

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Daughters To Meet—Daughters of Union Veterans are urged to attend an important business meeting tonight at the armory at 8 p. m.

Leave For South—Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Newland, 842 East Main street, left today for San Francisco, Calif. They expect to return at the end of a 10-day visit in the city.

To Los Angeles—Mrs. Elsie Narreagan, 621 East Main street, will leave by plane Sunday for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will spend a week buying wearing apparel for Mann's store.

Picnic Planned—A community picnic will be held at the Oak Grove school Sunday, starting at 10:30 a. m. Those attending are asked to bring a basket lunch. Coffee will be furnished.

Permit Issued—Col. W. C. Weeks, 136 Willamette avenue, received a permit from the office of the city superintendent's office yesterday to erect an addition to a residence at a cost of $800.

Announce Meeting—A special meeting of the auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 2093, will be held Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at the hall, 217 West Main street, it was announced today. There will be balloting and initiation of candidates.

Change Festival Hour—Committees in charge of the Townsend club carnival and festival to be held tonight at the K. of P. hall stated this morning that the affair will open at 6:30 p. m. rather than at 8 o'clock as announced yesterday. Food will be served from a number of booths and later there will be entertainment and amusement features in the traditional carnival style. There will also be music for dancing. The general public is invited to attend.

Make Announcement—Officers of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church announced this morning that if the weather is not fair this evening, the weiner roast will be held at the church instead of outdoors. The affair is planned for 6:30 p. m.

Promoted—Capt. Charles Ord Reed has been promoted to the rank of major according to word received by friends recently. The officer is stationed at Camp McQuaide, Calif., and has been in service since the National Guard reported for active duty. The captain's family is with him at Camp McQuaide.

Promoted—Rufus Younger, stationed in the Pacific area with a Seabee special battalion, has been promoted to electrician's mate first class, according to information received by relatives. Younger has been overseas for 27 months. His wife and daughter, Ann, reside on the Jacksonville Highway and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Younger, at 611 West Eighth street.

Corps To Meet—Capt. Robert Sletter will speak at a meeting of the Red Cross Nurses Aide corps tonight at the Outpost at 8 p. m. Capt. Sletter, who spent about three years in the South Pacific with the army medical corps, will speak on some phases of the psychology of the returning veteran. Any member of the medical profession is welcome to attend, corps officers state.

Train Guards—District fire guards of the Rogue River National Forest service are attending a training school at Union Creek today and Saturday. Karl Janouch, supervisor; R. L. Mercer, assistant supervisor; and M. L. Tedrow, fire chief, are conducting the meeting. The annual training school for guards and lookouts will begin June 4 after which the men will be assigned to their stations.

Agent Leaves—L. P. Wilsey, Portland, regional fiscal agent of the National Forest service, left Medford yesterday after spending 10 days at the office of the Rogue River National Forest service making the regular office inspection.

Troxell Home—Delbert Vern Troxell, CM3/c, arrived home yesterday and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Troxell, South Peach street. Troxell is just back from action with the navy near Okinawa. He will leave May 31 to report back to San Francisco, Calif.

Fire Calls—Firemen answered a call yesterday to extinguish a grass fire at the corner of Riverside avenue and Alice street. No damage was reported. Another run was made to Littrell Parts company today to extinguish a fire in an electric motor. According to firemen, the motor was damaged considerably.

To Attend Service—Members of the Medford Navy Mothers' club are asked to meet at St. Mark's Episcopal church Sunday, May 27, at 10:40 a. m. to attend the Memorial service. Officers urge a large attendance. Members of the club are also reminded that the club is to serve at the USO Sunday evening and those providing food are to have it at the center at 4:30 p. m.

Honorable Discharge To Sgt. Earl Jones

Earl A. Jones, former sergeant with the army paratroopers, received an honorable discharge from the army May 9 at McCaw general hospital, Walla, Walla, Wash., and is now at his home, 227 South Holly street. Jones received the purple heart, the bronze star and the combat infantryman's badge while in service. Sgt. Jones participated in the Sicilian, Naples Foggia, Rome Arno and the German campaigns. After being wounded in action in Holland he was returned to the United States. His wife resides at the home address and his father, Joseph P. Jones, will return to Medford soon from Salem, Ore.

Soldier Buys War Bonds For Campaign

Harvard Army Air Field, Neb., (UP) — M/Sgt. James G. Hodys not only helps to pass the ammunition, but he also lays down a good sum of money annually to buy it. The sergeant, who enlisted 20 years before Pearl Harbor, has bought $2,000 of war bonds each year for four years. The 42-year-old soldier said he expects to be sent overseas and he buys bonds to back his own campaign. Hodys was a mechanic and crew chief in Rickenbacker's Hat-in-the-Ring outfit for six years — the 94th Pursuit Squadron at Selridge Field, Mich.
