

Regional Director
Red Cross Corps
To Visit County

Miss Jane Mulcahy, acting regional director of Red Cross Home Service Corps for Oregon, will visit the Jackson county chapter, May 21 and 22.

Mrs. Harry Holmes, chairman of Home Service, will be hostess Monday at a luncheon meeting for Miss Mulcahy at the Medford Hotel. Attending will be Red Cross officials, staff and corps chairman of Home Service. On Tuesday, Miss Mulcahy will interview applicants for the Home Service corps in the Home Service office from 1 to 2 p. m. From 2 to 4 p. m., Miss Mulcahy will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Home Service committee and corps members.

"Despite the decrease in the number of servicemen at Camp White, the demands of the Home Service department in Jackson County have not decreased appreciably," according to Miss Lillian Roberts, Home Service secretary. "Family problems of the servicemen are augmented by their continued absence overseas, inquiry service, welfare reports, problems of the returning veteran and council for the family of a deceased veteran will keep the Home Service department busy for some time to come."

A Home Service meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, corps captain, Saturday

"Music For Millions" Showing

"Music for Millions" now playing at the Craterian theatre through Tuesday, will provide fun and thorough-going enjoyment for many local movie fans. Starring Margaret O'Brien and Jimmy Durante, "Music for Millions" is a heart-warming comedy with music. It relates how a little girl, played by Margaret O'Brien, comes to the city to stay with her big sister (Miss Allyson) and proceeds to become part-and-parcel not only of the lives of her sister and the latter's fellow (or girl) musicians in Iturb's symphony orchestra, but of Iturbi himself and Jimmy Durante, the band's business manager. Added are the comedy antics of Hugh Herbert and Marie Wilson, the harmonica playing of Larry Adler and the serious acting support of Marsha Hunt.

in preparation for Miss Mulcahy's visit on Monday.
