

Society and Clubs

Baldwin-Harrell Rites Take Place Monday Evening

Among last week's weddings was that of Miss Alta Elaine Baldwin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baldwin, 708 Narrengan street, to Pfc. James Fayette Harrell. The rites took place Monday at 6:30 o'clock in the evening at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Frost with the Rev. Frost, pastor of the Apostolic Faith church, reading the service.

The bride's gown was the traditional white satin made with a lace bodice and worn with a fingertip length veil. Her bridesmaid, Miss Orelia Jones, was gowned in blue chiffon and carried a nosegay of roses and carnations.

Best man for Pfc. Harrell was Paul Leslie Andrews. Miss Naomi Frost played Lohengrin's wedding march and Mrs. Martin Girard sang.

The reception which followed the wedding was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, 701 North Riverside avenue. Wedding refreshments, including the traditional wedding cake, were served.

The bride, on the staff of the United States Employment Service here, is remaining in Medford and the groom has reported to the Klamath Falls marine barracks where he is stationed at present. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harrell, Portland, and recently returned to this country after a year's service in the South Pacific.

Mrs. Willis Keller, Dallas, Ore., twin sister of the bride, traveled to Medford for the wedding.

New Organization for Young Women Planned By Church

Decision to organize another circle was made at the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held Tuesday afternoon at the church parlors and presided over by Mrs. Harry Meyers. The new circle will be for the younger married women of the church.

It was announced that plans are being made for a "father and son" banquet which will be held at the church on the evening of June 8 and an invitation from Wesleyan Guild to attend a "rose tea" Sunday afternoon at the church was read.

"The Sanctity of the Christian Home" was the topic for the afternoon's program. Mrs. I. N. McCollom led devotions and the Mesdames C. H. Beery, W. H. Hill, Frank Fangers and F. S. Brandon gave short talks on India, China and Africa. Miss Gladys Bond, who had arranged the program, presented Mrs. Althea Lofland, guest speaker.

Mrs. Lofland spent several years in Chile on the faculty of the Methodist college at Santiago. Her descriptions of the country, people and customs were very interesting and instructive. Oil and water color paintings of the country, as well as many native-made articles were exhibited. Articles from China, India and Africa were also displayed.

Queen Esther circle members were hostesses and served refreshments.

Staff Assistants To Meet Thursday
A luncheon meeting of the Red Cross staff assistance corps will be held Thursday at the Medford Hotel, Mrs. John Day, chairman announces. Members are asked to be at the hotel at 12:15 p. m. following the Red Cross lecture at the courthouse auditorium.

Sunday School Class Meets at Carr Home
A sewing meeting was held Wednesday by members of Loyal Women's Sunday school class of the First Christian church at the home of Mrs. Mabel Carr, 403 Benson street. A covered dish lunch was served at noon. Eighteen members were present.

Local Pocahontas Entertains Heads California Lodge

Four state officers of the Pocahontas lodge from California were honored by the Medford lodge when they visited the city Friday. Included in the group were Mrs. Ruby Rogers, Great Pocahontas; Mrs. Katherine Keating, Great Second Scout; Miss Marie Puts, Great Guard of the Tepee and Mrs. Erma Cresci, Deputy Great Pocahontas.

The visitors attended a meeting of the Medford lodge Friday night and that afternoon were honored at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Stanley Morgan, 212 South Orange street. Also honored at the evening meeting were Deputy Great Inchoonee Velma Singler of the local Pocahontas lodge and Richard Singler, Deputy Great Inchoonee of the Redmen lodge.

Two charter members, Mrs. Norma Martin and Mrs. Ethel Hartle, were present for the meeting. Miss Helen Dooms, Pocahontas of the Medford lodge is a granddaughter of Mrs. Martin. Initiation was held for a class of candidates.

A social hour and refreshments followed the evening session, with Mrs. Olive Floyd chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Martha Bittle as chairman of the decorations committee.

Thirty guests called during the tea hours to meet the visiting officers. Mrs. Leah Ivie assisted Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Floyd, president of the Wenonah club, and Mrs. Singler poured music was furnished by Miss Carol Davis.

Tea was served from a table beautifully appointed in pink and green.

The four visiting officers left Medford Saturday morning for San Jose, Calif., where they will visit the San Jose lodge.

