

OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY TO FEATURE PARADE

Final plans will be completed early next week for the annual observance of Memorial Day in Medford. The observance program begins today with the annual memorial church service at St. Mark's Episcopal church at 11 a. m., and the traditional parade and program will be given Wednesday. Plans are in charge of Col. W. H. Paine, Victor Robb, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Harry A. Young, commander of the American Legion.

The parade is to form at the city park at 10 a. m., and will proceed to the Bear Creek bridge where a service to honor navy dead will be held. In the line of march will be representatives of the various civic and veteran organizations of the city and men of the 752nd Military Police battalion, Camp White, commanded by Lt. Col. William M. Vance.

At the bridge Girl Scouts will scatter flowers on the waters of Bear Creek, a member of the Daughters of Union Veterans will give a memorial reading and the parade will return to the park.

After disbanding of the parade the traditional program will be held in the park, with opening selections by the high school band. Daughters of Union Veterans will read the orders of the day and Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" by Bill Hedrick. The ceremony of the decoration of the chairs in honor of the dead will follow, with about 20 groups taking part and an address and band music will terminate the program. Prayers will be offered by the Rev. George Coulter, both at the bridge and at the park service.

From Camp White it was stated that in addition to participating in the parade here, men from the camp will also participate in celebrations at Central Point and Ashland. Attending these will be personnel from headquarters of the 1913 SCU at the camp.
