News From Jackson County for Men in the Armed Services

The Mail Tribune suggests you clip and mail this news roundup to a relative or friend in service.

Dear _____
 Date _____

Every day of the past week has brought the good news of the approach of a homecoming of some former prisoner-of-war. In recent days word has come from Sgt. Ray Casebeer, Lt. Alvin Gould, Lt. James E. Curtis, Pfc. Ralph Gilmore, Lt. Don Applegate, Pfc. Clarence P. Nelson, Lt. Boyd P. Bellamy, Staff Sgt. Richard K. DeMers; S. Sgt. Cecil R. Clafin and Pfc. Wilbur Austin. Most of these are men who had served in the air corps and some of them, including Lt. Applegate and Lt. Gould, had been prisoners for more than a year.

Lt. George Rohrer, whose colorful army service included the Pearl Harbor attack and escape through the underground when he was shot down over Greece, is to be discharged soon. In recent months he has been serving as an instructor at Carlsbad, N. M. Lt. Rohrer wears many ribbons and decorations, including battle stars and the silver star.

Two promotions to captain were in the news this week. Francis B. Schuler, with the 120th General Hospital unit in the Philippines has been made a captain and Lawrence Pick, serving with the Eighth air force in England as navigator on a B-24, has also been promoted to that rank. Frank J. Brown has been promoted to radioman first class. He has served on a destroyer for the past three years.

Captain Francis C. Ayres, with the 440th anti-aircraft battalion in Europe for the past 18 months, now wears the bronze star medal and Pfc. Earl W. Read, with the 8th armored division in Germany, has been awarded the combat infantryman's badge.

Relatives have been informed of the death of Pfc. Warren R. McManus in Germany and Alvin A. Van Curler of Ashland died April 28 of wounds received in action on Okinawa. Pvt. Royce Pruitt, also serving on Okinawa, was wounded and is now hospitalized on a Mariana Island. Sgt. Fayette Shelledy has been declared missing in action in the European theater.

VE Day was celebrated in Hawaii by Roy Russell, SC3c, of the Seabees, and Dick Trullinger, who met that day for the first time in two years. The two planned another get-together when they will visit Dean Davis, stationed at an advance base hospital in Hawaii.

T. Sgt. Delmar Wright, who served 25 months in the South Pacific, is now a patient at McCaw hospital in Walla Walla. Also at McCaw is Pfc. Joseph Zamrzla, who served eight months in Europe and wears the purple heart and bronze star medals.

Donald Waggoner, now stationed at Treasure Island after nine months duty in the Philippines, is home on leave and Flight Officer Harper Hamilton has left after a brief leave here. He and his parents also visited his brother, Robert M. Hamilton, army air corps was announced last week.

MOTHER RECEIVES DETAILS OF DEATH

Details of the death of Pfc. Henry Cheadle, reported killed in action on Luzon, have been received by his mother, Mrs. Ruby Cheadle, 448 North Front street. Pfc. Cheadle was posthumously awarded the purple heart and silver star medals.

A letter from one of Pfc. Cheadle's officers during the attack on the city of Binatongan and that he had been buried in the USAF cemetery No. 1 at San Fabian. "Henry was a fine soldier and was well liked by all who were fortunate enough to come in contact with him," the letter read. "He was a 'bazooka' man in the first platoon and met death when he crawled forward to destroy an enemy tank that was subjecting his platoon to heavy machine gun fire.

"His absence in this company is felt by both officers and men who join with me in this expression of deepest sympathy." Pfc. Cheadle left Medford with Company A of the National Guard and had been overseas the time of his death he was serving with the 161st regiment.

TALENT PARENTS HEAR SON KILLED

Relatives of Pfc. Holland Bell of the army engineers have been informed that the young man died of wounds received on Kerama in the South Pacific on April 2. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bell, Talent. Another son of the Bells, Cpl. Virgil A. Bell of the army, was killed in action on New Guinea September 8, 1943.

Pfc. Bell, 20, was born in Klamath Falls Sept. 28, 1924, and was a graduate of the Klamath Union high school with the class of 1942. At the time of his induction he was an employee of the Southern Pacific railroad. The young man is survived by his wife, LaRayne, Klamath Falls; his parents, and two brothers, Staff Sgt. Calvin Bell with the army in Italy and Clarence Bell of Klamath Falls and one sister, Mrs. L. G. Logan of Klamath Falls.

Bellview Students Visit Businesses

Seventh and eighth grade students of the Bellview school, near Ashland, visited business places in Medford and Jacksonville today. Accompanied by their teacher, Miss Lola E. Talbot, they visited Medford airport, U. S. Weather bureau, Fluhrer's bakery, the county jail and Medford Mail Tribune in Medford. In Jacksonville they visited the museum and other places of historical interest. Those making the trip were