Sojourners' Club Party Is Planned For Next Thursday

Plans for a neighborhood party were made at the meeting of the Medford Sojourners' club held Thursday at the Girls' Community club. The party will be Thursday, May 31, and those wishing to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Vincent Smith, at 3466, for reservations.

Hostesses for last week's affair were Mrs. George Turney, Mrs. Jack Lowe and Mrs. Harry Stahl. Dessert was served from a table centered with roses. Prizes for cards went to Mrs. C. Talbot, Mrs. I. W. Housechild, Mrs. Robert Colbourn, Mrs. Maurice Martin and Mrs. John Lohman. Other prizes went to Mrs. George Joyce and Mrs. Earl Gardiner.

Enjoyable Party Given Wednesday By Evening Guild

The benefit card party given Wednesday evening by St. Mark's Evening guild proved to be an enjoyable and successful affair with 30 tables in play. Dessert was served before the card games, with the tables centered with small bouquets of roses and other garden blossoms. Large bouquets of flowers decorated the parish hall where the party was held.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Virgil Lancaster and Miss Jeanette Tjoelker and the pinochle prize to Mrs. N. D. Rowe. Other prizes were won by Mrs. C. E. Piney, Mrs. Saemons, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Tjoelker and Mrs. Osborne.

Mrs. Paul Selby was chairman in charge of the party and Mrs. Vera Strade is president of the guild.

CAMPBELL'S MILK
PASTEURIZED or RAW
Grade A — at your favorite
Grocer, or phone 4190

AAUW Announces Dinner Meeting Tuesday Evening

Last meeting of the year for the Medford branch of American Association of University Women will be a dinner meeting Tuesday, May 29, at the Holland Hotel. The affair is set for seven o'clock and those who have not already made reservations are asked to call Mrs. E. C. Niles, 6062.

Mrs. Richard Payne, in charge of the program, states that material to be presented during the evening was forwarded from national headquarters and should prove of much interest. Musical numbers are also being arranged.

Miss Helen Parish, president of the Medford branch, last week received news of the awarding of 19 fellowships by the association. The awards total $28,500, the release states. The AAUW fellowships are awarded annually to women scholars for projects in advanced research. Most of the awards this year are in the liberal arts, since war work has absorbed most physical science researchers, women as well as men, it was stated.

Twelve of the 19 awards are national fellowships open to American women scholars; two are given to promote study between the United States and the Latin American countries; and four are international fellowships awarded to women scholars for study in some country other than their own.

Grade Teachers Banquet-Meeting Is Held Tuesday

A banquet held Tuesday at the Holland Hotel was the closing event of the year for the Medford Grade Teachers' association. Miss Ora Cox presided in the absence of Mrs. Nina Carlon, president. Mrs. Ruth Bolton was program chairman for the evening and Frank F. Honts acted as toastmaster.

Interesting talks on the early history of the Medford schools were given by Mrs. Blanche Canode, Miss Amy Harding, Miss Ora Cox and Miss Sara Van Meter. Brief remarks on recent school activities were made by Miss Lysle Gregory, Mrs. Esther Fliegel, Mrs. Bertha Haskins and H. W. Gustin.

New officers for the coming year were introduced. They are Mrs. Marian Beeson, president; Mrs. Anna Carter, vice-president; Mrs. Marjorie Mack, secretary; Mrs. Thelma Halvorsen, treasurer.

Songs were led by Miss Laura York and solos were given by Mrs. Kathryn Larison, accompanied by Mrs. George Maddox. The committee in charge of the banquet consisted of Mrs. Ruth Bolton, chairman; Mrs. Della Weber, table decorations; Mrs. Bertha Haskins, Mrs. Esther Fliegel, Miss Eunice Gray, Mrs. Blanche Canode and Mr. Honts.

Installation Held By Delta Deb Club

Formal installation of officers was held Monday evening by the Delta Deb club, the ceremony taking place at the home of Miss Jean Zacharisen, 714 Beekman street.

Miss Donna Brewer was installed as president and Miss Lorraine Persgard, vice-president. Other new officers are Miss June Bosworth, secretary; Miss Beverly Bishop, treasurer; Miss Zacharisen, social chairman.

Willoughbys Return After Visit in City
Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Willoughby, Jr., of San Diego, have left for their home after spending two weeks here with Mr. Willoughby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Willoughby, Sr., of 18 Hawthorne street.

Mrs. Paul Selby was chairman in charge of the party and Mrs. Vera Strade is president of the guild.

