

Angels Take 4-2 Series From Portland Beavers

(By United Press)

The Los Angeles Angels were finally showing signs today of backing up the experts who tabbed them as the club to beat for the Pacific Coast league championship.

The Angels now are in fifth place, eight games from the top, but they gave their followers every reason to be optimistic when they scored five runs in the ninth inning last night to edge out the leading Portland Beavers, 9 to 8. The big blow was Pinch Hitter Johnny Moore's homer with the bases loaded. The Angels took the abbreviated series by a 4-2 margin and expect to continue the pace tonight when they move into the domain of the Seattle Rainiers.

The San Francisco Seals remained anchored in seventh place by splitting a twin bill with Seattle. The Rainiers took the opener, 9-4, but Lefty O'Doul's men annexed the night-cap, 3-1.

Seattle won the series, four games to two. The Seals engaged Portland the rest of the week.

Other series opening tonight find San Diego at Oakland and Sacramento at Hollywood.

DONNELLY SHUTS OUT BROOKLYN; GIANTS BEATEN

SCORES YESTERDAY National

St. Louis, 4; Brooklyn, 0.
Pittsburgh, 5; New York 2.

New York, May 22—(U.P.)—Sylvester (Blix) Donnelly lacks four inches and 34 pounds of matching Morton Cooper's height and bulk, but he gave convincing evidence today that he may be able to step into the big fellow's shoes on the St. Louis Cardinal pitching staff.

The little man from Olivia, Minn., had been a major disappointment to Manager Billy Southworth until he stepped out last night and handed the Brooklyn Dodgers a 4 to 0 beating on their own grounds.

That victory, coming at the end of one of the shakiest Cardinal road trips in years, may be the morale-lifter the team needs to get back into the pennant picture.

Ernie Lombardi's two homers weren't enough to start the New York Giants off with a victory in the first stop on their road trip at Pittsburgh but they deprived Max Butcher of a shut-out and he had to settle for a 5 to 2 victory.

The Pirates gave Butcher a three-run working margin in the first inning, Jack Barrett's triple and Tommy O'Brien's double producing the runs. Butcher gave up only four hits, but the two by Lombardi were tremendous blows over the long field fence, putting him in the major league home run lead with nine. It was Butcher's third victory.

There were no other major league games scheduled.

EUGENE TO PLAY BLACK TORNADO

The 1945 edition of Medford school football team will play Eugene there October 5, Coach Al Simpson announced today. In order to make way for the date it was necessary to move the Eureka game to October 12, Simpson said. Signing of Eugene now gives Medford four games at home and four away.

The season will open against Albany here September 21 and the Black Tornado will travel to Coos Bay September 28. Next comes the Eugene date, followed by Eureka here. Klamath Falls will be played there October 19 in the first game of the Southern Oregon conference. The Tornado plays Grants Pass there October 26, also a conference game. Bend comes here November 2. Ashland will wind up Medford's season in a conference clash here November 9.

SIX TEAMS FORM BASEBALL LEAGUE

Definite formation of a Southern Oregon baseball league was made at a meeting held here last night, Medford Crater Manager Paul Freer said today. There will be six teams entered with league play scheduled to begin June 3. Teams making up the league will represent Butte Falls, Gold Hill, Klamath Falls Navy, Klamath Falls Marines, Central Point and Medford.

A tentative schedule for first week of play pits Marines against Navy, Butte Falls at Gold Hill and Central Point at Medford. A schedule for the season is now being drawn up, Freer said.
