and treasurer for the state has served one term as president and one as secretary of the Medford branch and is just completing a year as chairman of the arts study group of the branch. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Young Folk Hold Gala May Dance At Club Saturday

Members of the younger set spent an enjoyable evening at the annual junior high May dance which was held Saturday at the "Y" club rooms. Members of the Torch club were in charge of the juke box, door admissions and refreshments. Hall decorations, under the direction of Bob Shangle, were yellow and blue. Other committee chairmen were Nancy Newberry, advertising; Jerry Lausmann, tickets; Mary Sue Green, entertainment; Mary Adams, serving; and Lloyd Timmons, host.

Patrons and patronesses for the event were Mrs. A. A. Lausmann, Mrs. Clayton W. Lewis, E. C. Conn, Mr. and Mrs. Timmons, Ray Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Maddox, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Schmidt.

CALENDAR

Monday
2:30 p. m.—Women's interdenominational cottage prayer meeting, home of Mrs. Taylor, 220 1/2 Laurel street.

8:00 p. m.—Olive Rebekah lodge, at I.O.O.F. hall, 221 West Sixth street. Jessie Howard, entertainment chairman; Ethel Weed, refreshment chairman.

8:00 p. m.—Pythian club, home of Mrs. William Swartz, 121 Geneva street.

8:00 p. m.—Medford Musical society, home of Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Siskiyou Heights.

Tuesday
12:30 p. m.—Medford Kiwanian Dames, Hotel Holland, no-hostess luncheon.

1:30 p. m.—Service club, USWV auxiliary, home of Mrs. E. W. Hoffman, Jacksonville highway, desert.

2:00 p. m.—Ladies' auxiliary, First Baptist church, at church for monthly meeting. Hostesses, Mesdames Stenerson, Van Cleave, Gover and Edna Bryant; program, Mesdames Lester and Dawes.

2:00 p. m.—W.S.C.S., Methodist church at church parlors.

6:00 p. m.—Wives of Shriners, potluck dinner at home of Mrs. M. M. Morris, Kings' highway. Bring service.

7:30 p. m.—Rogue Valley chorus, practice at high school.

Iowa Couple Visitors At Home of Brother

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Nichols of Esterville, Ia., left Medford last week after a visit with Mr. Nichol's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Nichols, 622 South Holly street. The visitors came here from California and are returning home by way of Washington and other northern states.

VOTE

FOR ABOLISHING WASH DAYS THE AMERICAN LAUNDRY WAY

Sure, everyone is in favor of this new measure to eliminate tiresome Blue Mondays and wash days blues. Everyone is in favor of more time to enjoy your home—more time for war work and to devote to the family. Your neighbors are in favor of the American Laundry plan of having shorter hours of home work—why not you?

BUY WAR BONDS

Carmen Wright Elected Queen Job's Daughters

Miss Carmen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, 60 North Orange street, was elected honored queen of Job's Daughters, Medford Bethel No. 14, at the regular meeting Wednesday evening at the Masonic Temple. A special guest for the meeting was Mrs. Bernice Britton, grand guardian of Oregon, who installed council members for the Bethel.

Also elected to office were Miss Jean Zacharisen, senior princess; Miss Marjorie Thompson, junior princess; Miss Marjorie Hammond, guide; Miss Pat Older, marshal. Miss Nancy Swem is the retiring queen.

Council members installed were Mrs. W. H. Holt, guardian; L. P. Older, associate guardian; Mrs. E. P. Merrick, secretary; Mrs. Virginia Wait, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence Winetrot, paraphernalia chairman; Mrs. A. A. Seekatz, director of music; Mrs. Arnel Butler, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Scott Davis, sociability chairman.

During the meeting plans were made for the annual queen's ball to be held soon and for installation of officers.

Business Women Elect Officers At Last Meeting

Laura York was elected president of the Medford Business and Professional Women's club at the regular meeting held Thursday evening at the Girls' Community club. She succeeds Maurine Conger.

Other officers named were Ethel Tennant, first vice-president; Lulu Watson, second vice-president; Lucille Lenox, recording secretary; Marjorie Hopkins, corresponding secretary; Annabelle Riggs, treasurer; Mary Snider, auditor; Marian Farrell, program coordinator; Maurine Conger and Mildred Drury, directors.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Dolph Phipps who spoke on the Dumbarton Oaks proposals for a United Nations organization and their relationship to the San Francisco conference. She was introduced by Mildred Drury, legislative chairman. Duane Carole Maddox sang two numbers, accompanied by her mother, Aileen Maddox.

Refreshments were served by Mildred Drury, Aileen Maddox, Jack McCullough, Lunetta Bussey and Kathryn Larison.

W.S.C.S. Program To Observe Week

In observance of National Family Week, the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will present a program on "the sanctity of the Christian Home" at the meeting scheduled for Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Althea Lofland, who at one time lived in Chile while a member of the Methodist mission board, will speak and two exhibits from foreign countries will be on display.