More Time for War Work and the Victory Garden

It's foolish to attempt to do your own washing when it can be so economically done at the American Laundry. Gives you more leisure time!

BUY WAR BONDS

American Laundry
PHONE 3518
172 SOUTH CENTRAL

Pfc. and Mrs. Robert L. Jones were married in the Medford Methodist church in April. Mrs. Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hickman, 207 Haven street. Pfc. Jones, whose parents reside in Newark, Ohio, served in the European theater for 13 months. (Shangle photo.)

Jeanne Crawford, Sergeant Ferris Married Recently

Miss Jeanne Crawford, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Crawford, 321 North Grape street, became the bride of Master Sgt. George Ferris in a double-ring ceremony held Sunday, April 29, at the Catholic Post Chapel, Sioux City air base, Sioux City, Iowa.

For the service the bride was attired in a green suit worn with brown accessories and a corsage of carnations. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. James Favour of Sioux City.

Following the service a wedding dinner was served at Green Gables and the bride and groom then left for a wedding trip to Minnesota.

Sgt. and Mrs. Ferris will reside for the present at Sioux City, where Sgt. Ferris is stationed at the airbase. He returned recently from 30 months overseas duty in Africa, Italy and India. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferris of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Ferris attended St. Mary's Academy and Medford high school. For the past several years she has been employed in the office of Snider's Dairy in Medford.

Musical Program To Be Presented By Rogue Chorus

The Rogue Valley chorus, of which Miss Mabel Nansen is director, will give a musicale the evening of June 8 at the senior high school auditorium. This chorus, made up of about 40 male and female voices, has been rehearsing all winter and spring.

In addition to chorus numbers there will be selections by soloists and duet numbers and the music will be diversified, with numbers ranging from popular to classical.

Miss Nansen states that she feels encouraged at the enthusiasm and progress shown by the group, particularly since wartime difficulties have had to be overcome.

There will be no admittance charge for the musical program.

Family Will Leave For North Wednesday

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Clare, 21 South Washington, and their two children, Jack and Judy, will leave Wednesday morning for Portland where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Clare, former manager here for the Zellerbach Paper company, arrived in Medford last week from Portland, where he has been transferred by the firm.

Musical Society Elects Officers For Coming Year

Mrs. O. L. Williams was elected president of the Medford Musical society at the last meeting of the year held Monday at the home of Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Siskiyou Heights. She succeeds Mrs. Howard Rutherford.

Mrs. Thomas Young was named vice-president, Mrs. Richard Alley, secretary, and Mrs. Rhea Hoover, treasurer.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Rutherford and her board of officers the regular cultural and social musical programs have been given each month by the society and substantial gain has been made in the establishment of a scholarship fund for the assistance of talented and ambitious music students the society reports. This latter has been one of the main projects of the group. The society was also an active sponsor of the successful civic music concert series.

After the business session Monday evening Mrs. John Day, program chairman, presented a program of modern music under the direction of Miss Mabel Nansen, music supervisor of the city schools, featuring high school groups. The numbers, as well as Miss Nansen's comments on the various selections, were much appreciated.

Mrs. Hogan was assisted by Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap, Mrs. M. T. Wray and Mrs. Jester.

Medford Couple Will Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. McMillin of 56 North Peach street will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Monday. The McMillins have planned no social functions due to war-time conditions.

The couple came to Medford from Roseburg about 10 years ago and have lived in Oregon for the past 26 years. They were married at Lake City, Minn., May 28, 1895. Mrs. McMillin is a native of Rochester, N. Y., while her husband was born at Bear Valley, Minn.

The McMillins have one daughter, Mrs. Vera Strader, and one granddaughter, Patricia, Ann, who make their home with the couple. Both Mr. and Mrs. McMillin are members of the Episcopal church.

Auxiliary-Guild Picnic Postponed Two Weeks

The picnic planned for May 29 by St. Mark's Auxiliary-Guild has been postponed due to the unfavorable weather. Mrs. N. D. Rowe, president, announced Saturday. The affair was to have been at the home of Mrs. Chester Pich, Phoenix. It will be held June 12.

Dance Is Given Friday at Hotel By Association

A formal dance was given at the Medford Hotel Friday evening of last week by the Mutual Improvement association of the Latter Day Saints' church. A festive setting for the enjoyable affair was provided by a profusion of spring blossoms.

Miss Evelyn Van Hise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Van Hise, was elected Spring Queen. She was crowned and presented to the guests by Paul Skeen, Klamath Falls, district president of the Latter Day Saints' church.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clements, Lt. Col. and Mrs. John W. Horsley, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mielke. The grand march was led by Miss Gloria McGraw, secretary of the association, and Rene Bounds.

Music for dancing was furnished by Carl Winklebleck and his orchestra and accordion numbers were given by Roger Hogstrom and Robert Lee Fisher.

The committee which planned the dance was made up of the M.I.A. officers, including Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Collins Hassell, Mrs. David Nielson, Miss McGraw, Elza Despain and Floyd Nielson.

Guests included members of the military as well as townspeople of the valley and 16 guests came from Klamath Falls for the affair.

Dinner Is Given Saturday Evening

Mrs. Corbin Edgell and Mrs. George W. Pitts entertained last evening at a dinner party, the affair being at Mrs. Edgell's home, 22 Berkeley Way.

Mrs. Pitts, who spent the winter here with her sister, Mrs. Lillian Salade, Central Point, is leaving June 12 to spend the next few months at her summer home in Michigan and in Chicago.

S. F. Club Meeting Held at Rose Home

Mrs. Florence Rose and Mrs. Lina Dyer entertained the S. F. club May 16 at the Rose home on Chestnut street. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and the afternoon spent in games with prizes going to the Mesdames Viola Trautman, Lucretia Jordan, Ida Vickoren and Clara Tilley.

Church Study Class Changes Meeting Day

The study class of the Women's Society of Christian Service ordinarily held on Wednesday will meet this week on Tuesday, since Wednesday is Memorial Day. The meeting will be at the church at 1:30 p. m.

Rebekah Lodge Holds Election Monday Evening

Mrs. Carolyn Edwards was elected noble grand of Olive Rebekah lodge at the meeting held Monday night at the I.O.O.F. hall here. Mrs. Jane McCarty was elected vice-grand; Mrs. Maud Daugherty, recording secretary and Mrs. Julia Gregory, treasurer.

Mrs. Ina Huson, Lozier Lane, was recommended for another term as district deputy president for this district. Due to war conditions, no sessions of the Rebekah and I.O.O.F. grand lodges were held this year and all state officers will hold office for another year, the local lodge has been informed.

Entertainment for the evening was planned by Jessie Howard and refreshments were served by Lona Bergman and a committee.

Mrs. Lena Roseberry, member of Olive Rebekah lodge now living in Oakland, Calif., was a visitor. It was announced during the meeting that Mr. and Mrs. Eber Weed had been called to Kansas by the death of Mr. Weed's brother.

Next meeting of the order will be June 4.

SPECIAL MEMORIAL SERVICE ST. MARK'S

5th and Oakdale

Sunday 27th, 11 a. m.

Veterans and patriotic orders and families especially invited to attend.

NOVELTY WOVEN STRIPED COTTON CHAMBRAY—WASHABLE

Terse tailoring, with a wonderful eye to the small details, is what makes Joyce Hubert the nation's outstanding maker of dresses of inexpensive smartness. Striped-foxation with sleek lines, this frock features an unusual version of the sweetheart neckline. An exquisitely stitched fly front buttons all the way for a smooth-setting line. The minuscule waist is cinched in by a set-in belt. In Blue, Brown, Green and Red. Sizes 10 to 20.

CALOTS for GRADUATION

Crocheted and Straw $1.75 to $2.65 Pay Less and Dress Better

M. M. Dept. Store

WHAT ARE YOU FIGHTING WITH?

The greatest weapons are Prayer and Faith in God

Three Great Meetings Today!

at the

APOSTOLIC FAITH CHURCH

N. Central Ave. at 3rd St.

Devotional & Evangelistic Services: 11 a.m., 3 p.m., 7:45 p.m.

Sunday School for Adults and Young People, 9:30 a.m.

"Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Inspiring Music—Evangelistic Preaching

Don't DIMOUT Your Beauty

No indeed! No need to disguise your beauty these strenuous days. Defense duties, at home, or those nights when he's home on leave. Let these Elmo glamour specialties mean all-out beauty.

TAYLOR'S PENNY-WISE DRUGS

323 E. MAIN • MEDFORD

ADRIENNE'S

For Play on Decoration Day!

Make Decoration Day a big day... crowd in a week's fun by having clothes that make life a picnic! You'll get a whole Summerful of pleasure from these gay fashions.

ADRIENNE'S