Miss Gladys Bond has arranged the program and Mrs. I. N. McCollom will present devotions. Members of the Queen Esther circle will serve as hostesses for the tea hour.

Annual Meeting Voters' League Held Saturday

Jackson County League of Women Voters reviewed the year's activities and held election of officers at the 1945 annual meeting May 12 at the Girls' Community club. A tea followed the business session.

During election Mrs. Stephen Nye, Jr., was named first vice-president, Mrs. Frank Humphrey, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Paul Janney was re-elected treasurer. Mrs. Justin Smith serves another year as president and Mrs. Eugene Thorndike as second vice-president. Mrs. George B. Dean was recently appointed recording secretary.

A round-table discussion of the Dumbarton Oaks proposals for a United Nations organization and recent events at the world security conference in San Francisco was held, with Mrs. Smith acting as moderator and Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Mrs. Dolph Phipps, Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter participating. The county league has laid great stress in recent weeks on a campaign to inform citizens of the proposed United Nations' report.

Among the yearly reports given were those by Mrs. Smith, who summarized the year; Mrs. Walter Inch, education chairman; Mrs. A. W. Aya, who spoke on a proposed revision of the national by-laws; and Mrs. Janney, and Mrs. C. Reese Braley who gave financial reports.

During the tea hour members of the board acted as hostesses and Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Aya poured.

Kiwanian Dames To Meet Tuesday

Ben Schmidt, secretary of the Medford Y.M.C.A., will be guest speaker for the meeting of the Kiwanian Dames scheduled for the Holland Hotel Tuesday. This is to be the last meeting of the current season and will be a no-hostess luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. L. A. McCormick and Mrs. Victor Milnes will be in charge of luncheon arrangements.

Musical Society To Hear Students Monday Evening

High school music students will present a program of modern music for the May meeting of the Medford Musical society set for Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Siskiyou Heights, at eight o'clock.

Presenting numbers will be the mixed chorus of 30 voices, the girls' sextet and mixed quartet, while vocal solos will be given by Miss June Williams and Carl Winklebleck. Miss Mabel Nansen, supervisor of public school music, will direct the numbers and comment on each. Mrs. John Day is program chairman for the evening and Mrs. Hogan's assisting hostesses will be Mrs. M. T. Wray and Mrs. Curtis Jester.

Tea Given Friday For Junior Girls

Eighth and ninth grade junior high school girls were guests at a tea held in the Y.M.C.A. club rooms Friday afternoon. During the afternoon Ben Schmidt, secretary of the association, spoke on the aims and purposes of the Tri-Y club.

BEAUTY SCHOOL SPECIALS

Permanent Wave
$3.00 $4.00
$5.00 $6.00
$8.00 $10.00

COLD WAVE
$10.

Shampoo 50¢ and Hair Style 50¢

MEDFORD SCHOOL OF BEAUTY CULTURE
235 E. Main

The Apostolic Faith Church

Services: Sunday, 11 A.M., 3 P.M., and 7:45 P.M.
Tuesday and Friday, 8 P.M.

Special Music Sunday Evening by Organist, Orchestra, and Choir

This old World Needs A Song . . . A Light . . . and a Prayer.

"The Church Without a Collection Plate"

INCIDENTALLY it's a BENTLEY!

STRICTLY SOLID
Three rousing cheers for our pet JUNE BENTLEY JUNIOR for hot weather days! It's a slick sanforized chambray job . . . frostily edged with super-wide luscious eyelot batiste. The skirt is dirndl, the neckline is square . . . and so are the wonderfully roomy pockets. Plus of course . . . the new cap shoulder. In striped or plain NO-Fade Chambray . . . Sand, Rose Meuve, Blue, Brown or Green. Junior sizes 9 to 15. $9.95

M. M. DEPARTMENT STORE
PAY LESS AND DRESS BETTER

Mrs. Bert R. Elliott assisted which had been decorated with Mrs. Schmidt at the tea table, spring flowers.

ADRIENNE'S

The less you wear . . . the better dressed you are for the beach . . . that's what fashion says for Summer. These little two-pieceers are as comfortable and seaworthy as they are eye-catching. We've a fine selection.

Made by Cole of Calif. and Catalina Knitting Mills Exclusively!

ADRIENNE'S

Hey Mom!

Lol's Be Sure To Get Those

FATHER'S DAY
Photos Early!
DAD WILL LOVE TO GET OUR PHOTOGRAPHS!

Father's Day is June 17—it isn't a bit too early to have family photos taken—the grandest gift of all for any Dad. We have the very latest Hollywood lighting techniques to assure the finest photos for any member of your family. Be sure to give Dad the gift he wants most when "His" day arrives!

Hollywood Make-Up Special Light

Evergreen STUDIOS
"PORTRAITS OF DISTINCTION"

40 South Central Across from Criterion Theatre
Phone 2069 . . . Medford

Open Monday Through Friday, 9:30 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Saturdays, 10:30 A. M. to 7:30 P. M.

GROCETERIA

Number 1
Sixth and Central

OPEN TODAY

9 a. m. to 7 p. m.